Twenty-one Seniors Receive Commencement Honors

Those who received their degrees at the recent Commencement Exercises on January 17, 1952, were:

Robert J. Bennett, who is from Athens, Pa., and was in the music curriculum. His activities included membership in orchestra for four years, in Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Advanced Chorus, Community Orchestra, String Quartet and Trio for his last three years, Music Educators Club his junior and senior years and Madrigals, Intercollegiate Chorus and Orchestra his junior year.

The elementary department graduated the following:

Thomas R. Ganley, who is from Mansfield, Pa. He belonged to the Day Students Club and A.C.E.I. his sophomore, junior and senior years, and the Art Club his junior and senior years.

William C. Lowe, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., belonged to A.C.E.I. four years.

John G. McMaster, also of Wilkes-Barre, was in the Day Students Club and A.C.E.I. his junior and senior years.

William R. Meyer, of Wesleyville, Pa., was active in band for four years, orchestra his first two, Phi Mu Alpha for three, the Art Club in his junior year, and Kappa Delta Pi and A.C.E.I. in his junior and senior years.

Glenn G. Stover from Muncy, Pa., was the treasurer of his junior class, in the Y.M.C.A. for four years, belonged to the Day Students Club for three years, was business manager of the Carontawan, and on the staff of the FLASHLIGHT in his senior year.

Joan Worthington, from New Albany, Pa., belonged to A.C.E.I. for four years, and to Y.W.C.A. and W.A.A. for three. She is now teaching kindergarten at Bradford, New York.

Those who were in the secondary curriculum included:

Clement Cobasko, from Mocanaqua, Pa., who belonged to the Day Students Club for three years, Sigma Zeta for two years, and College Players for his first two. He belonged to Phi Sigma Pi for three years, for which he was Historian in his junior year and Treasurer in his senior year.

James B. Darling, Wellsboro, Pa., belonged to the Day Students Club for four years.

William Doherty, of Blakely, Pa., belonged to the Day Students Club for four years and also participated in intramural sports.

Regina C. Eshmont, from Atlas, Pa., belonged to Y.W.C.A. her first year, and W.A.A. her sophomore and junior years.

Gaylord H. Evey, of Bellefonte, Pa., was in the Day Students Club for three years and Y.M.C.A. his first three years.

Richard Haig, of Philadelphia, Pa., participated in Intramural sports.

Robert M. Mitstifer, of Troy, Pa., was a member of the Day Students Club for four years.

Brooks E. Nancarrow, from Wellsboro, Pa., belonged to Sigma Zeta his first two years, Kappa Delta Pi his senior year, and the Day Students Club for four years.

Richard W. Oliver, of Covington, Pa., belonged to Kappa Delta Pi during his junior and senior years.

Thomas E. Prugh, of Tioga, Pa., was a member of the Day Students Club, Kappa Delta Pi, Phi Sigma Pi, and Sigma Zeta.

Arthur J. Sherman, who is from Grassflat, Pa., and Paul M. Tice, of Troy, Pa., who belonged to Kappa Delta Pi for two years, and the Day Students Club for three years. In his junior year he was on the executive board of the latter organization.

The staff of the FLASHLIGHT extends congratulations and best wishes for all of their endeavors in the future.

January and February Assemblies and Movies

The January assembly programs included a very fine concert by the Symphonic Band under the direction of Mr. Francis, a lecture on glass, by Mr. Harold Voigt of Corning, sponsored by the Sigma Zeta and the Mid-Year Commencement Exercises.

The February fifth assembly program will be "Cavalcade of America" in charge of Kappa Delta Pi.

On February twelfth, the college will have the privilege of witnessing a series of authentic, American Indian dances, performed by Gladys and Reginald Laubin. The Laubins have been praised by critics all over the country for the beauty and inventiveness of their dances, the splendor of their costumes, and the spirit which motivates their performance.

February 25 brings us a play entitled "The World Today" which will be planned and performed by Mrs. E. Hendrick's fifth grade. The children will also sing a few songs and give a demonstration of flags.

During the month of January, the following films were shown at Straughn Auditorium.

"The Glass Menagerie", a fine screen adaptation of Tennessee Williams' play about the inability of a family to face reality. Jane Wyman was wonderful as the sensitive, crippled girl whose greatest joy was in her collection of delicate glass animals. Arthur Kennedy did a fine job in the role of the brother, who ultimately sought escape from his unhappy home by joining the Merchant Marines.

"Let's Dance", a technicolor musical starring Betty Hutton and Fred Astaire.

"September Affair", in which Joan Fontaine and Joseph Cotton played the unfortunate lovers in the interesting little tale of a casual encounter that developed into a "grande affaire", all to the accompaniment of beautiful background music.

There will be only one movie shown in February due to the abundance of basketball games. This movie has not yet been selected.

College Players to Present "The Taming of the Shrew"

One of the most ambitious productions yet attempted by The College Players is Shakespeare's lively farce, THE TAMING OF THE SHREW. For centuries considered the gayest of the great dramatist's comedies, it is ideal for amateur production—provided an organization has among its number a talented KATE and PETRUCHIO. The Players feel they have at present the ideal people for these rowdy, unrestrained roles: Donna Poster and Bill McNett. The cast is a very large one, using all the men enrolled in the acting division of the club and with even back-stage members pressed into service.

The stage settings will be entirely original, designed and worked out by Olive Knieram and Eric Hughes and their committee. They are hard at work on the preliminary sketches which present an Elizabethan stage, with interesting adaptations appealing to a modern audience.

The Costume Committee, under Alma Reaver and Arlene Shaeffer, have the enormously difficult task of selecting and ordering dozens of authentic costumes from a nationally famous firm, as well as designing and making many others.

Harry Mancia, Ray Kepner and Pat Gallagher have at this early date chosen entre-acte music and are researching for period chamber music suitable for use throughout the play. The more popular selections from KISS ME KATE have been chosen as amusing and appropriate for the organ interludes. For those who don't realize it, this delightful light opera is the musical adaptation of the Shakespearean comedy.

All seventy members of the College Players will be vitally concerned with this lavish production. Slightly nervous, they admit, over the unprecedented expenses of so elaborate an undertaking, they are still confident that it is an eminently worthwhile undertaking—to bring to the campus a spirited Shakespearean play with which they hope to prove to students and community that a comedy three centuries old from the pen of the world's greatest dramatist can still be as appealing romantically and as an evening's gay entertainment as it was in the days of good Queen Bess.

It is hoped that everyone on the campus will plan to support the Players in their ambitious efforts to make THE TAMING OF THE SHREW the most successful and amusing production in their ten years of existence.

The cast in its entirety is excellent. Every role is a challenge to talent and ingenuity, for even the smallest in a play by Shakespeare must be diligently studied and worked over and rehearsed to squeeze from it all the wit, fun and gaiety with which it is imbued.

JOHN MacLEAN

John MacLean Delegate to Conference

The twenty-seventh annual conference of the Eastern States Association of Professional Schools for Teachers will be held in the Hotel New Yorker, New York City, on March twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth. John MacLean has been elected as the delegate from the Mansfield State Teachers College. Accompanying him to the conference will be the following officers-elect for the coming year: President of the Student Council, President of the Women's Dormitory Council, and President of the Men's Dormitory Council.

At the Conference, discussions will be viewed from the standpoints of schools with enrollment under five hundred, and those with larger enrollments. For each topic under discussion there will be a president, a recorder, and an evaluator. Mr. MacLean will serve as evaluator for the discussion, "In our teacher education programs, we learn to understand many forms of lay appraisal and evaluation of our leadership as teachers."

The cast follows:

Tavern Woman	Helen Seeley
Nobleman	Robert Share
Hunter	Llewellyn Turnbull
Sly, the Tinker	Pat Gallagher

Extras:	Lords and ladies, servants.

High School Musicians Heard in Concert

The Pennsylvania Central District Orchestra Festival, held in Mansfield on January tenth, eleventh and twelfth, presented an excellent concert at eight o'clock, Saturday, January 12, in Straughn Auditorium. The 130-piece organization was composed of selected students from the Central District and represented the following schools: Mansfield, John Baynes, host; Bellefonte, Bradford, Clearfield, Coudersport, Elkland, Hughesville, Jersey Shore, Kane, Lewistown, Lock Haven, Middleburg, Morrison Cove, Renova, Ridgeway, Roulette, State College, Tioga, Tyrone, Wellsboro, Westfield, and Williamsport.

Guest Conductor was Mr. Sigmund Michota, who is Director of Orchestra, and Instructor in Conducting and Orchestration. He is also the organizer and director of the Mansfield Community Symphony Orchestra, now in its third year.

A special youth concert was presented on Friday afternoon for students in the Mansfield public schools. On Saturday evening the following program was given:

Bach's "Sheep May Safely Graze," "Symphony Number 2, Romantic" by Howard Hanson, McKay's "Suite on Fiddlers' Tunes", Handel's "Prelude and Fugue in D Minor", "Waltz from Masquerade Suite", "Running off the Rails" by Richardson, "Suite Number 1 in E Flat" by Holst.

"Gossips" by Dubensky, a very effective number for string orchestra, was especially well received. Brian Doud, Mansfield Senior High School senior, was heard as violin soloist in "Zigeunerweisen" composed by Sarasate, with Marjorie Brodrick as piano accompanist.

On Sunday afternoon, Radio Station WCBA in Corning, gave a transcribed broadcast of the performance which was sponsored by the Mansfield Business Men.

Many of these young musicians will be chosen to attend Pennsylvania All-State Orchestra to be held in Williamsport on February seventh, eighth, and ninth with Mr. Osborne L. Housel as host to the festival. Mr. Karl D. Van Holsen, faculty member of Eastman School of Music, will be the guest conductor for that affair.

Promenade Recital

A promenade recital was held on January 15, 1952, at 6:45 p. m. in Straughn Auditorium. The following program was presented:

Mr. Doyle, Accompanist

Program on Marriage Presented by Campus Y

This past month has brought the program on marriage as sponsored by the Campus YMCA and YWCA to a close. The idea for the meetings was based on suggestions by members of the student body and was planned by the cabinet of the Campus Y.

The first meeting of the series was held January 3 with Mrs. Elizabeth B. Morales as guest speaker. Mrs. Morales spoke on "Preparing for Marriage" and included in her lecture the items to be considered in choosing a mate and the necessary personal characteristics to be evaluated. Emotional and social maturity were defined and stressed as necessary factors. Also included was a list of things considered necessary in a marriage partner by a survey conducted among students of various colleges.

The next phase of the program was conducted by Dr. Earl Seibert who spoke on "Making a Success of Marriage." Under this heading Dr. Seibert discussed the social, economical, recreational, and various other factors that contributed to a successful marriage, and how these were not separate in themselves, but functioned as an integrated whole. The need for cooperation and compromise was considered during the course of the meeting as being important.

The third meeting held on January 17 was conducted by Reverend David Griffiths who spoke on "A Christian Marriage." Emphasis was placed on approaching marriage as something sacred and giving it the respect it is due. Also brought out in Mr. Griffiths' talk was the relation of religion to morality and the social adjustments necessary in marriage.

A movie entitled "Angry Boy" was shown in Straughn Hall the following Thursday. The film, which centered on family life, was intended to fit in with the rest of the program. Through the means of examples in a family situation, the film showed how emotional tension in the home can effect each of its members.

A panel discussion will be held on Thursday, January 31, to voice student opinion and bring the series to a close.

Vesper Service

On February third at seven-thirty, a College Community Vesper Service will be held in Straughn Hall. The speaker for the evening will be Mr. Eades, a minister, from State College, Pennsylvania.

THE IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

Education is the most important business in America. The hope for a free world in the future rests upon education. For more than a century and a half the American people believed in free education and public schools. No other nation has equalled the progress of America or even approached its way of life. No other nation ever placed so much faith in education. Our forefathers bequeathed to us the greatest school system in the world. They were zealous, determined, courageous men and women possessed with unselfish motives which ennobled life.

The great blessings, the rich rewards, which we enjoy in this twentieth century are the results of their courage, self-reliance, and industry. If we would acquire the things we desire mentally and physically we must sow the seeds with diligence and industry before we can reap the harvest. If we hope to develop our noble purposes, advance the cause of education, be victorious over Communism, safe-guard the nation from un-American ideologies, teachers must be courageous, self-reliant, and accept their work as an obligation of trust and responsibility. Morally and spiritually we are selling out. We encourage a false civilization and expect our schools to do the things we will not do. Many boys and girls enter society under false pretense mainly because too many teachers, parents, and older people will not accept their inherent obligations or meet the requirements of a confused and troubled age.

The crucial battles of the next half century will not be won on the battle fields of Korea, or the islands of the Pacific, or on the continent of Europe, but in the minds and hearts of men.

"God sends his teachers unto every age,
To every clime and every race of men,
With revelations fitted to their growth
And shape of mind, nor gives the realm of Truth
Into the selfish rule of one sole race;
Therefore each form of worship that hath swayed
The life of man, and given it to grasp
The master key of knowledge, reverence,
Enfolds some germ of goodness and of right."

THE HONORABLE IRA T. FISS,
Former Speaker of the House.

A NEW SEMESTER

The first half of this academic year is over, and we are starting a new phase in our educational career. With this beginning, let us keep in mind our duties and obligations as teachers, leaders of tomorrow. We are seeking to develop informed, resourceful, and loyal citizens. Now, as never before, we must realize the full measure of that responsibility.

It is our privilege as college students to enlarge our understanding of the physical and social world, and of the needs and desires of the individual within that world. Our educational system has made notable progress in its efforts to help us gain that needed understanding. Psychology has given us tools of new precision. We need only to observe the results obtained by systems under dictatorships to be able to define with increasing clarity our youth-building objectives. Let us strive to keep those objectives clearly before us as we start this new era in our development.

EXCHANGE OF STUDENTS IS MADE IN APARTMENT

The Junior Home Economics Students who lived in the apartment first semester are back in the dormitory now. Those who have moved to the apartment are: Ellen Graf, Mae Kline, Mary Konsko, Barbara Keller, Lois Owens, Charlotte Peeke, Dora Jane Taylor, and Irene Weaver.

PHI SIGMA PI

Phi Sigma Pi is making plans for the "Sod-Busters' Ball" to be held on February ninth at eight o'clock p.m.

Has Article Published

Mr. George Langdon, instructor in earth sciences, has had an article published in the January, 1952 issue of the professional magazine, "Economic Geography". The article is entitled "Delimiting the Main Line District of Philadelphia" and concerns itself with using the method of superimposition to draw the boundaries of a region. The magazine is available in the College Library. Mr. Langdon has had other material published on the Geography of Pennsylvania, particularly well known is his workbook "Exploring Pennsylvania."

COLLEGE PLAYERS

On December 17, College Players held their last meeting of 1951. It was decided that new flats should be obtained instead of using money for sending a group to New York this year. After a rather long business meeting, various members imitated "distinguished campus personalities" — with no malicious intent, be it added! Good-natured exaggeration was the keynote. The program was definitely entertaining.

The first meeting of 1952 was held January 15 in Straughn Auditorium. Committees for the February play were appointed. After the adjournment of the business meeting Peter Giorgi read excerpts from his Modern Drama term paper, on Stagecraft, emphasizing settings, set design and lighting. It was a most interesting and valuable exposition, especially for a dramatic group.

ART CLUB

The Art Club is opening the new year by sponsoring a "Mardi Gras" dance on February 23, 1952. This is the first of the annual dances to be held under their sponsorship. The plans, now under way, are being executed by the following chairmen, co-chairmen, and their committees: publicity, Dorothy Irwin; programs, Peggy Lindgren; tickets, Mary Ruth Squires; concessions, Thomas Santiso; decorations, Mary Konsko, Ethel Berger, and Doris Weaver.

PHI MU ALPHA

The annual Phi Mu Alpha Convention was held at Ithaca College on the 16th and 17th of January, 1952. This Province I Convention included all Phi Mu Alpha Fraternities in the Northeastern territory of the United States.

One representative from each Chapter gave a brief discussion in regards to the workings of his Chapter. Various concerts were given by the Ithaca College Glee Club and Symphony Orchestra. All delegates in attendance gave a musical performance, either in the form of solos or small chamber groups.

The Phi Mu Alpha Chapter from Mansfield was represented by the Knickerbocker Male Quartette, composed of Ben Evans, Gerald Darrow, Blaine Ballard, and Harley Rex, who sang several fraternity songs at the convention. Edward Roberts was the fifth delegate from Mansfield who attended the convention.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

On January 9, twelve candidates were initiated into Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity. Each non-acting pledge gave a brief dissertation on the phase of stage work in which he or she was interested: make-up, set design, costuming, properties and music; while acting members presented short skits. After the candle-light ritual, the new members were welcomed by advisers, Miss Allen and Miss Drum, and by senior members, Donna Poster and Elizabeth Redcay. Those initiated were Martha Ashby, Alphonse Zastavny, Joanne Johnson, Lois Long, Bettie Nelson, Ford Button, Donna Jones, Eric Hughes, Robert Long, Eva Lou Charles, Richard Stone, and Ray Kepner.

A.C.E.I.

The A.C.E.I. Study Conference will be held in Philadelphia on April 14th to 18th, 1952. The Mansfield chapter of the organization has been notified that it will be allowed to send four official delegates. As yet no one has been chosen to represent Mansfield, but anyone who is interested may obtain more information from Edith Nelson.

W.A.A.

The W.A.A. volleyball tournament, which started in the middle of December, wound up the season with Catherine Prouty's team defeating Phyllis Riley's on January 15th in the final three game playoff series. Members of the victorious team include C. Prouty, M. Fuller, E. Charles, A. Shaffer, E. Bjorck, N. Davidheiser, E. Redcay, and J. Harris. P. Riley, D. Weaver, P. Schimer, S. Timmins, G. Holcomb, M. Ruth, D. Erwin, D. Sulouff, D. Van Doren, Y. Steinmetz, and S. Whitmoyer played on the losing team.

On January 17, the bowling league started play with twelve teams signing up to play on Tuesday and Thursday nights. S. Sutton and S. Conrad are managers.

Sixteen teams have entered the basketball tournament scheduled to start January 23rd. The managers are D. Erwin, B. Keller, and P. Schimer.

C. Cummings and C. Bureleigh are managers of the table tennis tournament to be played in North Hall next semester.

At the last W.A.A. meeting eleven members were presented keys and letters in recognition of their participation in athletic events sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association. The next awards are to be made at the end of the basketball season when several more girls will have earned the required points. Keys were awarded to J. Johnson, M. Kneiss, and B. Nelson; and letters to S. Conrad, C. Cummings, M. Fray, K. Keneske, C. Lobach, A. Shaffer, E. Sternman, and S. Sutton.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Dr. Mary Heltibridge was the speaker at the last meeting of Kappa Delta Pi. A interesting talk on Japanese educational principles was given after which questions were answered and discussed by Dr. Heltibridge. Many of Dr. Heltibridge's experiences during her stay in Japan were vividly and amusingly told and the members feel that this program was one of the most outstanding of this year's series.

In our December meeting the delegates were elected who will attend the Eighteenth Biennial Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi, which is to be held at the new, two-million-dollar Kellogg Center for Continuing Education at Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan, on March sixth, seventh, and eighth, 1952. The delegates elected were John MacLean and Thomas Santiso. They will represent our chapter and attend the sessions of the convocation.

Plans are being completed by the program committee for our assembly program, which will be given on February fifth. A short resume of Lincoln's life will be given with Richard Thorne and Olive Knierim as the principals.

CAMPUS Y

The month of January has brought to a successful conclusion the marriage program, and the organization wishes to thank everyone connected with it.

The Y is now looking ahead to its plans for the month of February. Elsie Neal, Chairman of the World Relatedness Commission, has charge of the activities and has presented a tentative schedule. For the four meetings planned, the first will bring to campus a foreign student who will talk and discuss with the group; it is not as yet known what his subject will be. The next meeting will emphasize the World Student Day of Prayer, and the third will feature a film on the life of a Japanese boy. The last meeting of the month will be a panel discussion. As usual the entire student body is welcome to attend.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Mabel Fullmer was pledged into Kappa Omicron Phi on January 17, at a special pledging ceremony.

Charlotte Peeke, first vice-president, will be presiding officer of the organization during the absence of the president, Katherine Prouty, who will be student teaching at Canton.

Mrs. Morales, club adviser, was at the Farm Show at Harrisburg during the week of January 14. Mrs. Morales acted as a judge of Home Economics exhibits.

DAY STUDENT CLUB

The Day Students wish to express their appreciation to the administration, the dining room personnel, and the various members of the club who made the Christmas dinner possible.

The organization has made tentative plans for a banquet in the near future. These plans call for a dinner, followed by a dance. If the plans go through, this will be the organization's first banquet. The following committee will investigate the possibilities, Chairman, Nelson Entwistle; Jack Shaw, Eleanor Miller, Aubrey Dunne, Becky Casey and Frank Michanowicz. An auditing committee was appointed to audit the treasurer's book for the past semester. The committee consists of Aubrey Dunne and Leslie Froman.

KAPPA PHI

The Alpha Zeta Chapter held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Jay Foreman, its sponsor. At this time the program was planned for the year.

We were very glad to welcome Mrs. Samuel Long, former Dean of Women at M.S.T.C., as new co-sponsor in place of Mrs. Floyd Guiles. The first fall activity was a hot dog and marshmallow roast for the new members coming into the club.

Two very impressive ceremonies were held in the sanctuary of the church, that of pledging and initiation.

The first project of this school year was the selling of Christmas cards. The pledges took a leading part in this and the project proved to be quite successful.

OMICRON GAMMA PI

On January 15 and 16, the Sophomore foods class entertained the Freshman Home Economics girls at tea in the family dining room of their department. Virginia Clement and Alma Reaver were general chairmen for groups A and B, respectively. A McCall's fashion show was presented at this time. It featured a teen-ager's wardrobe of the latest fashions, consisting of evening dresses, sportswear, suits, and date dresses. Alma Reaver and Myra Lex were commentators for the event. Sophomore girls modeled the clothes. Guests at the tea, which was held to acquaint the girls with the Foods Department, were Misses Eleanor Johnson, Maryon Farner, Melinda Fiat, Reba Basom, and Mrs. Lilyan Galbraith.

There was no January meeting of Omicron Gamma Pi, but the regular February meeting will feature another style show, showing garments sent out by the National Cotton Company. Omicron girls will be the models.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Plans for the Sophomore Talent Show to be held on March 21, 1952, have started under the direction of Robert English. Other persons who have been assigned to the Talent Show are Becky Casey, Laura Marvin and Patricia Myers. A special meeting of the class will be held to discuss further plans for this activity.

Please notify Bud Dunne if you change to the Junior class this semester.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CLASS

The committee chosen to select the orchestra for the Junior-Senior Dance, which will be held on April 19, 1952, was appointed by the joint officers of the Junior and Senior classes at a recent meeting.

Members of this committee are: Chairman, Harry Mancia; Juniors, Helen Russell and Gerald Darrow; Seniors, Olive Knierim and Elizabeth Redcay.

Reports from the committee indicate that they are investigating possibilities; and in a short time, will be able to give us the name of the selected orchestra.

Whites Top Reds In Inter-Squad Game

On December 14 there was an inter-squad game in the college gymnasium. The game took the place of the previously scheduled game with King's College which was cancelled. The White team composed of "Hank" Goodman, Steve Jurnack, Bob Maxson, Nate George, "Sam" Woodard, Curt Maxson and Bob Sternhorn defeated the Red team to the tune of 57-46. The Red team featured such players as Chet Swimey, Julian Gottlieb, Dick Wilcox, Jim Marshall, Ed Gee, Bob Lieb and Tom Best.

The first quarter was nip and tuck

with both teams getting off to a slow start. The White team led at the end of the first quarter 10 to 9. The White team managed to widen the gap a bit which saw some nice footwork and set shooting by Nate George. Bob Maxson also helped in the scoring with his one-handed jump shots. The Whites led at half time.

The Red team came back with a rush in the third quarter and narrowed the score down to 34 to 32 at the quarter's end, with Julie Gottlieb, Chet Swimely and Dick Wilcox doing most of the scoring. Gottlieb pushed six straight points through the hoop with his one-handed sets.

In the fourth quarter the Whites took charge again with Nate George setting the pace with eight points, up the score to a final 57 to 46.

High scorers for the Whites were Nat George with 19, and Bob Maxson with 15. For the Reds, Gottlieb was high with 14, and Wilcox was second with 11.

Cortland Stops Mounts 84-65

M.S.T.C. lost their second straight exhibition game 84-65 to Cortland S. T. C., one of the better State Teachers College teams in this region.

The "Mounts" put up a stubborn battle until the last few minutes of the game, when the boys from Cortland put on an exceptional good ball-handling exhibition to win by a wide margin. The score of this game does not indicate the quality of play that our boys showed. For if not for the loss, due to personal fouls, of Steve Jurnack, who played one of his best games as a Mountaineer; Chet Swimely, who sparked an early rally, and Nate George, who played a fine game at guard, the score would have undoubtedly have been closer. Credit should also be given, for it was well deserved, to Bobby Maxson, Hank Goodman, Bobby Lieb, and Jim Marshall. High scorers for the "Mounts" were Bobby Maxson, 14; Steve Jurnack, 13; Nate George, 12, and Hank Goodman, 12.

Wilkes Racks up 86-58 Victory Over M.S.T.C.

Putting on a tremendous scoring drive in the second half, the Wilkes quintet trounced M.S.T.C., 86 to 58 at the Wilkes gym.

Leading 37 to 30 at halftime, the Colonels poured it on in the final stanza. The Colonels were sparked by some brilliant shooting on the part of John Millman, who was high man with 18 points. Close behind in scoring honors were Len Bartoney with 17, and Bob Benson with 16 markers. Wilkes jumped ahead in the opening

Hi there sports fans. Now that the big vacation is over the college sports are back in full swing. At this writing our basketball squad had three games under their belts. They won the opener from Harpur and then dropped two in a row to Wilkes and Cortland S.T.C.

Other sports activities around the campus are men's and women's intramural basketball and bowling. The men's basketball league is made up of the following teams: Y's Guys, Jr. Birdmen Snappers, Phi Kappa Bu, Hot Shots, 7 Wonders, Korean Kids, Casanova Crew, All Stars and The Things. The Korean Kids, coached by Jim Gardner, took the championship last year by defeating the Snappers in a best out of three series. The Snappers were coached by Bob Schmidt and Julian Gottlieb. The Kids won the final game by a 57-54 score. The "Kids" look like the team to beat again this year.

Do you know that one of M.S.T.C.'s best rooters during football season is ill? That person is Guss Rossi's father. On behalf of the football team, yours truly would like to wish him a speedy recovery.

The "M" Club has 7 new members in its organization. They are: Jim Brown, Herb Ruegg, and Joe Orse, football; Juilian Gottlieb, Jim Marshall, Chet Swimely, basketball, and Chet Swimely and Dick Wilcox, baseball. Nice going fellas.

Did you know that Wilkes College, who beat our basketball squad over the holidays, is ranking third in the nation in foul shooting? They have seconds of the game, and was never headed. Millman dunked in the initial field goal, and Benson and Bartoney followed with two quickies.

Even though Wilkes was in command throughout the entire game, it was a good affair the first two periods. Big guns for the Mountaineers were Steve Jurnack, R. Maxson, Goodman, and Gottlieb, who had 20, 11, 10 and 9, respectively.

George Ralston's team really got hot in the closing minutes and showed something new in their attack. The Blue and Gold unleashed a fast break. The Mountaineers were directed by Assistant Coach, Ed Rushin, who was subbing for ailing Ted Casey.

Wilkes led from the free throw line, sinking 14 while the teachers had 12 charity tosses.

Scores by quarters:
Mansfield 17 13 13 15—58
Wilkes 20 17 21 28—86
Fouls tried: Mansfield, 26; Wilkes, 19.
They are also fifth in the country in field goal shooting, sinking 41.1 per cent of their shots. That's shooting, boy.

Tackles Frank Sudak and Gene Cheplick are recovering very nicely after their operations over the holidays. Both had cartilages removed from their knees.

Room 4 in Alumni Hall should receive some kind of laurels. The reason? Participation in intercollegiate sports. The 4 boys in Room 4 and the sports activities are as follows:

Ed Mollahan, football; Nate George, basketball and baseball; Bob Maxson, basketball and baseball; and Steve Jurnack, basketball. Nate is also secretary of the "M" Club.

"Mounts Loose Two Men"

The "Mounts" lost a good floor man in Sam Woodard. Sam dropped out due to complications. Coach Cesey was counting heavily on the big boy. The second man lost to the "Mounts" is a rangy freshman, Ed Gee. Eddy, according to the coach, had great potentialities on the court. Ed transferred to the University of West Virginia. His ambition is to become a civil engineer.

Following are the statistics of the Mountaineers for games played prior to the Lock Haven game:

Name	Games	Pts.	Ave.
S. Jurnack	3	41	13.6
R. Maxson	3	40	13.3
N. George	3	32	10.6
H. Goodman	3	32	10.6
S. Woodard	2	16	8.0
J. Gottlieb	2	13	6.5
C. Swimely	3	13	4.3
J. Marshall	3	10	3.3
R. Lieb	3	6	2.0

Scoring Mansfield 203; Opponents 242.
Average per game: Mansfield 67.6;
Opponents, 80.6.

Lock Haven Downs Mounts, 65-52

Playing their first game against league competition, the Mounts lost to Lock Haven in the college gymnasium before a large, enthusiastic crowd. The game started off slowly with McDermott of Lock Haven dropping the first bucket.

The towering quintet of Lock Haven, which controlled the boards most of the evening, were very well held in check during the first quarter. Meanwhile, the Mansfield attack showed plenty of spark, paced by the floorwork of Nate George and Bob Maxson. Mansfield racked up 14 points in the first quarter to Lock Haven's 13. In the second quarter the advantage of height of Lock Haven began to show effect. They forged ahead to take a lead of 33 to 24 by the end of the first half.

As the second half began, Lock Haven took up where it had left off. McDermott and Everett led the scoring for Lock Haven in this first quarter of the second half. The quarter ended with Lock Haven leading 50-36. Nate George put on a beautiful exhibition of floorwork and shooting in this quarter. He was helped along in the scoring column by Steve Jurnack, who did a great deal in controlling the boards.

The fourth quarter saw Lock Haven putting the game on ice. McDermott started making shots from all over the court. Nate George matched his performance with his set shots. The game ended with the scoreboard showing Lock Haven 65, and Mansfield 52. High scorers for Lock Haven were McDermott, Everett, and Sundstrom, with 22, 10, and 10, respectively. High for the Mountaineers were "Scooter" George, who has 21, Butch Jurnack 11, and Bobby Maxson 8. Credit must also be given to Chet Swimely, Bob Lieb and Hank Goodman, who all played a nice game.

Intramural Basketball

The first week of intramural basketball proved to be very interesting. It looks like the Korean Kids, the defending champs, will have some stiff competition from the Y's Guys, Phi Kappa Bu, and the Snappers, last year's runner-ups. In their first two outings the Phi Kappa Bu displayed the best defense, holding their opponents to a total of 44 points, while the Kids showed their power in the offensive column with 120 points. Following are the scores and standings:

First Week

Y's Guys 37	Jr. Birdmen 20
Y's Guys 47	All Stars 36
Phi Kappa Bu 38	Snappers 34
Phi Kappa Bu 50	The Things 10

Draft Boards Are Issued New Rules for Men Students

Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service announced recently that Selective Service will not make any special provisions to give students 30 days after the end of their academic year to enlist in the service of their choice. General Hershey explained that such arrangements are not necessary this year as the 1951 amendments to the Selective Service law provides that students are hence forth to be deferred instead of having their induction postponed. They will, therefore, have ample opportunity after the completion of their academic year to enlist in the service of their choice.

The Selective Service Act of 1948 provided that any student who, while satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course, was ordered for induction would upon presenting the facts to his local board have his induction postponed until the end of his academic year. At the end of the year, the student became liable for immediate induction. The 1951 amendments to the act changed this, General Hershey pointed out, by providing that any student pursuing a full-time course who was ordered for induction would, if he had never before deferred as a student, be deferred in Class I-S until the end of his academic year, but he could receive only one such deferment.

A student who is entitled to a statutory I-S deferment must be ordered for induction, General Hershey pointed out, before he can be deferred by his local board. The law says that he shall be deferred "upon presenting the facts" that he is satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course at the time the order for induction is issued. A student who is ordered for induction should not be thrown into a panic, General Hershey explained, all that is necessary is for him to request the Dean or Registrar to immediately give his local board official notice that he is a full-time student doing satisfactory work and that such work actually commenced prior to the date the order for induction was mailed. Enrollment, acceptance and registration do not count, actual attendance at classes is the prerequisite.

The Selective Service law places upon each registrant the obligation of keeping the local board advised of his current status. It would therefore be a wise move, General Hershey suggested, for each student to have his school send official notice to the local board as soon as the student has been notified that he has passed his pre-induction examination. If the local board has been put on notice that the student is pursuing a full-time course, General Hershey advised, there will be little danger of a last minute mix-up which might result in the induction of a student legally entitled to a statutory I-S deferment.

The new Selective Service law provided for the Class I-S statutory deferment and gave the President authority to prescribe regulations governing the deferment of students in such numbers as he deemed necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest. The President subsequently prescribed a Class II-S student deferment program. Students may be placed in this classification, General Hershey explained, at the discretion of their local boards. To assist the boards in determining which students should be given II-S deferments, a method was set up whereby students who are in the prescribed upper portion of the male members of their class or who made a score of 70 or better on the Selective Service College Qualification Test may be considered by their local board for deferment. The law provides, however, that local boards are not required to defer men who meet one or both of the criteria. This is still discretionary on the part of the board. General policy is that students meeting either or both criteria will be deferred.

Students who meet one or both of the criteria for II-S deferment have a right of appeal if their local board does not defer them, General Hershey reminded students. The law provides that a student may appeal to the State Appeal Board within 10 days from the date the local board mails the notice that they have placed him in Class I-A. There is no particular form for taking an appeal, General Hershey explained, a letter to the local board setting forth the student's name and Selective Service number being all that is necessary. If the State Appeal Board sustains the local board but it is a split decision, General Hershey pointed out, the student then has a right to appeal to the National Selective Service Appeal Board. An appeal to the National Board is taken in the same manner as an appeal to the State Board, General Hershey explained. All that is necessary is another letter to the local board.

Many students have been confused General Hershey observed, in differentiating between the I-S and II-S deferments. The II-S deferment is considered on the basis of class standing of qualification test and is discretionary on the part of the local board, General Hershey explained. It may be granted by the local board each successive year, thus enabling students who meet the criteria to complete their education. The I-S deferment on the other hand is a "one-shot" proposition designed only to allow those students who do not have eligibility for consideration for II-S deferments, and who have never before received a student deferment or postponement to complete their current academic year.

A student who receives a I-S deferment until the end of his current academic year may in some instances receive a II-S deferment for the next year, General Hershey revealed. If during the academic year his work was such that he is in the prescribed upper portion of his class, or if he takes the Selective Service College Qualification Test and makes a score of 70 or better, the local board can consider him for a II-S deferment for the following academic year.

Local boards generally determine during the summer months to whom II-S deferments shall be granted for the next academic year. In making their determination, they consider the student's class standing for the previous academic year as furnished by the school on Selective Service Form 109. For example, a freshman student with a I-S deferment may, General Hershey pointed out, keep his class work to a point where he is in the prescribed upper portion of his class at the end of that academic year or during the year take the College Qualification Test so that he thereby becomes eligible for consideration for a II-S deferment for the next year.

Whether a man is classified I-S or II-S; it is a deferred classification, and not a postponement of induction, General Hershey pointed out. At the end of the academic year, the local board must reopen the classification to determine whether he qualifies for any classification other than I-A. Following the period the local board is reconsidering his case, a student has the right, if he is not deferred another year, to enlist in the service of his choice, and his right to enlist in the service of his choice, General Hershey revealed, continues until he is ordered to report for induction. The Selective Service law, however, prohibits a man from enlisting in the service of his choice once he has been ordered to report for induction.

Although the Selective Service law allows a man to enlist at any time until ordered to report for induction, General Hershey explained, the Army, Navy, and Air Force, in July, 1950, agreed not to accept any man for enlistment in any of the services after he has been notified to report for his Selective Service pre-induction physical examination. In June, 1951, the Department of Defense rescinded the interservice agreement and have periodically extended the period until March 31, 1952. Therefore, any student desiring, in January, to enlist in the service of his choice will have the opportunity, General Hershey observed, and it appears probable that those students completing their academic year in June 1952 will also have ample opportunity to enlist in the service of their choice.

Elementary Campus School News

During the week of December 10th to 14th, Miss Dorothy Hutchinson's Fourth Grade Group held "Open House" for their parents and friends. A gratifying number of parents availed themselves of the opportunity to see their children at work.

On Friday, November 30th, Miss Hutchinson's group presented a work program which ended a unit of study on the history of Tioga County. Featured on the program was a work map showing Tioga County in three phases—Indian, Pioneer and Modern.

Groups at the program included thirty-one parents, Mr. Downs and his Fourth Grade group, and Mr. Hunsicker and his College Social studies class.

Green Room Jottings

"The Taming of the Shrew" is the third elaborate production, to be presented by the College Players in the past six years, the other two being "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and "If I Were King." In the February play, Shakespeare has followed a favorite device of his: presenting a play within a play. In the Prologue, Sly, a drunken tinker, is discovered by a lord, and, for the lord's amusement, when the tinker regains consciousness, he is treated as a nobleman cured of madness. "The Taming of the Shrew" is played for his entertainment to prevent his lapsing again into lunacy.

Scholars have often wondered why the playwright, after so carefully contriving the situation in the Prologue, never provided for the tinker's return to his normal position at the close of the play, for he is left, still treated as a nobleman.

Because of the inequality of the scenes, scholars agree that the work is not Shakespeare's alone, but that either another dramatist collaborated with him or added his scenes later. Those portions attributed to Shakespeare are the Introduction and the scenes in which Petruchio and Katharina appear. The scenes involving Bianca and her suitors are held to be by another.

University of Oslo Announces Scholarships

Announcement has been made that the University of Oslo will hold its sixth Summer School from June 21 to August 2, 1952, for American and Canadian students who have completed at least their freshman year in any accredited college or university. A special feature of the 1952 session will be an Institute for English-Speaking Teachers.

The Oslo committee announces open competition for a limited number of standard scholarships in the Summer School and Institute, as follows:

(1) Scholarships covering tuition, board and room, student and excursion fees, worth $225.

(2) Scholarships covering tuition, student and excursion fee, worth $115.

Paging Personalities

Here ye, hear ye—to whom it may concern. The recent "ringers" on campus are Bev Chaffee, Blanche Crowder, Ellen Graf, and Lillian Curtis, who have found a way to keep the fourth finger on their left hand warm. Best wishes, kids!

Good luck on the teaching jobs, Joe Matinas and Joan Worthington.

Hey, you recent graduates! Don't forget to come back and see us soon. We'll be looking forward to hearing about the better mousetraps you have built.

Special Sale: Deflating machine for the chests of the recent fathers on campus. You certainly kept the stork busy over Christmas vacation! Here come our congratulations on a silver platter to Dean and Mrs. Long, Dr. and Mrs. Schapelle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sherman and Bill Myers and his wife.

Registration Data

Pre-registration, held January tenth, revealed the following enrollment data: Freshmen, 104; Sophomores, 135; Juniors, 128; and Seniors, 134. This gives a total enrollment of 501. Total enrollment for last semester was 552.

The final registration on January 21 and 22 gave an increase of 12 to that of pre-registration figures. This increase was due to the incoming students. This raises the approximate total enrollment to 513.

College Players To Present Shakespearean Play Tonight

Tonight at 8—"The Taming of the Shrew," a farce by William Shakespeare! The College Players, after seven weeks of rehearsing, painting, building, sewing, and ordering, is at last ready to unveil the results of their efforts. Under the expert direction of Miss Allen and Miss Drum each committee member and each cast member has done the finest work in carrying out his part of the production.

Olive Knierim and her committee have designed excellent settings for this 16th century comedy. The many colorful costumes were selected or made by Alma Reaver, Arlene Shaeffer and their committee. Harry Mancina and Ray Kepner have arranged the authentic chamber music called for by the script and have selected for entracte music tunes from the Broadway stage success "Kiss Me Kate" (the musical adaptation of the play).

As for the play itself, little need be said, for the mere mention of Shakespeare connotes greatness: true drama in his tragedies and hilarity in his comedies. Long termed his only farce, "The Taming of the Shrew" contains some of Shakespeare's most delightful and amusing characters. Across the boards of Straughn Auditorium's stage will tread the drunken tinker, the haughty lord, the brash and dashing Petruchio; the charming and suave Lucentio, the shrewish, acid Katherina, and the gentle, demure but flirtatious Bianca, the crafty but often bewildered Baptista, and the pun-lucky-in-love Hortensio. Everyone who attends can be assured of a vastly entertaining evening.

The try-out presentation on Wednesday evening, Feb. 27, was very warmly received by many high school students. The Players feel that the College students will applaud tonight's performance as warmly as the previous audience did. College students will be admitted at the reduced rate of fifty cents by showing their enrollment cards. Adult admission will be seventy-five cents.

Mansfield students taking part in tonight's performance are Pat Gallagher as Sly; Helen Seeley as the Hostess and the Widow; Lew Turnbull as the Hunter; Bob Share as the Lord; Harry Mancina as a Servant; Ray Kepner as Bartholomew; Thomas Santiso as Lucentio; Bob Long as Tranio; Eric Hughes as Baptista; Charles Dempsey as Hortensio; John Thomas as Gremio; Donna Poster as Katherina; Bernadine Troisi as Bianca; "Buzz" MacLean as Biondello; Bill McNett as Petruchio; Ed Brainard as Grumio; Ray Bolyneaux as Curtis; Bob Williams as Nathaniel; Richard Stone as the Haberdasher; and Al Zastavny as the Tailor.

Because most students' acquaintance with Shakespeare is through the written page (who has not had to read "Macbeth", "Hamlet", or "A Midsummer Night's Dream"?), the performance is a rare treat, not only for its entertainment value, but also because many students will go forth to teach in small towns or rural areas where Shakespearean productions are literally unknown. The value to the English teacher of having witnessed Shakespeare on the stage is inestimable. This is the second time in six years that a Shakespearean play has been produced in Mansfield. Moreover, because Shakespeare is considered the "greatest of the great" in drama, everyone can be certain that the play is quite worthwhile. As for a good production, College Players' past record speaks for itself. The Players always do justice to a play.

Everyone is urged to attend. It will be an evening well-spent, and at a reduced admission, it is especially well-spent.

Freshmen Follies

Joe Salatino and Eleanor Miller were co-chairmen for the successful "Freshmen Follies" presented in Straughn Hall on February 8, 1952. The committees were: publicity, Charles Igo, Vince Stepulis, Ted Jones and Irene Prokopowicz; make-up, Beverly Noll, Ethel Brown, Eleanor Evans, Diane Sheard, and Marion Wetmore; call girls, Wanda Smith and Arletta Tobey; ushers, Barbara Hicks, and Barbara Gunther; properties and scenery, Bruce Doud, Eddie Merritt, Dick McInroy; lights and stage, George Terry and Fred Davis; and programs, Thelma DeVoe.

The program was opened by the agent, Jack Shaw, and moved at a rapid pace throughout the rest of the evening. The Merry Men, consisting of Al Orzechowski, Herb Miles, Erma Dunbar, Don Smith, Ray Maginsky, Bruce Doud, Vince Stepulis, and Dick Harpster, did a commendable job on "Sunny Side of the Street" and "You Go to My Head" followed by the beautiful "Ah fors' e' lui" from "La Traviata", sung by Zora Earley, who was accompanied by Beverly Rice. Many laughs were provoked at the comedy routine by Donna Congdon and Thelma DeVoe, who were accompanied by Don Smith. Vince Stepulis accompanied by Sally Gibbon, played a tuba solo, "When Yuba Plays the Rumba on the Tuba" which was enjoyed by the crowd. The dreamy mood was set by "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and "Stormy Weather" done as a piano duet by Don Smith and Beverly Rice. This mood was furthered by the rendition of "Blue Moon" by the Chansonettes, consisting of Nancy Van Dyke, Jan Anderson, Barbara Scott, Allyne Yoggi, Jean Sterling, Barbara Reese, Margaret Schrader, Sally Gibbon, Elaine Heffner, Beverly Rice, and Josie Ascenzi. They were accompanied by Ruth Morgan. Next came the scintillating comedy scene of Jane Anderson, Ray Maginsky and Ted Jones. The ever-popular Chopin waltzes were played in Don Smith's own inimitable style, after which Al Orzechowski entertained the crowd with a clarinet solo, "Dizzy Fingers," accompanied by Ruth Morgan. A laugh-provoking monologue, "Curb-ing Delinquency," was presented by Elaine Heffner. The program concluded with the grand finale by Joe Salatino and the entire cast.

Many favorable comments were heard as to the cleverness of the stage settings, being in the form of an agent's office, where each group auditioned for Agent Jack.

Vogue's Prix de Paris

Plans for the Prix de Paris, Vogue's annual career contest, are now under way. All women students who will be seniors next year are eligible to compete for junior editorial positions, which may lead to a permanent position on the "Vogue" staff after graduation. Any women students interested may leave their names at the Dean of Women's office to be notified about further details of this contest.

Library News

Beginning Feb. 29 there will be a change in the fee charged for Rental Books.

As has everything else, the cost of books has risen so that five cents a week does not produce enough money to add many new books to the collection. Consequently, it has been decided to make the fee a straight two cents a day to be paid when you return the book.

The faculty has been solicited to give the Library any new books they feel they can spare, so as to build up the collection faster. Any student having a best-seller book and wishing to donate it to the Library, can do so by contacting Miss Steele. Remember, this is your library. The more books received for the Rental Collection, the wider will be the circulation. Don't discard your books. There are others who might like to read them, too.

It is hoped that these two changes will help the Library maintain a larger collection of new books for your recreational reading.

The following two new books in our Rental Collection have been at the top of the "best seller" list since last October.

THE CAINE MUTINY—by Wouk

A very exciting story of modern sea adventure. It is a story of Willie Keith, a Princeton graduate who becomes one of the "ninety-day-wonder" reserve officers. His career from mid-shipman to captain of an ancient minesweeper is traced as well as his love affair with a pretty nightclub singer. Highly recommended.

THE CRUEL SEA—by Monsarrat

The story of two British ships and their crews in World War II. It is a true story of the ferocity of the North Atlantic storms, "the menace of a calm and beautiful night with a U-boat wolf pack on the flank, killing two or three great ships between each sunset and dawn."

Some students have suggested that the Library keep an opinion sheet so that as a student reads a book from the Rental Collection, he may add a comment as to what his opinion is about the book. Perhaps that will let others know about certain books, and which books are worth reading.

SPEECH RECORDS

The Kappa Delta Pi is starting a collection of speech records for the Library.

The first three records of this collection are Beowulf, Chaucer (2) and Macbeth.

The Beowulf, Chaucer, records are put out by the National Council of Teachers of English, and are read by Dr. Harry Ayres, a professor of English at Columbia University.

The Macbeth record is one of the Harvard Records, recorded for the theatre collection of the Harvard College Library.

Students will be permitted to check out these records if they have a written permit from any English teacher on our campus.

Plans Announced for Art Exhibition

Mr. Stephen T. Bencetic, art supervisor in the campus schools, has announced the completion of plans for an art exhibition. On March 7 and 8 the gymnasium of the Elementary School will be transformed to resemble a gallery for the exhibition of art work of pupils from kindergarten to ninth grade. The display will be representative of work in all types of media that have been completed during the current school year. Also on display will be art work by college students who have taken Art I under the direction of Miss Kathryn Royer. In all the exhibition will include over 500 pieces of work.

Friday, March 7, from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m. open house will be held for the faculty, students, and residents of Mansfield and surrounding area. A main feature at this time will be a demonstration in the use of the different media by college and junior high school students. The demonstration is scheduled from 7:30 to 8:00.

At 8:00 of the same evening Mr. Bencetic will be guest speaker at the PTA meeting to be held in the music room of the elementary building. Mr. Bencetic's topic will be "Developing Healthy Personalities Through Art."

The exhibition will also be open to teachers attending the annual Tioga County PSEA Conference on Saturday, March 8. Everyone is cordially invited to see the exhibition.

New Cafeteria

The new cafeteria was opened at the beginning of the second semester. It took approximately one year to build this new kitchen, which is furnished with stainless steel electric equipment. At the present time the kitchen is complete with the exception of a dishwasher, which will be installed this Spring.

Refrigerators, salad rooms, a deep freeze, and a meat cutting room are now under construction. Plans have also been made for a new bake shop.

The new cafeteria not only makes the preparing and serving of food easier for those who work in the kitchen, but also greatly improves the appearance of the school as a whole.

Dairy Day

The Tioga County Artificial Breeders Co-operative held their annual meeting on the College Campus, February 20, in connection with Dairy Day. The meeting, which began at 10 a. m., was held in Straughn Hall. Dinner was served in the Dining Room.

The group consisted of dairymen of Tioga County, who are members of the Holstein-Friesian Breeds and Guernsey, Jersey, Ayrshire, and Beef Breeds Associations. This year's attendance, about 1,000 persons, was the largest gathering in the history of the organization.

The Wellsboro Men's Chorus entertained at the afternoon session.

Religion-in-Life Week To Be Observed at M. S. T. C.

Religion-in-Life Week will be observed at the Mansfield State Teachers College the week of March 23-28. James L. Stoner, director of the University Christian Mission, will be the speaker in college assembly Thursday, March 27, at 1:45 p. m.

The University Christian Mission is a national committee interested in helping colleges and universities conduct significant Religion-in-Life Weeks. Each year this committee selects about twenty campuses, on the basis of their applications for Missions. When such a Mission is sponsored a team of outstanding speakers of various vocations is sent to the college for a week. Mansfield State Teachers College has been honored to be selected for such a Mission, November 2-6, 1952.

The complete program for Religion-in-Life Week in March will soon be distributed to each student and member of the faculty.

Student Council Election

Beginning the campus elections which will fill the campus offices for the 1952-53 college year, the Student Council held their elections on the 6th and 8th of February. The contest was bitterly fought for the presidency and vice-presidency. "John Buzz" MacLean was elected President by a very narrow margin over Jim Marshall. Al Wagner became the successful candidate for Vice-President. Either choice would have been good. Secretary for the new council is Ray Maginsky and Janet Becker was the popular choice for Treasurer.

The Student Body has made itself known in its fine selection of representatives to its governing body. We believe that our new council will do much for the betterment of campus life with the aid of the students at large.

Women's Dormitory Council Election

Mary Dewey, a junior music student, will be the Women's Dormitory President for 1951-53. Miss Dewey was elected in the North Hall Dormitory Council election held the week of February 11.

Other girls elected to the council are:

Senior Members: Ada Mae Frailey, Marilyn Brush.

Junior Members: Louise Pier, Dorothy McCabe and Mary Ruth Squire.

Sophomore Members: Thelma DeVoe and Elaine Heffner.

Together with the cooperation of Miss Jackson and Miss Fosberry, these girls should have a very successful year.

Navy Representative To Visit Campus

Lieutenant Commander Spencer W. Ravel, U. S. Navy, representing the Office of Naval Officer Procurement in Philadelphia, will be on the Mansfield campus on March 3rd to discuss the Navy's Officer Candidate School with members of the graduating class.

The Navy has recently removed all specific course requirements for enrollment in its OCS. Any college graduate, or any senior whose graduation is less than four months away, may now apply for this program regardless of his college major. A previous requirement of some mathematics training has recently been eliminated.

Mr. Ravel, who is a graduate of Colgate University and Syracuse University, in civilian life is the Principal of Hamburg High School, Hamburg, N. Y. As a Naval Reservist he recently returned to duty with the Navy. During World War II he served many months as Commanding officer of the USS IST 522, an amphibious landing ship, as well as having seen duty with the Seabees.

Mr. Ravel will be in the Student Activities Room, North Hall, on Monday, March 3rd, from 10 to 12 a. m. and 1 to 4 p. m. He will have data sheets giving details of the Officer Candidate program and will interview and answer the questions of interested seniors.

The Navy's Officer Candidate School is located at Newport, R. I. Classes convene every two months, and the majority of each class remains for four months training for duty afloat. A portion of each class, however, is assigned to special fields and commissioned after two months. This group completes its training at various Navy centers for specialized duty. These specialist commissions require specialized educational backgrounds. Major college fields which may qualify candidates for specialists commissions are engineering, business administration, chemistry, physics and mathematics.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

Why do we sometimes mumble "Mansfield" when someone asks us the name of the college we are attending? Why do we often sit like dummies at a football or basketball game? Why are many of us not more interested in campus life and campus activities?

No, we don't come from Princeton, Cornell, or Harvard, but we do come from a college of which we can be proud. Money and a name do not make up pride. We have a fine campus and honorable tradition. We have, relatively speaking, what Notre Dame or Texas A and M has. We should, therefore, be able to say, "We have SCHOOL SPIRIT!"

The entire student body should back our teams, our social life, and our academic standards. We, the students, have a great deal in making or breaking our college. We set behavior standards; we plan the social calendar; we should encourage and support our athletics. If we fall down on our part of the job, how can we expect others to fight for the betterment of our college?

SCHOOL SPIRIT is not defined in words but in actions. It can be demonstrated but not explained. It is that something which puts a lump in your throat or a tear in your eye and makes you yell as loudly as you can for your school. The presence of such spirit makes a dynamic institution; its absence, a static one. It is the attitude, the pride, which makes for the betterment of a group. In varying degrees it is found in all universities, colleges, or schools. We must take more interest in our elections; we must suggest various activities for the social calendar; we must uphold our student government; we must back our teams through victory or defeat. At Mansfield we must not permit our enthusiasm to grow cold.

—Alexander Wagner.

THE VALUE OF CRITICISM

Today in this country there are many voices lifted against various institutions, against the laxing of morals, especially in high places. There are "personality smears", defamation of character, and cries of "Communist," "immoral," etc. Perhaps many people feel that these criticisms have gone too far, particularly in certain places.

But they are not to be condemned!

It is because of such criticism (and not only constructive criticism) that a multitude of good things has come about. The betterment of the American schools is one obvious result of such criticism. The various scandals in the national government were exposed in an effort to rid public offices of corrupt men. The dope racket flourishing in the nation's cities has been revealed and efforts are being made to wipe it out. There are hundreds of examples similar to these; the list is endless.

However, there is just one thing that remains to be said: criticism alone is not enough, for words are empty and meaningless without actions. That is what the American people possess which accounts for their rapid progress: the words followed closely by the actions.

—Eric Hughes.

Faculty Column

Miss Brooks, head of the music department, will be in Athens on March 4th, 5th, and 6th as a member of an evaluating committee for the Athens High School.

Miss Kathryn Royer, art instructor, served on the panel of judges for the Central Pennsylvania Regional Scholastic Art Awards. The judging of 1200 pieces of art work was done on Saturday, February 9th in the Stearns Store in Williamsport. The winning piece and honorable mentions will be exhibited from February 19-March 1 on the third floor at Stearns.

The week of March 14-21 is "Career Day in Home Economics" at the Buhl Planetarium in Pittsburgh. All colleges with Home Economics courses are invited to send exhibits. Miss Bason will set up an exhibit of work done by the Child Development class in Mansfield. She will also spend one day discussing with students from the Tri-State area surrounding Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Morales and Mrs. Gailbraith will attend the North Atlantic Regional Conference in New York City for teacher trainers and directors of Home Economics.

Mrs. Place and Mr. Husted will act as judges for contests sponsored by the Forensic League in Clarion on March 28-29.

JUNIOR-SENIOR CLASS NEWS

Plans are being made by both classes for the Junior-Senior Dance which is to be held on April 19, 1952, in the college gymnasium. At a recent meeting of the combined classes a report was given by Harry Mancía, chairman of the orchestra committee. From the list of orchestras presented the students voted to have Lee Vincent's Orchestra contracted for the occasion. The committee will report on their findings at the next combined class meeting.

Senior student teachers in the Home Economics Department will leave for their training on March 3 to April 10. M. Bjork will go to Jersey Shore; D. Everett to Hedges; M. Fulmer, Canton; J. Harris, Blossburg; J. Merrill, Watsonville; D. Poster, Towanda; L. Snyder, South Williamsport; J. Stahler, Reinertown; and A. Whitney, Charleston.

SOPHOMORE CLASS NEWS

Preparations for the Sophomore Talent Show are well underway. Chairman Robert English and other members of the Talent Show Committee are busy trying to scout out talent and arrange the material for presentation. The class plans to put on a good production and would like to see a large turn-out from the student body, so be prepared for an evening of fine entertainment on March 21, 1952, in Strachan Auditorium.

W. A. A. NEWS

The W. A. A. basketball tournament is well under way with teams fighting for top places in their respective leagues and a chance to enter the basketball play-offs. Now it is a question of the survival of the fittest.

The table tennis tournament and the bowling leagues are also in progress. It seems W.A.A. has all the girls busily engaged in one tournament or another.

PHI SIGMA PI NEWS

The annual Sodbuster's Ball was held in the Student Center under an authentic setting of hillbilly mountain decorations. Fun was one thing that everyone had and as we all know this is nothing unusual for the traditional square dance. Faculty members as well as students enjoyed the modern, square and polka music played by Paul Rassmann and his combo.

Prizes were awarded for the best costumes and the results were as follows: Al Zastavny and Joanne Johnson were chosen by the faculty judges as the best dressed couple. Dick Stone walked away with the prize for the most original costume in the male category. Elaine Gee stepped up for the prize awarded to the distinctive female in the group, and Miss Fossberry and Mrs. Samuel Long were the lucky winners of the Cake-Walk.

The fraternity is presently occupied with the election of officers and the picking of pledges for its forthcoming initiation. The initiation committee is composed of Stanley Reykovitz, Chet Swimely, and Al Wagner. You will soon see the familiar signs and paddles with a few innovations thrown in by the committee. We are continuing the policy formulated by the October Initiation Committee of doing constructive work during "Hell-Week."

KAPPA DELTA PI

At the last meeting of Kappa Delta Pi the members listened to the new records that the organization purchased to start a record library collection. These records are valuable as teaching aids. Three great stages of literature are depicted by the reading of Beowulf in old English; a translation of the Prologue and Nun's Priest Tale by Chaucer, read in Middle English; and the reading of various speeches of Lady Macbeth—the letter reading, the murder speech and the sleepwalking scene—excellently done by Flora Robeson.

The program consisted of an excellent talk and display on Steuben Glass by Peter Giorgi, a member of Kappa Delta Pi, whose knowledge and experiences in the manufacturing of this glass were related in a very interesting manner.

The gift certificate that was pledged a few weeks ago to be used for Korea for any purpose that UNESCO thought was necessary could not be used for Korea because of certain regulations. A vote was taken for a new objective for the gift coupon and it was agreed that the money should be sent to Burma and used in the education of handicapped children.

CAMPUS Y

The campus Y theme for this month centered around current events and stressed world relatedness. To open the month's program a movie entitled "Kani Comes Home" was shown. It told the story of a Japanese soldier who was adjusting to civilian life after the war. It brought out very effectively how Communism can grow under proper conditions.

Student world day of Prayer was observed February 14 under the direction of Samuel Woodard. The meeting was held in the reception room with an impressive program well suited for the occasion.

The third meeting of the month was under the direction of Edith Nelson who led a panel discussion on "Christian Youth in World Affairs."

On Thursday, February 28, the Campus Y had a Jewish rabbi as guest speaker, whose topic was "A Bird's-eye View of Judaism." This was a particularly interesting program.

The annual Heart Sisters program of the YWCA was held during the past month, and was very enjoyable for all who participated.

COLLEGE PLAYERS NEWS

On Feb. 19 College Players held their sixth monthly meeting. Nominations were made for next year's officers and the election date was set. The rest of the program was devoted to a rehearsal of the Spring play, "The Taming of the Shrew."

In February also, several of the women members of College Players presented a one-act play at a local Mother and Daughter Banquet. Laura Marvin directed the piece, "If Women Worked As Men", and those who took part were Pat Myers, Dorothy Miller and Becky Casey. The presentation was very well received. The girls are to be congratulated for their fine work, for it was produced on their own with only slight supervision by Miss Allen.

OMICRON GAMMA PI

At the meeting February 13, 1952, Omicron Gamma Pi presented a fashion show. Miss Catherine Williams, commentator, gave a brief description and use of each garment displayed. All the garments were sent to the organization by the National Cotton Council. The organization had as their guests the Lambda Mu girls and the Women Day Students.

The date for the Special Event has been set for May 16, 1952. The guests will be the girls of the senior class of the six county area high schools. Miss Charlotte Peeke has been appointed general chairman. Serving with Miss Peeke are Elaine Heffner Patsy Shimer, Barbara Bottenhorn, Mabel Fullmer and Nadine Davidheiser, as executive committee; Bernadine Troisi, treasurer, and the following people as chairmen of the various committees: Jane Anderson, publicity; Marjorie DeWitt, invitations; Nancy Eno, posters; and Nancy Cawley, name tags. Miss Melinda Fiat is sponsor of the event.

DAY STUDENT NEWS

The election of the day student officers for the coming academic year was held Tuesday, February 12, 1952. They are: President of the Women's Day Students, Esther Purvis; vice-president, Patricia Brennan; president of Men's Day Students, Preston Erway; vice-president, Bob Day; secretary-treasurer, Christine Jaquish. We wish to extend our congratulations and wishes for a successful year to each.

The banquet that was being planned for March has been called off due to the expense involved.

The social calendar for the coming year was discussed. It was decided that it to include a dance in the Fall, picnics, Christmas dinner with the dormitory students, parties of various nature and a banquet.

Please keep in mind the spring picnic of the Day Students. In previous years this event has been one of our largest. This year we are surviving to make it the largest. Don't forget it!

ART CLUB NEWS

The last meeting of the Art Club was held in the Reception Room, January 31. The primary purpose of this meeting was for the induction of new members. This was executed under the leadership of Peggy Lindgren, each of the members had been asked previously to bring some tangible evidence of his or her ability. Murals, water colors, stencils, designs in copper foil, puppets, and short discussions of term papers were witnessed and enjoyed by all present.

The business of the evening consisted of discussing the plans of the Mardi Gras dance (Feb. 23), and selection of a nominating committee for next year's officers.

The club was then favored with a very interesting talk from Mr. Stephen Bencetic of the campus elementary school. He gave several amusing accounts of experiences he has had while in the teaching profession.

Following the meeting, everyone enjoyed strawberry sundaes and cookies.

The new members include: William Bailey, Dorothy Brittain, Alice Ferris, Margaret Fray, Jerry Foust, Mrs. Adeline Hess, Donna Jones, Virginia Kramer, Paul Larson, Audrey Miller, Patricia Schau, Shirley Schneider.

A. C. E. I.

At the last meeting of the A.C.E.I. the annual talent show was held in the music room of the Elementary Building. Each year members of the organization are called on to display any talent they might possess. The program this year had great variety and was enjoyed by all present. Don Schline was chairman.

The February meeting was held on the 27th and consisted of a panel discussion on "Public Relations". The main emphasis centered around the relationship between school, parents, and community. Helen Seeley was program chairman for the month.

KAPPA OMICRON PHI

Kappa Omicron Phi met February 27, at the home of Miss Melinda Fiat. The members took the national Kappa Omicron Phi test and the pledges took the pledge test. Officers for the year 1952-1953 were elected. At this meeting the group worked on songs to be compiled into a songbook for the national convocation next fall.

The regional meeting of Kappa Omicron Phi will be held March 15, at Seton Hill College, Greensburg, Pa. Gloria Benfer, Catherine Prouty, and Elizabeth Redcay will attend from Mansfield.

LOOKIT COACH, NO HANDS!!

Mountaineers Swamp Wilkes 76 to 46

The Mansfield "Mountaineers", taking up where they had left off in the Bloomsburg game, rolled over Wilkes 76 to 46. After the tip-off play which saw a basket being hung up by Hank Goodman, the "Mounts" were off and running. The first quarter saw the Mansfield "big guns" getting into action early.

"Hank" Goodman, Bob Maxson, and Jim Marshall paced the first quarter attack, aided by some nice floor work on the part of Bobby Lieb. The "Colonels" meanwhile were unable to get started and soon found themselves on the short end of 25 to 6 score at the quarter.

The "Mounts" nearly doubled their score in the second quarter; Maxson, Goodman, Marshall and Jurnack hit with clocklike work on their shots. Wilkes finally got working a little better and upped the score from 6 to 19 in the quarter. The score at half time stood in favor of the Mansfield team 44 to 19. The third quarter, in which Coach "Ted" Casey substituted freely, saw the "Mountaineers" cool off a bit.

This quarter saw "Chet" Swimely come into his own when he dropped in eight points. Also giving able assistance were Julie Gottlieb, Bob Maxson and "Hank" Goodman. The third quarter Mansfield was leading 60 to 30. In the last quarter Mansfield picked up steam again and zoomed into an overwhelming lead. The game ended with Mansfield on the long end of a 76 to 46 score.

High for Mansfield were Goodman with 20, Maxson with 16, and Chet Swimely with 11. High for Wilkes was Benson with 9.

Score by quarters:
Mansfield 25 16 16 19—76
Wilkes 6 13 11 15—46

Mansfield Downs Bloomsburg 48 to 44

In their second league tilt of the year the Mansfield "Mountaineers" downed the Bloom "Huskies" 48 to 44. Behind for the first three quarters, the "Mounts" came to life and racked up 16 points in the final quarter to come through with their first league victory.

The first quarter was featured by tight defensive play on the part of both teams. Goodman, Maxson and Jurnack figured greatly in the Mansfield scoring in this quarter. The second quarter saw Bloom opening up a bit as they forged into 33-24 lead at half time.

The third quarter found Mansfield cutting the lead of Bloomsburg. The score was still in favor of Bloom at the end of the quarter, to 39 to 37. In this quarter Bloom was held to 6 points while Mansfield dumped in 13 points.

The fourth quarter then brought on the Mansfield victory rally. Maxson and Goodman paced the team in their closing spurt. The lead changed hands a number of times in the last three minutes of the quarter. The final score was Mansfield 48, Bloomsburg 44.

High scorers for Mansfield were Goodman with 21, Maxson with 13, and Jurnack with 11. For Bloomsburg "Chuck" Daly had 13 and Linkcharst had 12.

Score by quarters:
Mansfield 15 9 13 11—48
Bloomsburg 19 14 6 5—44

Cortland Drops "Mounts" 72 to 51

Cortland State Teachers College of upper New York State showed us one of the finest teams to play at Mansfield this year. Having the height advantage to make a strong ball club and some beautiful set shots that enabled them to take a 72-51 victory over M.S.T.C.

The first quarter started out like a Mansfield victory. The "Mounts" paced by the big three, Maxson, Goodman and Jurnack, took a lead of 18-13 at the quarter.

This lead soon vanished, however, as Cortland poured in 17 points through the hoop in the second quarter, to take a slim lead of 30-29 at half-time.

The third quarter saw Cortland, led in the scoring by Becroft and Kimball, take a 48-38 lead at the end of the quarter. In the last quarter Cortland put the game on ice by scoring 24 points while holding Mansfield to 13. The final score was Cortland 72 Mansfield 51. Leading the scoring column for Cortland were Becroft with 19 and Kimball with 11. For Mansfield Bobby Maxson, who was high scorer for the night, with 23; "Hank" Goodman with 13 and Steve Jurnack with 8, paced Mansfield in the scoring column.

Score by quarters:
Mansfield 18 11 9 13—51
Cortland 13 17 18 24—72

Millersville Humbles "Mounts" 76-55

Millersville S. T. C., leader in the college conference, humbled the Mansfield "Mountaineers" on the latter's home court 76 to 55. This victory gave Millersville a 10 and 1 conference record. The lone loss came at the end to the hands of the Bloomsburg Huskies. Millersville's overall record is now 14 to 4.

The victors presented a tall squad and it was hard for the "Mounts" to get the rebounds.

The Millers took the lead late in the first period and never relinquished it after that.

Kline was high man for the victorious "Millers" with 20 points. He had 16 of these in the first half. Butch Jurnack, "Hank" Goodman and Bobby Maxson were top point getters for the "Mounts" with 14, 12 and 10 points respectively.

"Mounts" Lose to Lock Haven 74-40

In a game played at Lock Haven, our "Mounts" lost to a strong team, 74-40. The first quarter of the game gave the fans the impression that it was going to be a real thriller, with the fine shooting of Bobby Maxson, Steve Jurnack and "Hank" Goodman, keeping the game nip and tuck during the first quarter.

It was not until the second quarter that the "Bald Eagles" took the lead, never again to be threatened. The score at the half was 36-21.

At the beginning of the third quarter, Lock Haven shifted into high gear, where they were to remain for the rest of the game, despite the efforts of the "Mounts".

Nate George made his debut after being sidelined for several weeks by a foot injury. Nate played most of the last three periods, but even his ability as a play-maker was of no avail, due to the errorless ball-playing of the Lock Haven quintet.

High scorers for the "Mounts" were Bobby Maxson 13, Steve Jurnack 8, "Hank" Goodman 9. Mention should also be given to Nate George, Jim Marshall, and Bobby Lieb, for the fine floor game they played. High scorers for the victors were Murphy 19, and McDermott, 15.

"Mounts" Edge "Warriors" 59-52

M.S.T.C. continued their feud with Lycoming College of Williamsport by winning on the latter's home floor 59-52.

The "Mounts" did it the hard way when after three minutes of play they lost their ace guard, Nate George. Veterans Bobby Maxson and "Hank" Goodman took charge and led the attack the rest of the way.

The "Warrior's" ace scorer, Vince Leta did not break into the scoring column until the third quarter. By then Casey's charges upped a 27-24 halftime lead to 45-30.

The Lycos fought desperately to snatch victory from defeat as they closed a 47-32 gap at the end of three quarters to 51-47 with three minutes remaining, but the future teachers

SPORTS SPUTTERS

Hi there, sports fans.

We're just about at the end of another basketball season here at Mansfield. At this writing our "Mounts" had won one conference game and dropped four. The overall picture shows the "Mounts" with a 4 and 8 record.

Although Coaches Casey and Rushin didn't display a winning squad, they (the coaches) had had a bunch of boys that were in there fighting until the last second of each game. It was definite that our squad was much shorter than all the other squads that they met. This was a big factor as the team with heights usually controls the boards.

INJURIES

Co-captain "Scooter" George was sorely missed in six games. He aggravated an injury in his foot in the Lycoming game. Chet Swimely also saw limited action in three of the games due to a slight sprain sustained in an inter-squad scrimmage. Little Bobby Maxson could also be included on the sick list as he played the second Lock Haven and first Millersville games with a bad cold in his system.

NEW FACES

You may be wondering about the new faces on the squad. The big boy, Maxie Moore, who is six feet five inches, hails from Wellsboro. Maxie was just discharged from the Navy. Big boys like Maxie are certainly a welcome sight around here. Another new face is that of Earl Bliss, also from Wellsboro. Earl, like Maxie, was recently discharged from the Navy. Another newcomer is Eddie Merriitt, who hails from Troy. Eddie came to us from E. Stroudsburg. These three fellows are starring on the J.V. squad.

were still strong and won the game by seven points.

The great rivalry between these two schools really began last year when our "Mountaineers" drubbed the "Warriors" in football 40-0. The latter came back in basketball season to win by the big margin of 37 points, 102-65.

Wagner was high man for Lycoming with 15 points. Maxson with 20 points and Goodman with 12 were high for Mansfield.

Bloom Evens Season's Series, 72-57

The Bloomsburg Huskies continued their winning ways in the Centennial Gymnasium, downing our "Mountaineers" by the score of 72-57. The "Mounts" had bested the "Huskies" here the previous week in a thriller.

The victory at Bloomsburg was the sixth in a row for the "Huskies". They have yet to taste defeat at home. The first half was nip and tuck with Bloom leading.

The "Huskies" got off to a fast start in the third period and out-scored the "Mounts" by 6 and 7 points in the third and fourth quarters respectively. Daly, B.S.T.C. forward, had a hot night from the free throw line, sinking 11 out of 14 tries. He made 8 in the first quarter. Bloomsburg tried 34 foul shots and made 20 good. Mansfield made good 21 out of 30.

Big guns for M.S.T.C. were Maxson, Jurnack, Goodman and Gottlieb, with 14, 11, 10 and 9 points respectively.

Score by quarters:
Mansfield 13 13 11 20—57
Bloomsburg 13 14 17 27—72

ANGELO UP AND AROUND AGAIN

Yes, Angelo's up and around again. This writer had a chat with him while he was here a few weeks ago. He's in tip-top shape now and he has hopes of staying that way. Angelo, it seems, usually gives the boys in the S. C. a big lift everytime he visits them (and his boy, of course). In case you are wondering who Angelo is, he's Papa Rossi.

SLIP-UPS

Yours truly would like to apologize to Larry "Red" Callahan for not informing the general public about the arrival of his second baby. He has two girls. Sorry, Larry, I'll try not to slip up again.

Another item that should have been mentioned in the last issue was that of Tackle Joe Roma leaving the institution. Joe enlisted in the Army Air Force. Good luck, Joe. Since Joe's departure two other boys from the football squad have left. They are Donnie Reed and Ronnie Miller. Joe and Donnie were Sophomores, Ronnie Ronnie a freshman.

Footballers Frank Sudak, Ed Loos, Pat Fischetti, Frank Malinick and Herb Ruegg were seen in winter training recently. They were roller skating.

JULIAN ARMY BOUND

Julian Gottlieb, varsity basketball, recently received orders from his draft board to report to the army on the 28th of February. "Gotch" as he is sometimes called, was a first semester junior and playing his second year with the varsity basketball squad. He was noted for his one-handed push shot from the side of the court. This column would like to wish Julie all the luck and success in the world.

So long for now. See you the next month.

"Mounts" Drop Thriller to Harpur

Harpur College made their first appearance of the year in the Mansfield gym an impressive one by defeating our "Mounts" 70-68 in an action-packed game. The "Mounts", having previously beaten Harpur this year were expecting such a game regardless of their previous victory. The score of the game indicates clearly the thriller that it really was. The lead changed hands several times during the last quarter, leaving many of the fans hoarse and with a few more gray hairs before the game had ended.

High scorer of the game for the "Mounts" were Goodman and Maxson with 16 and Jurnack 12.

High scorers for Harpur were Kobylarz, 23 Ruebenzall 15, Halter 10.

Korean Kids Remain Undefeated

At the time of this writing the Korean Kids were still leading the rest of the pack in the intramural basketball league with seven wins and no losses.

It was decided at a recent meeting between the team captains that the winner of the league would be based on the total number of wins. At the end of the campaign, the four teams with the most wins would participate in a tournament.

The Phi Kappa Bu, defeated by the Kids only, had to forfeit all of their games due to an ineligible player. The Snappers, last year's runner-ups, dropped out of the league due to lack of players. The remaining players joined forces with the All Stars.

In the offensive department the Korean Kids and the All Stars have rolled up the biggest score in a game, 78 Points.

Standings:

	W.	L.
Korean Kids	7	0
Y's Guys	6	1
Jr. Birdmen	5	2
All Stars	4	3
Hot Shots	2	5
The Things	2	5
7 Wonders	2	5

Bowling Bits

In case you didn't know it, more people are taking interest in bowling every day. In a recent survey, it was estimated that more people participate in bowling than in any other sport.

Following are a few bits that may be helpful in case you have intentions of bowling some day.

First of all, there are three types of balls that can be thrown at the pins. A hook ball, once mastered, is very good for strikes and spares. The back-up ball (reverse) is used mostly by beginners and is accurate for picking up spares. The curve ball is the most effective for getting strikes, but at the same time is harder to control than the two previously mentioned.

The three-finger ball is most widely used. The middle and third fingers should slide halfway in the holes. Thumb and finger holes should be slightly larger than the thumb and fingers.

When beginning the approach, you should be erect and in a comfortable position. Ball held even with the waist. In taking four steps, the first one should be a natural, walking step beginning with the right foot. As you take this first step, push the ball outward, swing down and back with the second step. On the third step your ball should be at the top of the backswing. Bring the ball forward and release as you slide on left foot and fourth step.

When bowling always remember to take up as much of the alley as possible. Always stand on the opposite side of the pin or pins when shooting for a spare. Always take it easy and be accurate.

Green Room Jottings Musical Merry-Go Round

The College Players this year hope to produce two one-act plays instead of the usual one one-acter. These short plays are produced entirely under student direction and give opportunity to more members of the organization to participate in dramatic productions. It is hoped that the two plays can be performed together on a Friday evening instead of in an assembly. Two of the plays under consideration are Barrie's "The Twelve-Pound Look," a very amusing piece centering around a typewriter, and the hilarious comedy "If Men Played Cards as Women." As yet, however, nothing has been decided upon.

The reason for giving the one-act plays in addition to the two annual full-lengthers is to give more opportunity to Players' members to gain a more thorough knowledge of the production of a play, which will be valuable to them in the production of school plays. The details involved in the presentation of a drama are almost innumerable, and as student teaching gives practice in classroom procedure, so these performances give excellent, practical experience in theatrical work. Also, because there is such a large number of College Players, the one-acters give stage experience to newer members before they attempt a full-length piece. Thus, College Players is a practical organization with definite aims as well as an organization for the furtherance of the theatre among students.

Ninth Grade Trip

Ninth grade students from the Campus Junior High School, after a week of research on glass and glass making, spent the day Friday, February 1, 1952, at the Corning Glass Center in search of further information. Faculty members accompanying the group of 45 pupils were Dr. Clarence Mutchler, supervisor of science; Mr. Richard Wilson, supervisor of social studies; and Mr. John Sandel, supervisor of mathematics and social studies. Student teachers who participated were Stanley J. Bujno, Donald J. Chubbuck, Natal P. George, Robert Hogenmiller, Frank Michanowicz, and Paul J. Piatkowski. The group left Mansfield at nine o'clock on a school bus driven by K. E. Cady and returned at three o'clock.

On their arrival at the Glass Center, the group assembled in front of the first casting of the 200-inch mirror for the telescope on Mt. Palomar, where they were greeted by Mr. James M. Brown, III, director of the Corning Glass Center.

Mr. Brown explained the importance of the Glass Center as a center of learning, a research center for the world of glass, and as a cultural center for the community. It houses a complete exposition of a progressive American industry, covering history, science, design and manufacture.

Students enjoyed particularly the exhibits showing the electric insulating and acid-resisting qualities of glass.

A large portion of the time at the Glass Center was spent in the Steuben factory, watching highly skilled craftsmen fashion the famed Steuben glassware and in admiring the display of Steuben in the salesroom.

"When you see something like that, it's better than reading about it," one ninth grader remarked. "You remember it all your life."

Other pupils commented on the fact that people are able to see at the Center articles which are not now in general use, but which will be available in the future. Another was impressed by the recreational facilities that are provided by the Corning Glass Center.

Concert Planned for College Band

The College Symphonic Band, under the leadership of Mr. B. Francis, is scheduled to give a concert in the new Roosevelt Junior High School in Williamsport, Penna. The date for this concert has been set as the evening of March 11, 1952.

The soloists for the evening will be the trumpet trio, playing "The Three Trumpeters" by Agostini. Members of the trio are Eugene Welliver, Charles Neiman, and Robert English.

It is through the efforts of Mr. Kenneth Masterson, instructor of music at the Roosevelt Junior High, and graduate of Mansfield, that this trip for the band was made possible.

American Music To Be Featured in Assembly

Phi Mu Alpha, the Music Fraternity on campus, is in the midst of the planning for an assembly program to be held in April.

Music will be selected from the compositions of American composers. Compositions for small groups will be performed by a brass quartet, a woodwind trio, and the bulk of the program will be choral numbers sung by the Phi Mu Alpha Chorus.

Personnel Selected for Intercollegiate Band Festival

Mr. Francis has announced that eight students from Mansfield have been chosen to attend the annual Intercollegiate Band Festival which will be held at Penn State on the 17th, 18th, 19th of April. Mr. James Dunlop, music director of Penn State, and a graduate of Mansfield State Teachers College in Music Education, will act as the host to the Festival.

The following Mansfield students have been selected to attend the festival:

Onolee Swan, 1st flute
Al Orzechowski, 1st clarinet
Blaine Ballard, 3rd clarinet
Jack Pearson, 1st saxophone
Luther Hoffman, 4th French horn
Kenneth McDonald, baritone
Vincent Stepulis, bass
Robert Chamberlain, bass
The guest conductor of this Band Festival will be Dr. William H. Revelli, director of the University of Michigan Bands.

The Music Educators' Club and the Elementary Club are sponsoring a workshop in Music Education. To direct the work, the two organizations have engaged Mrs. Beatrice Krone of the University of Southern California.

Twenty-six students have been selected to represent Mansfield at the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Choral Festival at Indiana State Teachers College the 15th, 16th and 17th of March. The director of the Bethlehem Bach Festival, Dr. Ifor Jones, will conduct the three-day session.

The Music Educators' National Conference will be held in Philadelphia March 21-24. Approximately 12 students and some faculty members will make the trip.

A benefit concert is to be presented by the band on March 29 for the purpose of raising funds in order that the band may accompany the football team on trips.

Excerpts from Brahms' "Requiem" will be presented by the 30-voice chorus directed by Mrs. Place at the Vesper Service March 30.

Questions Aired

What is your opinion of the new cafeteria?

Nate George, Secondary Senior

"I think the new cafeteria is a great improvement over the old cafeteria. It has better lighting, is more sanitary, provides better service, and is far more convenient. I think it will create a good impression upon visitors to campus."

Cy Clancy, Secondary Sophomore

"I think that the new cafeteria was well worth waiting for, but I think that the efficiency is greatly impaired during the noon hour. There are a lot of students who have eleven o'clock classes. The line moves too slowly to permit pupils to eat their lunches, check their mail, etc., before returning to classes. The modern set-up in the kitchen makes it easier for the waiters serving the evening meal. Service at this time had been much more efficient than it has been previously."

Joe Salatino, Music Freshman

Well, I definitely think that is step toward a much better school system. For convenience and cleanliness, it surely is an improvement."

Julian Gotlieb, Secondary Sophomore

"I think that the new cafeteria is very nice, but there are two faults which I feel should be taken care of. One is that the dish-washing machine should be concealed from people eating in the cafeteria. Secondly, the cafeteria should have doors that push in and out without much effort on the part of the waiters so that they can serve faster and easier. The cafeteria is a big improvement in appearance and in meals."

Marilyn Brush, Elementary Junior

"The new cafeteria is something we all have looked forward to for years. It certainly adds to the 'looks' of the school as a whole; and, I believe it leaves a good impression on visitors. The cafeteria has many inconveniences for those working there, but I won't enumerate them. Many times the one line process is quite slow, but since that is the way the kitchen was planned, we have to put up with it."

Shirley Timmons, Home Ec. Sophomore

"I think it is great! It improves the whole system of serving meals at M. S. T. C.—breakfast in particular. A general all-around improvement."

Barbara Burleigh, Elementary Senior

"I like it very much. It certainly looks much better and the food is much more appetizing. It is cleaner and more convenient. A great improvement over what we had."

Donna Congdon, Elementary Freshman

"I think that the new cafeteria is more appealing than the old. The food is much warmer and more appetizing. However, the placement of the silver is unhandy. Also, if the doors leading from the cafeteria into the dining room were swinging doors, some of the banging noise would be eliminated and the meal would be more enjoyable for people eating at that end of the dining room."

The Laubins

One of the highlights of the year was the February 12th Assembly program at which the college had the pleasure of viewing a performance by Reginald and Gladys Laubin, America's foremost interpreters of Indian dances. The Laubins lived at one time with the Hunkpapa Sioux and are members of the tribe by adoption. Chief One Bull, nephew of the famous Sitting Bull, adopted Mr. Laubin as his son and bestowed the highest possible additional honor upon him by giving him the name Tatanwa Wanhila (One Bull), the chief's own name. Mrs. Laubin received the name Wajaka Wastewin (Good Feather), the name of One Bull's mother, Sitting Bull's sister.

After leaving the Sioux Territory in North and South Dakota, the Laubins made their home with the Montana Crow Indians. These wanderings and visitations have made them well known among the Indians of many tribes.

Ancient ceremonies of the Warriors and hunting tribes of the Great Plains are the source of inspiration for their dances. They show little of present-day dances, for the prairie people themselves do few dances today as they did in their "Golden Age."

"Most of the old warriors who remembered the glories of the past have now gone over the Spirit Trail," say the Laubins. "To the few who remain, we have gone for contact with the real, living spiritual forms which are so important in any art."

The Laubins have performed all over the country, including the American Museum of Natural History in New York City, and have been acclaimed by leading critics from coast to coast.

Among the dances performed in the Assembly were the Sacred Buffalo Dance, the Social Dance performed by both men and women, the intricate and fascinating Hoop Dance, and the Brave Heart Dance which is performed at important feasts for the benefit of visitors. In this dance, the drummer sings a song about one of the tribe's bravest men; the warrior thus praised had to respond with a dance which is really the story of his feats of heroism and in addition is expected to give the visitor a generous gift.

Especially notable was the Old Chief's Dance. It is the authentic dance of Chief One Bull, nephew of Sitting Bull and leader of the Hunkpapa Sioux tribe. A chief's dance is really autobiography—recounting of outstanding deeds of valor that have marked the dancer's life. It was not regarded as boasting for an Indian thus to tell of his triumphs. Rather, it was his duty as well as his privilege, since it preserved unwritten history and set a pattern of courage and achievement for the younger men to follow. In his dance One Bull tells the story of his part in the famed Battle of the Little Big Horn, where the Sioux destroyed General George Custer's command. One Bull is one of the last survivors of this historic battle.

Mr. Laubin studied One Bull's dance for many years before he himself attempted it. The costume he wears in this dance, the shield and club are those used by One Bull the night he took the Laubins into his tribe and family. The club is the one the old chief actually carried in the Custer battle, and was presented to Laubin by him following the adoption ceremonies.

"The Old Chief Dance" composes the first of a series of six 16-mm. color films which the Laubins are doing for the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Laubin is also writing a series of articles for magazine publication which will appear in the near future.

Mardi Gras Dance

The Mardi Gras dance, sponsored by the Art Club, was held on Feb. 23. A fortune teller and other amusements were enjoyed by all that attended. Prizes were given for the following: the funniest costume, the most unusual costume, and the costume that most represented a painting or a painter. These prizes were all useful and enjoyable for the person that received them.

The success of the dance was due to the co-operation and the splendid work of the following chairmen, their committees, and Miss Kathryn Royer; Mary Konsko, Peggy Lindgren, Mary R. Squires, Thomas Santiso, Dorothy Irwin, Ethel Berger, and Doris Weaver. Thanks for the attractive posters go to the Art II class.

Women's Lounge Meets With Great Success

The women's lounge on fourth floor of North Hall is now quite well equipped thanks to the cooperation of all the girls of the dormitory. Their many contributions of kitchen utensils and money have gone to make a pleasant and useful place of the apartment formerly held by Miss Cora Atwater.

At present there is a piggy bank on third floor for anyone who wishes to contribute money to be used for the room. One of the first things to be bought will be drapes for the living room.

If the girls continue to cooperate as they have been, the council is sure the lounge will be one of the nicest places in the girls' dormitory.

March Assemblies

On March 4, the Assembly will be a program presented by the Mansfield Senior High School Band and Chorus.

On March 11, we will hear a speech by Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, the former president of Cheyney College.

Thursday, March 20, the Mansfield Junior High School will have charge of the program, which will consist of a lecture with pictures.

On Thursday, March 27, the speaker will be Dr. Jason Stoner, director of the University Christian Mission.

1952 May Court

Traditional Festivities To Mark College May Day

QUEEN AND COURT TO BE HONORED

The May Day Court chosen this year by the student body on March 31 is comprised of Alice Baker, Gloria Benfer, Nancy Chamberlain, Phillis Courtney, Patsy Edgar, Fanny James, Margaret Lingren, Elizabeth Redcay, and Elen Spencer.

On May third at 2 o'clock the May Day festivities will open in Staughn Hall with the May Pole Dance and the play "Pinocchio." This is the well-known story of a puppet who wanted so much to be a boy and of all the difficulties he encounters. The cast promises a real treat with Betty Nelson as Geppetto, Dorothy Miller as Pinocchio, the donkey by Karol Keneske and Shirley Timmins, Amy Evelhair as the Blue Fairy, Thelma DeVoe as the Sandwich Man, Candlewick played by Carol Arnold, Harlequin by Joan Roberts, Ruth Haus as Columbine, and Jane Parisella as the Fire-Eater.

The committees for the play are: stage and sound effects, Barbara Burleigh, chairman; and Ruth Hunter; prompters, Dorothy McCabe and Eleanor Miller; scenery, Beverly Chaffee, chairman; Donna Condon, Peggy Fray and Wanda Smith; properties, Marilyn Brush, chairman; Alice Forsythe, Anne Johnson, and Diane Sheard; costumes, Jean Woodring and Ginger Krammer, co-chairmen; Donna Sulouff, Dorothy Irwin and Beverly Noll. The freshmen volunteers for ushering are: Elaine Heffner, chairman; Frances Carnwright, Florence Eckman, Alice Fitzpatrick, Marjorie DeWitt, Joan Henninger, Nancy Cawley, Ethelann Brown, Connie Diehl, Donna Condon, Zora Earley, and Joan Thomas.

At six o'clock the May Day dinner will be held in the dining room, with, for the second year in succession, each organization having their adviser as guest. The dance will be held in the gym at eight o'clock.

Miss Jackson is the general chairman of the festivities, with Miss Foster directing the play, Miss Diefenbach the May Pole Dance, and Miss Royer the decorations.

German Student Compares College Life of U. S. to German Education Program

Miss Burgette Frieckles, a German Exchange Student, who is studying at Elmira College, was the guest speaker at a recent Kappa Phi meeting.

Miss Frieckles is under the International Exchange Program which is sponsored by the government. The plan of the program is to promote better understanding between people. Sponsors of this program believe that one of the best ways to see the similarities among people and to thus be better able to understand them is through personal contact.

People from all walks of life, from all professions are eligible to participate in this exchange program. Miss Frieckles came into the program by chance. During high school she became acquainted with the program and proceeded to enter it. After completing many inclusive, technical, and personal forms and tests, she departed from her home in Frankfurt, Germany.

Miss Frieckles gave an interesting comparison between German education and American education. She stated that in Germany, during high school, there was no specialized education, but rather that it was very broad while in college it was very specialized. She stated that our colleges are similar to their high schools because of their broad outlook.

In German colleges and universities a professor lectures approximately forty-five minutes. There is no attendance check, no assignments, no tests except for the big test at the end of the course, and all studying is done on the student's own time. At the beginning of the courses, the professor lists his references and literature he will use during the course and the student is responsible for knowing the material and for covering it according to his own direction as there are no actual assignments.

Campus life is non-existent. Students rent a room in town or live with relatives. There are clubs and organizations such as dramatic clubs, debating teams, etc., but little emphasis is placed on them. The chief sport is soccer, while swimming, tennis, ping pong are also popular. Basketball is particularly unheard of as are baseball, and football.

During the war there was complete disruption of life in Germany, socially, religiously, and educationally. As a result, educational facilities are very poor and there is gross unemployment. Traveling conditions have been much improved since the war, however, they are still poor. Bicycles, buses and trolleys are the predominating means of transportation. Housing conditions are very bad and people are forced to live in crowded places with poor conditions. Burgette stated that the fashion varies slightly and that slacks, jeans and shorts are never seen. One of the outstanding differences in German and American life is the fact that in Europe the church has no role in everyday life, while in America it is very active. So much time is spent working that there is little left to devote to religion. There is a predominating feeling of suppression among the German people. They have so many problems of their own that they are not concerned with those of others. Many people do not have the money for the necessary food and clothing.

Miss Frieckles finds the American people friendly in comparison to the reservation characteristic of her own people. One source of continual amazement to her is the opportunity for privacy here in our country.

She finds that she has come to love America and that when the hour for departure arrives, she will leave with many happy memories, and with much encouragement and faith in the future friendship of American people and German people.

Junior-Seniors Merge To Present Annual Ball

The combined Junior and Senior classes presented their annual ball last Saturday evening, April 19. The dance was held in the gym from eight to twelve. Lee Vincent and his orchestra provided the music for the colorful event.

"China" was selected as the theme for the dance and many decorative touches provided the authentic Chinese atmosphere. A capacity crowd attended the dance.

Chairmen for the various committees were as follows: Decorations: Charles Dempsey and John MacLean; Programs: Thomas Santiso and Helen Russell; Refreshments: Catherine Williams and Fanny James; Invitations: Mildred Kneiss and Beverly Chaffee; and Publicity: James Brown and Joseph Dandois. The chairmen of the committees would like to thank the members of their committees for their co-operation.

Joint Recital Concludes Artist Series for Year

Sulima Stravinsky, pianist, and Roman Totenberg, violinist, presented a joint recital in Staughn Hall, April 18. This was the final concert in the '51-'52 Artist Series.

Soulima Stravinsky, son of the famous composer, Igor Stravinsky, is a well known pianist in Europe, where he has toured extensively, as well as in the United States. Aside from solo performances, Mr. Stravinsky has played many two-piano concerts with his father, Igor. But, he is not wholly a performer, for the past three years have been spent on the faculty of the Music College of the West in Santa Barbara.

Roman Totenberg occupies a place in the front ranks of a virtuoso violinist, and like Stravinsky is a well known artist in Europe as well as the United States. Aside from his artistic attainments, he is particularly notable for his introduction of the reconstructed Bach Bow. His demonstration of this bow was of particular interest to the music students in the audience.

TITLE TO BE RELEASED BEFORE SPRING VACATION

College Players, to avoid the fall rush, appointed a play-reading committee to choose a play for their fall production. After reading some twenty dramas (it was decided to produce a thriller), the choice has been narrowed down to:

"Kind Lady," which was produced in the movies starring Ethel Barrymore and Maurice Evans. It is the frightening story of an old lady held prisoner in her own house by a vicious thief.

"Laura," the brilliant and famous stage and screen mystery.

"Night Must Fall," an extremely tense murder drama by the distinguished actor-playwright Emyln Williams who is now appearing on Broadway as Charles Dickens. The story concerns a young psychopathic killer in the home of an elderly rich lady.

"Portrait in Black," an exciting murder-for-love mystery which had long runs in both New York and London.

"An Inspector Calls" by the famous playwright J. B. Priestley; this psychological thriller has an O. Henry twist and is powerfully dramatic.

As has been iterated so many times, the choice of a play for an amateur group such as College Players, many things must be considered. There must be one setting only; it cannot be an inherently unpleasant play or one that is emotionally too heavy for inexperienced actors; it cannot be technically too complex. All these things and many others were considered by the members of the committee. The title of the play chosen will be released before the end of the year.

Laurel Festival Scheduled for June 19-20

Plans for the 1952 Pennsylvania Laurel Festival to be held Thursday and Friday, June 19-20 are now being formulated for the time when Wellsboro will pay tribute to the State Flower, the Mountain Laurel, and officially open the laurel season in Pennsylvania's Grand Canyon country.

This year's event marks the 11th of these gala celebrations in Wellsboro and invitations have been sent out to high school principals in 150 Pennsylvania communities.

Included with the invitations are letters of endorsement from the Wellsboro School Board and letters of instruction to the principals for the selection of their representative, together with details and information on her participation in the Festival, as well as an acknowledgment card and a questionnaire to be filled out and returned by the young lady selected. The deadline for acceptance has been set for June 1.

Through the courtesy of Senator James Berger, a four year scholarship will be made available to the young lady who is selected as the 1952 Laurel Queen, which will be valid at one state university of her choice.

Flashlight Receives C.S.P.A. Rating

According to a recent statement received by the Adviser and Editor, The Flashlight has been awarded second place in the Eastern State Division of Teachers Colleges in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. A certificate of award will be exhibited on the bulletin board shortly. In last year's contest, The Flashlight placed third.

"WANTED—KNOWLEDGE WITH WISDOM"

March 24-30 was designated at Mansfield as Religious Emphasis Week, a time set apart for us to consider the problem of personal, social and educational values.

Many persons believe that the present obvious moral deficiencies of American society are in part traceable to the secularist, "neutral" outlook with which, during the interval between the great wars, education reflected society's uncritical worship of science and gadgets. A National Conference on Religion in State Teachers College, held at Yale University last December, brought into clear outline the trend toward a greater religious emphasis in the schools. The first evidences of this wholesome trend have been long preceptible on the college level, from which they will inevitable permeate the whole field.

The one social institution which influences the life of all impressionable American youth is the school. Many leaders in education acknowledge responsibility for encouraging moral as well as mental development, but it would seem there is a need for all of us to give the matter more serious thought and action. We need to discover what can be done now to assure a greater number of wholesome homes in the world of tomorrow. The question of inclusion of material with ethical and spiritual value in the curriculum should be restudied in the light of present need. And the responsibility of encouraging attitudes which will now make easier the individual work of home and church should be further explored.

Youth is being daily molded into some pattern; we must be sure that the hand of the potter is skillful and wise.

—Ross Whetstone.

Second Annual Religion-in-Life Week Held

The second annual Religion-in-Life Week under the sponsorship of the Student Christian Association was brought to a close on March 28. Each morning, as an important part of the week's program, a morning watch service was held with the co-operation of the local ministers; each minister was in charge of a morning's service. The student attendance at these services was very gratifying.

The first three evening programs consisted of a series of talks by campus instructors who related religion to their special fields. Mr. Leonard K. Beyer spoke on Monday evening with his topic "Science and Religion"; Tuesday, Miss Kathryn M. Royer discussed "Art and Religion"; Wednesday day night President James G. Morgan addressed the group on "Education and Religion".

As is customary for Religion-in-Life Week, the SCA had a special guest speaker come to Mansfield. This year the organization was pleased to have Mr. James L. Stoner, Director of the University Christian Mission. During his stay, Mr. Stoner gave three talks on the topics of "Faith for Living Today", "What Can an Intelligent Student Believe", and "This Thing Called Love". A well-received part of these talks was an informal discussion of the subjects with the Mansfield students. Mr. Stoner possessed a very marked ability to get his ideas across to the students and to have them participate in discussions with him.

The total program of the week was centered around the theme "Faith for Living Today". This theme was very timely in view of present day affairs and the need for people with faith to be the world's leaders.

In charge of this year's program were the following faculty and students: Dr. Clarence R. Mutchler, Dr. Mary E. Heltibridge, Miss Florence R. Borkey, Miss Margaret R. Fosberry, Carol J. McLaughlin, and Paul Rasmann.

Faculty to Hold Banquet May 12

The Faculty Association banquet will be held in the Wellsboro Hotel May 12. The faculty of the college and their husbands and wives will attend.

President James G. Morgan will speak to the group as also will Mr. Sigmund Michota, president of the association this year, and Miss Helen Dieffenbach, president for 1952-53.

Miss Eleanor Johnston, chairman of the social committee, is working hard to make this banquet a success. On her committee are: Miss Kathryn Royer, Miss Helen Dieffenbach, Miss Ruth Hughes, Mr. Jay Foreman, Mr. Manford Lloyd, Mr. Sigmund Michota, and Mr. John Little. Miss Royer is in charge of the table decorations.

Combined Councils to Hold Annual Banquet

The Student Council and the Men's and Women's Dormitory Councils will hold their formal banquet at the Mark Twain Hotel in Elmira, May 7. The present student council, the student council elect, the dormitory councils of this year and next year will be present. William McNett, present student council president, will act as toastmaster.

Guests will be: Mr. and Mrs. James G. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Manser, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Long, Miss Ella Mae Jackson and Miss Margaret Fosberry.

Publications Elect Editors for '52-'53

The Flashlight and Carontawan staffs have selected Donna Jones and Doris Weaver as Editors for their respective organizations for 1952-1953.

Miss Jones will succeed Martha Ashby as Editor of The Flashlight, while Miss Weaver will succeed Thomas Best as Editor of the Carontawan.

W. A. A.

March was a busy month for W. A. A. with tournaments and elections in full swing. The officers for next year are: President—Mary Kinsko; Vice President—Ann Johnson; Secretary—Betty Slocum; Treasurer—Betty Hadyn.

Members of the winning Basketball team were: Dawn VanDoren, Bonnie Steinmetz, Ann Johnson, Ruth Haas, Ethel Berger, Grace Holcomb, Doris Weaver, Donna Souloff, Ann Whitmover, Pat Newton, and Shirley Timmons. All girls who participated in the intermural sports did a good job and are to be praised, especially Rice's freshman team.

Everyone enjoyed the fun at the April meeting, when thirty girls were initiated for their keys. Plans were made for the annual picnic, which should be a gala affair.

The Badminton tournaments are nearly over and softball will soon begin—providing Mr. Weather permits.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi held its monthly meeting on March 6, 1952. Presiding in the absence of Thomas Santiso, president, was Carol Cummings, vice-president.

Members of Kappa Delta Pi and their guests, Dean's List students enjoyed an evening of delightful entertainment. Elvie Kohler and Aimie Katkus, two Estonian girls attending Montrose High School did three of their native dances. These three dances consisted of "Lovers Quarrel", "Running Polka", and "The Flat-Footed Waltz". All three dances were enthusiastically received by those attending the meeting. Miss Helen Ainey, also of Montrose, gave an interesting and amusing talk on her travels throughout the western part of the United States and through Central and South America. She vividly related her experiences as a traveler and greatly pleased the audience with her wit and humorous remarks. Many favorable comments were made by the group concerning the evening's entertainment.

Thomas Santiso and John MacLean were representatives for Beta Rho Chapter at the Biennial Convention of Kappa Delta Pi, held on March 6, 7, and 8 at the new, two million-dollar Kellogg Center for Continuing on the Campus of Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

As members of discussion groups, lectures and meetings, they participated in the behalf of the local chapter, discussing the problems of various chapters, voting, and other business proceedings.

A report on the trip will be given at the annual chapter's banquet which is to be held April 30 at 6:30 p. m. in the Methodist Church Annex.

DAY STUDENT CLUB

The Day Students will hold their annual picnic on May 10, 1952 at Colton Point (Grand Canyon). This has proven to be the big event of the year for the Day Students' Club, and they are working hard to make it an even bigger success than previous years. This picnic is open to all Day Students and their guests, however, there is a slight charge of $.25 from all attending. If this won't put you in debt, we would like to have you there. The Picnic is being planned by the following people: General Chairman, Preston Erway and Bob Day; Publicity, Jack Kelsey; Refreshments, Patsy Neiman; Entertainment, Bud Dunn; Music, Nelson Entwistle; transportation, Jack Shaw. The feature that has been added to the Picnic is that of music. The committee are planning a combo for dancing, listening, and singing pleasure. It doesn't need to be stressed that there will be "worlds of food". THE DEADLINE FOR SIGNING UP FOR THE PICNIC IS TUESDAY, MAY 6th. YOU MAY SIGN UP WITH ANY OF YOUR EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS!

SOPHOMORE CLASS NEWS

The Sophomore Class Talent Show is to be held May 9, 1952, having been postponed from an earlier date. The co-operation of all members of the class is requested to make the show a success. Any Sophomore interested in participation in the show or on backstage committees is asked to contact Robert English.

KAPPA PHI

On April 26, 1952 at 6:30 in the Methodist Church, the annual banquet of the Kappa Phi Club was held. Following the dinner, an interesting talk was presented by Mrs. Floyd Guiles, wife the former pastor of the Methodist Church. The new officers were then introduced and are as follows:

President: Ada Mae Frailey
Vice-President: Carol Woodrow Program Chairman: Carol Wagner

Chaplain: Margaret Bennett Recording Secretary: Ruth Morgan
Treasurer: Phyllis Barnes
Membership Chairman: Carol McLaughlin
Candlebeam Editor: Virginia Wilbur
Art Chairman: Beverly Rice
Music Chairman: Doris Reigle
Historian: Patricia Coyle
Co-sponsors are: Mrs. Jay Foreman
Mrs. Samuel Long

Following the introduction of new officers, special music was presented for entertainment.

The banquet was much enjoyed by all who attended.

The members of Kappa Phi have planned their project for the year. For their project, they are planning to send money to Miss Esther Russell, who is teaching in Southern Rhodesia, and also to Miss Laura Eckrota who is teaching in Argentina. Both girls are former members of Kappa Phi.

The pledging program included an informal party as the main rush event. New pledges which have been accepted are Joann Wilcox, Joan Thomas, and Florence Dunbar. Initiation will be held April 22, 1952.

FLASHLIGHT

The annual Flashlight outing will be held at Harrison Park on April 27, 1952.

Committees in charge of the picnic are: transportation, Eric Hughes, chairman, Jerry Brown; entertainment, Bob Williams, Chairman, Bill Pierce, Ruth Hunter, and Arletta Tobey; clean-up, Paul Bowles, chairman, Laura Marvin, Dick Stone, Ann Marie Hooley; refreshment, Alma Reaver, Howard Webster, and Bob Griffith.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

On Wednesday, March 19, College Players held their monthly meeting. President Dempsey welcomed the officers for 1952-53 who are:

President: Eric Hughes
Vice-President Robert Long
Secretary: Carol Wagner
Treasurer: Betty Slocum
Historian: Ed. Brainard

Plans for the annual banquet which will be held April 26, at the Penn Wells Hotel in Wellsboro. The program consisted of entertaining and informative talks by the members of Alpha Psi Omega, and refreshments were served.

On March 14, College Players presented three one-act sketches which were well-received. Those playing in the humorous satire, "Sadie" were Shirley Timmons, Audrey Miller, Laura Marvin, Patricia Myers, Elaine Heffner, Lois Long, Ethel Berger, Eleanor Miller, Becky Casey, Karol Keneske and Alma Reaver. In the more serious play were Joanne Johnson, Beverly Noll, Barbara Scott, Dorothy Miller, Elizabeth Redcay, Barbara Burleigh and Martha Ashby. The all-male cast of "If Men Played Cards As Women Do" consisted of Peter Giorgi, Robert Long, John MacLean and Ed. Brainard.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

On Monday, March 31, ten pledges were taken into Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary dramatic society. The initiates were assigned a play, "The Merchant of Venice", to produce, so to speak. The acting members gave two scenes while the back stage members designed scenery and costumes, listed properties, arranged lighting, etc. Those initiated at the impressive candle-light ceremony: Gerald Brown, Harold Hunter, Olive Knierim, Llewellyn Turnbull, John MacLean, Thomas Santiso, Arlene Shaeffer, Robert Share, Howard Webster, and Harry Mancina.

A. C. E. I.

The A. C. E. I. will hold their annual banquet in the Methodist church dining hall on April 23, 1952. Guests from the class of '51 will be the speakers. Lois Long is in charge of the program, and Laverne Williams is in charge of the tickets.

The results of the elections for the '52-'53 officers are as follows:

President, Peggy Eray; Vice-President, Anna Burgett; Secretary, Peggy Strupcowski; Treasurer, Bernard Cawley.

We wish them success in the coming year.

Seven A. C. E. I. members were able to attend the National Study Conference at Philadelphia, Penna. on April 14-18. They were: Edith Harvey, Gertrude Crumm, Ann Seeley, Edith Nelson, Alice Ferris, Jean Klinkel, and Charlotte Robinson.

ART CLUB

The last meeting of the Art Club was held in the reception room on March 18. Ford Button, president, presided. An interesting program on the topic "Looking At Ourselves" was presented by Gloria Benfer, Elizabeth Redcay, and Ernest Presher.

The next meeting on April 24 will honor the seniors. Reports on the Eastern Arts convention will be given at this time. Officers for the 1952-53 term will be installed. Refreshments will be served. This will be an interesting and profitable meeting and all members are urged to attend.

Officers for next year are: President, Carol McLaughlin; Vice-president, Louise Pier; Secretary, Carol Wagner; and Treasurer, Diane Sloat.

MUSIC ED

The April meeting of Music Education Club, held on the stage of Straughn Hall, was of special interest to members, for the program included talks by the students who had attended the Music Educators Convention held in Philadelphia. Reports covered the various clinics attended, concerts heard and other interesting features of the Convention. This meeting was the final meeting of the year.

Next September the club will resume with the following persons as officers. Edward Roberts, President; Margie Edmonds, Vice-President; Zora Early, Secretary; Pat Schau, Treasurer.

CARONTAWAN

Doris Weaver has been elected Editor-in-Chief of the 1953 Carontawan at a recent meeting of the present staff. Miss Weaver has had experience on the Williamsport High School Yearbook and has done art work for Grit. At the same meeting Carontawan Keys were awarded to the following students for their faithful and unflagging work on the publication: Thomas Best, Editor; Al Wagner, Assistant Editor;

GOT ANY BLANK REPORT CARDS?

SPORTS SPUTTERS

Hi there, Sports Fans:

Well, now that the boys are finished romping all over the hardwood, our attention turns to our national pastime, baseball. But before I indulge in the latter, there are a few facts that deserve mentioning concerning basketball.

As you may know by now, Lock Haven won the S.T.C. conference. Our Mounts wound up in seventh place with a 2 and 6 record. They had an overall 5 and 11 for the season. Lock Haven had a 10 and 2 record, while Millersville had 14 and 2 and Clarion, who finished third, had 10 and 0.

SCREWBALL SYSTEM

There has been much controversy over this screwball system used by Jack Straw, league statistician.

As long as there are 14 teams in the conference, which is too many for each team to meet, why can't the officials of the league split the league into two divisions—east and west? The winners of each league could then be determined by the percentage system with the champs meeting each other for the State Championship.

We reported in the last issue that Julian was army bound. Well, he gave his draft board the slip. He got a deferment for the rest of the term.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Basketball manager, Brad Freeman, got a ducking in the showers by the squad? The water was cold and he had his clothes on. Reason? He had used all of the hot water washing out a "few" towels.

Chet Swimley's middle name is "Dwight".

Joe Roma is now stationed at Shepherd Field, Texas. He is in the Air Corps.

Bobby Maxson received honorable mention from the Harpurs' College basketball team on their all opponent team.

FACULTY ATTENDANCE

It was nice to see the campus instructors attending the games the way they did. Yours truly believes the faculty ratio was larger than that of the students. Nice work, faculty.

Can the Yankees do it again? Yours truly isn't good at predicting, but I'm going to put myself out on the limb once again in picking the top teams in both major leagues. In the National League, it looks like Brooklyn, followed by St. Louis, New York and Philadelphia. In the American League it should wind up like this in September: Cleveland, New York, Boston and Detroit, and don't say I didn't tell you.

J. V. NEWS

The Junior Varsity, under the able coaching of Ed Rushin, had a rather successful season, winning 7 while losing only 2. They were led by newcomer Ed Merritt, who tallied 105 points in seven games for an average of 15 points per game. The other big guns were Don Pieri, the "Galloping Quinea", Joe Orse and Maxie Moore.

If any of you roller skaters are interested in improving, contact "Putt" Malanick. He is also interested in the newcomers of this sport.

Some of you may be wondering where and how Eddie Merritt got his sunburn so early in the year. He was down near Daytona Beach, Fla. Ed was given a tryout by the Pittsburgh Pirates so stayed there for 10 days with other young baseball prospects.

Big Pete Dokas visited our campus recently. Peter just completed his schooling at Peabody where he received his degree in Master of Arts. It is good to see the big boy around Mansfield again. He's the guy who brought recognition to M.S.T.C. last year by playing in the annual North-South football game. From the way Pete talked to yours truly, he is still going to school here.

Following is this writer's selection of an All-Star Intramural basketball team: Fred Brooks and Bernie Cawley, forwards; Jim Brown, center, and Bob Schmidt and Bill Rippele at the guard position. On the second team: Howie Best and Pret Erway, forwards; "Moose" Zanowicz, center; and Walt Thomas and Don Mahon at guards.

So long, now. See you next month.

Spring Assemblies Offer Fine Talent

April and May assemblies are bringing to the college many outstanding events. On April 1, an excellent musical program was presented by the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity under the direction of Mr. Francis and John Strupcowski, president of the organization.

A concert by the prize-winning Otto Township High School Band was presented on April 17. Dr. Robert Oliver will give a talk on "Korea, America's Back Door" on April 22.

The Renaissance Singers will present a program on April 29th of selected music for the assembly program on that day. Miss Randall is the director of the group.

Alphonse Zastavny will be in charge of the Phi Sigma Pi assembly on May 6. The program will be of an educational nature.

The Advance Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Florence Satterly Place will present a selection of songs on May 13.

The presentation of the 1951-52 Awards and in installation of the 1952-53 Student Council will take place on May 20. President Morgan will preside at the installation ceremony.

Kids Undefeated For Second Year

The Korean Kids walked off with honors in the M. S. T. C. Intramural basketball league for the second straight year. They won all 14 games. Members of the Kids' undefeated five were Captain Luther Hoffman, Fred Brooks, Bill Rippele, Bob Stenzhorn, Walt Thomas, and Gene Welliver. The All-Stars, Y's Guys and Junior Birdmen wound up in second place tie with 10 wins and 4 losses.

The All Stars, it is believed, set a record when they rocked up a 95-54 pasting onto the Hot Shots. Cawley and Schmidt led the scoring for the All Stars with 30 and 26 points respectively. Following is the final standing of the league:

	Won	Lost
Korean Kids	14	0
Snapping All Stars	10	4
Y's Guys	10	4
Junior Birdmen	10	4
Seven Wonders	5	9

Maxson-Shepanski To Co-Captain Team For 1952 Season

Pictured above are Bob Maxson, of Shinglehouse, Pa., and Paul Shepanski from Nanticoke, Pa., who are this year's co-captains of the "Mountaineers" baseball team. Bob is an outfielder while Paul can play either first or third base. Other returning lettermen and their possible positions are as follows: Chet Swimley, first base; Dick Wilcox, pitcher; Larry Callaghan, second base; and Nate "Scooter" George at short stop. Returning after a year's absence from Mansfield is Don "Beanie" Moore who covered the initial sack for the "Mounts".

Coaches Casey and Rushin will build the team around these seven men.

As this writing went to press, there was quite a turnout down at Smythe Park.

Mansfield Whips Shippensburg 67-56

Mansfield's Mountaineers gained their second league win in the Pennsylvania State Teachers Conference with an impressive 67-56 victory over Shippensburg on February 22.

The Mountaineers took the lead from the opening whistle and never relinquished the lead. Nate George, injured in the Lycoming game, came off the bench to lead the Mansfield attack with 17 points.

Giving him able assistance were forwards Bob Maxson and Hank Goodman, who scored 16 and 12 points respectively.

Top point makers for the Shippensburg team were forwards Don Robertson and Tim McClelland. Robertson scored 15, and McClelland 12.

Bowling Standings

At this writing two teams—Stepkovitch and Bowles—were staging a neck and neck race for honors in the men's bowling league. Many of the bowlers are finding the maples to their liking as the average this year are over those of last year's at the same time.

	W.	L.	Pts.

Maxson Nips Goodman

Although he did not equal last year's pace, Bobby Maxson maintained his leadership over the rest of the "Mountaineers" in the scoring department. "Hank" Goodman, co-captain of the "Mounts" made a mad rush in the last three games, but couldn't overtake Bobby. "Hank" outscored Bobby in the last three games, 51 to 25. Bobby had an overall 214 points to Hank's 212. Last of the "big three", "Butch" Jurnack, came through with 155 points.

In the free throw department, our "Mounts" tried 386 and made good on 244 of them for an average of 63%; that's pretty good shooting. Following are the vital statistics for the 1951-52 season:

Player	G.	f.g.	f.t.	f.	t.p.	avg.
R. Maxson	16	79	85	56	214	13.6
H. Goodman	16	85	62	42	212	13.4
S. Jurnack	16	52	75	51	155	9.11
N. George	1	38	16	14	90	9.0
C. Swimley	16	22	57	27	71	4.7

J. Orse	10	7	4	1	15	1.5
M. Morse	8	4	7	2	10	1.2
T. Best	14	2	3	2	6	.43

The "Mountaineers" scored an overall 939 points for an average of 59.8 game while the opposition tallied 1078 points for an average of 66.13 per game.

Intramural Captains Pick All-Star Team

The sports department of this paper asked the captains of the eight intramural basketball teams to select men, who, in their estimation, are the best of the lot. The selections are based on 10 points for the first team and 5 points for a second team vote. Luther Hoffman, Bill Trowbridge, Chax Sillick, Jim Brown, Tim Cheplick, George Bliss, Pret Erway and Marty Murray were the captains who picked the following men for intramural honors at MSTC:

First Team

B. Cawley, F.—All Stars
F. Brooks, F.—Korean Kids
J. Brown, C.—Junior Birdmen
B. Rippele, G.—Korean Kids
D. Mahon, G.—Hot Shots and Y's Guys

Second Team

J. Kutney, F.—Y's Guys

ton, D. C. The conference was for all Home Economics Education people. Mrs. Morales was on the committee for setting up judging departments of Home Economics. Mrs. Galbraith was on the valuation committee. On Saturday evening of their visit Mrs. Morales and Mrs. Galbraith had dinner with a former student of Mansfield, Miss Patricia Cochran. Miss Cochran is teaching at Dobbs Ferry and also studying for her Master's Degree at Columbia University.

Misses Catherine Prouty, Nadine Davidheiser and Gloria Benfer visited Buhl Planetarium, Pittsburgh, to see the exhibit on nursery school material prepared by Miss Reba Bason and the nursery school class. The exhibit was one of many in the Career Week sponsored by the Pennsylvania Home Economics Association.

The theme of the Special Event will be "A Day with Home Economics". Senior girls of the high schools of Sullivan, Lycoming, Bradford, Potter, Susquehanna and Wyoming counties will be guests of the department for the event. The program will begin at 9:00 a. m. and end at 4:00 p. m. with exhibits, demonstrations, style show and tours of the campus.

Miss Melinda Fiat spoke before the Wellsboro Art Club March 16, 1952. The senior girls are being interviewed for teaching positions for next year. Jeanne Woodring has accepted a position at Sayre, Pa.

The senior girls who were student teaching will be back on campus where they will resume studies.

SIGMA ZETA

The regular April meeting of Sigma Zeta was held April 1, 1952, in the Arts Building. After a short business meeting, the following people were initiated into the organization: Theodore Strein, Thomas Best, and James English. Annc Johnson, Shirley Campbell, and Aubrey Dunne were accepted as associate members.

On Saturday, March 29, several of the members along with Mr. Bartholomew, adviser, visited the Glass Center at Corning. The members attending found the exhibits and model glass plant extremely interesting.

The following members were elected as officers in Sigma Zeta for 1952-1953:

President, James Maginsky.
Vice President, Joseph Dandois.
Secretary, Helen Russell.
Treasurer, Betty Slocum.
Historian, Robert Day.

Land of Contrast

The following article was written especially for the Flashlight by Mr. Jupenlaz, Veterans' Counselor. Having spent two years as a Red Cross Field Director with the Armed Forces in Africa, Mr. Jupenlaz is well qualified to describe its beautiful and mysterious country.

Every experience in life leaves its imprint upon one's personality, and upon the memory. To-day, as I read and hear of political, economic and military disturbances in some of the internationally vital areas of Africa, I travel in retrospect to that land of mystery—Land of extremes—Land of contrasts!

It is springtime in Africa, and as our ship approaches the ancient city of Oran, through the sky-blue waters of that wondrous harbor, I shall not—cannot—forget the awe with which I gaze at that sun-crystaled city on the mountain! Anchored off-shore, I watch as long as eye can see—then settle down to wait debarkation. Midnight—with the clatter and splash of a sea-going monster about to spill her human cargo on the foreign docks, shake herself with relief, only to return to the United States for another Nazi-smashing, eager group of American G. I.'s.

I leave the ship with her countless sisters to continue their history making course, while I, a mere Red Cross Field Director, prepare to conquer a task in this land where East meets West with the ease and self-assurance of the nesting stork. The stork, who through fact and fiction has certainly not forgotten the Arab, judging from the multitude of dark-skinned youth who roam the streets unattended, while others straddle the bended backs of their veiled and ever-pregnant mothers.

Leaving Oran by military plane bound for Algiers, I forgot to fear altitude and air-pockets in my desire to miss nothing of the ever-changing view below. Arab huts, single and in clusters, nestle against the mountain slopes losing themselves in a haze of grey and blue. Wide valleys, checked with a unique design of field and forest, seem to throw defiance at us and at the towering peaks in the distance. The plane dips lower and I make out surging waves of life which emerge as vast flocks of sheep and goats bent on one last nibble while being urged on by their ragged herdsmen. All too soon we approach Algiers with its terraced streets and palm-fringed avenues. A trip through the native section with its squalor and disease leaves us thirsty for one clean, pure breath of air. One long, dirty and narrow street in this maze of human wreckage, houses the siftings and dregs of the world's vice markets. The French Section of the city is in direct contrast, with many beautiful homes and modern shops.

Another plane takes off for Constantine, the oldest continuously inhabited city in North Africa. As we observe the massive cliffs and mountainous approaches to this fortress city, little imagination is necessary to understand how a few defenders might well have held it against hordes of ancient and medieval aggressors. A famous gorge and bridge add to the scenic beauty, and leaves one wondering at the magnitude of nature. We visit the Casino, within whose walls intrigue and conspiracy have held sway for centuries. Here the sirens have lured from their victims the secrets that have shaped the destiny of nations.

The next lap of our journey takes us to Bone, where I am to be stationed for many months—in close comradeship with naval and military authorities—associations that can only be experienced where all are subject to a common danger, and united in a common cause. Here in the Red Cross field office and clubs, aching hearts are lightened, intimate problems are solved, while spring turns to summer and autumn follows with ever-changing beauty. I meet military personnel from almost every nation—Algerian, French—British—Arab—extremes and contrasts—day follows day with sameness, and still each different with new problems and new solutions. New friendships are formed—more new faces appear and new losses are sustained.

Winter brings rain—roses—ripened fruits—and more rain! Christmas comes with trips into the forest for trees to lighten a holiday overseas. And now it is January, with its increasing rains—a feeling of a task well done as the Bone Red Cross field office is closed and I say farewell to friends. My French chauffeur with his own car accompanies me forty miles and there, under a roadside palm, bids his American employer and friend God-speed, a parting both known and final.

Hundreds of miles in a Red Cross car, Bone to Algiers, for the moment war seems far away as one passes through valleys with their greenness, up long mountain slopes overlooking the scene just passed; through rugged mountain passes where one looks as through a window at new beauties below. On and on through Arab towns and villages with their Foreign Legion Posts—their bands of Arab and French troops—their beggars—their rich—their bread-lines and their shops.

Once more Algiers, and the Red Cross friends left behind months before. A chance for a ten day's rest at an oasis on the edge of the great and silent Sahara. In the space of eight hours from rainy Algiers, over snow-capped mountains to the sunny desert! Natural contrasts difficult to comprehend! Ten days of blissful relaxation, riding the traditional Arabian Steed, watching long camel trains which appear, pass and disappear as dreams of palm trees whose majesty lend in the night, roaming under thousands of fountains to the irrigated gardens, and at last emerging into an ancient river bed, now dry as the surrounding desert.

The dream ends, and we retrace our reluctant way toward the mountain pass and the work ahead. I receive my orders, calling for immediate transfer by air to Casablanca, and the reorganization of another field office. Once in the air, conjecture begins—will we brave the air route over the mountains, or will we take the longer route down the sea by Gibraltar? (We dare not fly over "neutral" Spanish Morocco) Time proves, as we fly ever westward that the Straits are ahead—then they are behind, and we have looked from the sky at the "Rock", the fortress that has guarded the blue sea for ages.

As I gaze down on Casablanca I am impressed with the contrast between this level, sprawling city and the high terraced streets of Algiers. Without delay I enter upon my Red Cross assignment in this teeming, busy gateway to the West—the West, and all that it implies—home and loved ones! Again months of effort—new friends—new problems—new solutions, (I hope). From one side of the city I can view the Atlantic, from another, I can see the departure of camel trains. I look with pride at a marching troop of newly arrived Americans, and again with awe at a band of giants, tribal-marked sons of the Senegal. (The mid-night expeditions of these shiny-black warriors certainly have no somniferous affect upon the enemy). On one street may be seen modern structures of the French, and on another the humble and dirty shacks of the natives and on the same streets an ox cart makes way for a modern auto. I stop to visit with an Arab, who asks my opinion on his two recent purchases—his donkey for three thousand francs and his latest wife for five thousand! I am at a loss in both cases, however, I show him how to blow in the donkey's ear in case of stubbornness, but as for the wife, I offer no suggestion.

Spring comes again, bringing promise of a homeward flight—the promise is kept—I awake one day in Africa, the next in America! Home again! For months I wonder—did I ever really live and work in Africa? Was it all a dream? Now all is clear; time makes it ever more vivid. What is this strange power that draws one in memory to that far-off land of mystery?

Paging Personalities

Paging all victims of spring fever—"April showers bring May flowers," but they also bring May exams. The way to a professor's heart is not through his stomach nor through neglected assignments. Let's keep our scholastic averages high.

Mansfield Alumnus Elected Ninth Bowdoin President

Dr. James S. Coles

Dr. James S. Coles, acting dean of the college at Brown University, was elected president of Bowdoin College. He will assume his duties in October, succeeding Kenneth C. M. Sills, who retires after thirty-five years of service.

Dr. Coles, who is 38 years old, is the first scientist to be chosen president at Bowdoin. He is a chemist with a notable research record during World War II and received the President's Certificate and a Navy citation for work with under-water explosives. He will be Bowdoin's ninth president since the opening of the college in 1802 and the third since 1885.

A graduate of Mansfield State Teachers College in 1934, Dr. Coles received his Bachelor of Arts, Master and Doctor of Philosophy Degrees from Columbia University. He taught at City College of New York and at Middlebury College before joining the Brown faculty in 1946. He married Miss Martha Louise Reed of Port Washington, N. Y. They have three children.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Coles, Mansfield. Mr. E. S. Coles graduated from Mansfield in 1900. His grandfather, James Emerson Rose, graduated from Mansfield in the class of 1867.

Day Students Vote Constitution Change

During the past months, the main topic of discussion has been the club's constitution. It now has been completely revised by the executive board. There are only a few major changes that were made, however. One of these is Article IV, Section III, which concerns the election of the executive board. It is as follows: "The directors shall be elected by ballot by the officers for a term of one year. Two directors (one male and one female) shall be elected from the senior class; four directors (two males and two females) will be elected from the sophomore class; two directors (one male and one female) from the freshman class."

Much work was put into revising the constitution, and the members of the executive board deserve thanks.

Lions Club Presents Dixieland Minstrel

The Lions Club Minstrel will be presented in Straughn Hall on April 23 and 24 at eight o'clock. It will be a regular Dixieland Minstrel Show with Miss Elizabeth Allen conducting. End men for the production will be: Hosea Wolfrim, Ken Ripley, Colie Rush, Butch Austin, Francis Shelley, and Rusty Strange. Bucky Robena will be the Interlocutor.

An all male chorus of twenty men will be featured in addition to various other acts. The production is considered to be one of the best ever produced by the club. A large crowd is expected to attend the performance.

Eminent Men to Speak during Commencement Week

The annual Baccalaureate service will take place at 10:30 a. m. on May 25 in Straughn Auditorium. Rev. Paul Emenheiser of the St. James Episcopal Church of Mansfield will give the invocation, the scripture and the benediction. The college choir, directed by Mrs. Florence Place, will sing "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place," from a German Requiem by Brahms. The Rt. Rev. John Thomas Heistand, Bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg, will give the address. Rev. Heistand received his S.T.D. at General Theological Seminary of the Protestant Church, New York City, and an honorary D.D. at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. He has served as student chaplain, Bucknell University; Rector of St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg, Pa.; Dean of St. Stephen's Cathedral, Harrisburg; has been bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg since 1943. He served in World War

I, following which he was ordained a deacon in the Episcopal Church, and was later ordained as a priest.

On May 26 at 9:45 a. m. will be the academic procession, with Commencement following at 10. The speaker is Dr. Wesley N. Haines, Assistant to the President, Keuka College, Keuka Park, New York. A piano solo will be given by Marjorie Tewksbury, class of '52, and the conferring of degrees will be by President Morgan.

Dr. Haines is a graduate of Brown University, Colegate-Rochester Divinity School, and his Ph.D. from Harvard. In great demand as a speaker to educational and civic groups in New York and Pennsylvania, he is also a member of Phi Beta Kappa and the American Association of University Professors.

His speech is entitled "For the Rest of Your Life."

Home Economics Day

The Home Economics Club, Omicron Gamma Pi, presented "A Day With Home Economics", May 16, 1952. The club entertained 300 senior high school girls of surrounding counties. Mrs. Apple, the school dietitian, served lunch for the guests in the school dining room.

The program, under the supervision of Miss Melinda Fiat, with Miss Charlotte Peeke as general chairman, was as follows: Registration 9:00 to 10:30 a. m.; campus tours 9:00 to 10:30 a. m. and 1:15 to 2:00 p. m.; demonstrations from 1:00 to 12:00 a. m. and 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. entitled "Family Food Plans for Home Defense", "Dollars and Sense in College", and "From Top to Toe"; lunch 12:30 p. m., and a style review, "Through the Keyhole", under the direction of Miss Eleanor Johnston.

The following girls were chairmen for the review: Committees, JoAnn Harris; Music, Myra Lex; Children's garments, Gloria Benfer; Wardrobe Attendants, Jane Anderson; Stage Lois Ramsden; Seating, Neda Kreider; Commentators, Ethel Berger, Marjorie Bjork, and Donna Poster.

The senior girls modeled suits and coats, the sophomore girls, gowns and silk dresses, and the freshmen girls, pajamas, cotton dresses, and wool skirts. All the garments modeled were made by the girls who modeled them. Refreshments were served at 3:30 p. m.

During the day various exhibits were shown. They were: "Learning to Help Children Grow", an exhibit presented by the Nursery School class; Let's Improve It, presented by the Family Relations Class; "Industrious Pennsylvania", presented by the Consumer Education Class; "New Furniture from Old", presented by the Senior Design Class; and "Fit Your Feet for Summer", presented through the courtesy of the Gosper-Kelly Company.

Fall Play Announced

The College Players have chosen their fall production. The play selected was not in the original list being considered by the committee but was suggested by the adviser Miss Allen, and after a little discussion was accepted by the committee. The play is "Angel Street", better known by its motion picture title "Gaslight", in which Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer starred. "Gaslight", the name it will be publicized under, is a Victorian thriller which was enormously successful and popular in the past. The setting is London, England, in the late nineteenth century. It concerns a murderer who is trying to drive his wife insane for his own personal gain. A famous detective who has been working on the murder the man committed attempts to save the wife from the nightmarish atmosphere of the gas-lit mansion where her husband keeps her.

The cast for this tense melodrama includes: Barbara Scott as the tortured Mrs. Manningham; Lois Long as Elizabeth, the faithful maid; Eric Hughes as the evil murderer, Mr. Manningham; Becky Casey as Nancy, the young forward maid; Robert Long as Inspector Rough, the detective.

Committees will be announced next September.

DORIS WEAVER

Doris Weaver Elected Editor of Carontawan

The 1953 Carontawan editor is Doris Weaver, a Junior in the Home Economics Department. Although Doris is a new-comer to the Carontawan staff, active participation in other campus activities has proven her to be capable of her new position. She was elected treasurer of Omicron Gamma Pi for next year, is an eager participator in W.A.A. events, and belongs to the Art Club. Doris is a graduate of Williamsport High School.

At an executive board meeting tentative plans for the coming year were discussed. Departments heads and new staff members will be selected this month.

Fanny James Crowned May Queen

May 3, 1952, marked the day for the annual May Day celebration at Mansfield. The festivities began at two o'clock in Straughn Auditorium with the May Pole dancers leading the procession, followed by the May Queen and her court—Alice Baker, Gloria Benfer, Nancy Chamberlain, Phyllis Courtney, Patsy Edgar, Margaret Lindgren, Elizabeth Redcay, and Ellen Spencer.

Fanny James, Senior Elementary student from Hawley Pa., was crowned May Queen by Bill McNett, President of the Student Council. When Fanny was asked how she felt about being May Queen, she replied:

"I was scared and thrilled at the same time. Being May Queen was the most wonderful experience I have ever had—but just being queen wasn't the part that made it wonderful. It was the genuine and well-meant enthusiasm of my fellow students which made it a day that I can never forget."

After the coronation, the play,

"PINOCCHIO" was presented by an all female cast under the direction of Miss Fosberry. The leading characters were Betty Nelson as Geppetto, Dorothy Miller as Pinocchio, and Amy Evelhair as the Blue Fairy. Thanks and appreciation are extended to those who worked behind the scenes to make this production possible, as well as to a fine performance by a capable cast.

At six o'clock dinner was held in honor of the May Queen and her court. The officers of the various organizations had the organizations' advisers as their dinner guests.

The May Day Dance was held in the college gym from eight to eleven o'clock. Entertainment and music for the evening was furnished by the Esquires under the leadership of John Struycewski.

General chairman for the program of the day was Miss Jackson, with Miss Fosberry directing the play, Miss Dieffenbach, the May Pole Dance, and Miss Royer, the decorations.

Alumni Day Scheduled for May 25

Preparations are being made for the annual Alumni Day program, to be held on May 24, at the college. Registration in the foyer of Straughn Hall will take place at 10:00 a. m., under the direction of Miss Helen Wood, Secretary of the Alumni Association. Miss Wood is assisted by the faculty and student members of the Alumni Relations Committee.

At 11:00 a. m., a general alumni meeting will be held in Straughn Hall, with Mr. Edgar Stover of New York City, class of '22, as presiding officer, and Margaret Stafford Lapp, class of 1900, as Secretary of the day. Mr. Edwin S. Coles is President of the General Alumni Association, and a graduate of the class of 1900. The business to be conducted at this meeting will consist of the election of directors for the years 1952-1954, and the induction of the graduating Senior Class into the Alumni Association. The Seniors will be presented by their adviser, Mr. John S. Sandel, and the response will be given by Mr. Harley Rex, Senior Class President. Entertainment will be provided by the Knickerbocher Quartet.

Among the speakers to be heard at this time are Mr. Lloyd Jones, of Harrisburg, Penna., class of '27, who will speak on "The Mansfield Alumni Association", and Miss Maryon Farrer, whose topic is "The Mansfield Alumni Clubs". Miss Farrer is a graduate of the class of 1918. Remarks will be made by a representative of each class, the following of which celebrate their anniversaries: the classes of 1892, 1902, 1912, 1917, 1922, 1927, 1932, 1937, 1942, and 1947. Mr. Morgan will address the group and in conclusion "Mansfield, Hail", written by Will George Butler, class of 1897, will be sung.

Highlights of the afternoon consist of an Alumni luncheon in the college dining room at 1:00 p. m., and an Alumni Exhibit in the college library between the hours of 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. In addition, there will be a class reunion in the Arts Building at 3:00 p. m. and an Alumni tea at the home of President and Mrs. Morgan at 4:00 p. m. The evening's entertainment will consist of a presentation of operatic excerpts at 8:00 p. m. by students of the Music Education program.

Perhaps at this time the student's of Mansfield State Teachers College should consider the loyalty of the alumni and the wonderful interest they have taken in their school, even after many years of separation. Their fine example should be taken to heart by the members of this year's graduating class and by the undergraduate students, in the hope of carrying on their proud tradition. One of the individuals expected this day will be celebrating her 70th anniversary. We here at Mansfield are certainly proud of the spirit shown by these people. In recognition of the fine showing made by the Alumni, the college is accommodating as guests for the week-end all those who are celebrating their 50th and 60th anniversaries.

Faculty Members Leave

Five members of the College faculty are completing their last year at Mansfield. Miss Elizabeth Duff will go to the University of Maryland to obtain her doctorate. Miss Virginia Conson, Supervisor in English, will marry Mr. John Reese, Supervisor of Industrial Arts. Miss Reba Basom will marry Mr. George Bordener, Librarian. Dr. Denker, who has been substituting for Mr. John Little on the Music Education faculty, will return to his home in Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Fred Place, also of the Music Education faculty, will return to her home in Towanda, Pa. The remaining faculty and students will miss these fine instructors and they wish them good luck and success for their future.

Farewell Weekend

A farewell weekend for the Seniors was held on May 16th, 17th, and 18th. The activities began on Friday night with the movie "I Was a Communist for the F.B.I." and a musical program by the Knickerbocker Four and a campus combo. On Saturday afternoon there was a sisay ball game at Smythe Park, a scavenger hunt on campus, and recreational activities in the Student Center.

A picnic supper at 5:30 on front campus was followed by a sport dance Saturday evening in the gymnasium at 8:00 p. m. A campus group provided music for the dancing.

In second floor foyer after Sunday dinner a College sing was held. As a finale to the senior's last weekend a concert was presented at 2:30 p. m. by the College band in the concert area.

Credit goes to Jim Marshall and his committee of class officers for a successful program.

Error is the force that welds men together; truth is communicated to men only by deeds of truth.—Henry Vaughn.

DR. GEORGE A. RETAN

Dr. George A. Retan To Retire

Dr. George A. Retan, a member of the college faculty for twenty-six years, is retiring in June. He has served this institution capably for many years as head of the Elementary Campus Schools and director of Teacher Training and Placement.

Dr. Retan, who is well-known as an educational leader, defines his philosophies in his book, Management and Teaching Techniques. Ever in the vanguard his influence on educational thought and practice has been disseminated over a wide area through the large number of students who have come under his guidance at the Mansfield State Teachers College.

Dr. Retan was graduated from the Mansfield State Normal School in 1903. After teaching for two years, he became interested in forestry and studied forestry at the Pennsylvania State Forest School. In 1910 he studied forestry in Germany, and on his return he became associated with the Mount Alto School of Forestry as teacher and director of practical forestry.

In 1918 Dr. Retan returned to public school service as supervising principal of the Galeton Schools. In 1926 he came to Mansfield as Director of the Elementary Campus Schools here where he succeeded his father who had held the position for ten years. Dr. Retan received both his M.A. and Ph.D. from New York University.

Appropriate gifts were presented to Dr. and Mrs. Retan at a dinner held in their honor by the Campus Schools staff at the Mark Twain Hotel and by the Faculty Association. President Morgan and various members of the staff paid high tribute to his enthusiasm for the teaching profession and to his distinguished record as an educator.

Dr. Retan, an active leader in community affairs, is very much interested in the Red Cross, the Community Chest, the Boy Scouts, and fraternal affairs.

Council Banquet

The annual council banquet was held at the Mark Twain Hotel in Elmira, New York, on May 7, 1952. Members of the old and new Student Council, Women's Dormitory Council, and the Men's Dormitory Council were present. Guests: President and Mrs. Morgan, Dean Manser, Dean Long, Miss Jackson, and Miss Fosberry. The banquet was followed by a dance at the hotel.

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS—A VALEDICTORY

In the first assembly you attended as Freshmen four years ago, these words were addressed to you:

Mansfield, as the college of your choice, welcomes you to favorable and stimulating academic, cultural and social opportunities. To the degree that you avail yourselves of these opportunities, you will learn some of the values and develop some of the skills that will aid you in becoming better men and women and because of that, a good teacher, nurse, homemaker and a better contributing citizen.

How well you have profited by your college experience you alone know. Those who have guided you through instruction, counsel and example can only hope that their influence has given to you the vision of teaching not as a job but as a profession that is the way of life and vitally concerned with improving life.

The one great thing about the profession of teaching is the opportunity that it gives to multiply influence. Your influence may build or tear down, spread happiness or gloom, create harmony or discord, encourage the evil or the good forces about you, support good ideals or weaken them, elevate or degrade good taste, encourage intelligence or stupidity.

The social, moral, intellectual, esthetic and spiritual climate of the communities into which you will go is made by the influence which individuals exert on the common life. Your influence will grow only with use, but if you use it wisely your own sense of values will grow thereby. The profession of teaching is a challenge and the danger is never that we will be too big for it, only that we will not be big enough.

My wish for all of you is: Health enough to make hard work a pleasure; Wealth sufficient to supply your reasonable wants; Courage to equal every threat of circumstance; and a Desire and Willingness to use your influence for the highest good.

—Dr. James G. Morgan.

WHY AN ALUMNI ASSOCIATION?

Why do schools and colleges have alumni associations?

Since the early days of higher education the graduates have found that the years they spent in institutions of higher learning gave them contacts with new people which they wished to carry on through the years to come, and so they formed associations whereby they could get together at intervals in later years and renew some of the hours they spent together and to learn how their schoolmates had fared during these intervals.

Mansfield S. T. C. stands in the positions of being the first, and sometimes the only, institution where they lived and made new friends after leaving their own homes and families. It was their first venture into living away from home and our college became a true alma mater for them. They came to know boys and girls from other sections of the country and from other walks of life, and they found friendships that they found hard to break, as many of you will know when it comes time to graduate and separate into the newer fields opening to you.

The first few years you will wish to come back at Commencement time, as well as at Home-coming. Then on your tenth anniversary you will find it heartening to come back and see your old friends and learn how life has treated them. In another ten years you will feel the same impulse and happy are they who are able to gratify it.

And, so it goes, as you pass the quarter century mark, and lead on to the golden cycle of your graduation, your fiftieth anniversary. By then you are reluctant to number yourself amid the "old" people, but you are there just the same. This anniversary has compensations that may seem hard to understand, but they are there just the same.

And so we have an Alumni Association that will help you keep and enjoy those memories of your college days and the friends that you made when you ventured out into the world and took your first steps away from home.

—Edwin S. Coles, President of the General Alumni Association.

"Flashlight" Elects New Staff

The editor and two assistant editors for the 1952-53 issues of your college paper, the "Flashlight", have been elected by the staff, and the departmental editors have been appointed. Previous experience on the "Flashlight" staff, coupled with the personal qualifications of our new editorial board should provide capable leadership for upholding the standards which have been met in the past years.

The editor, Donna Jones, has a background of three years experience as a member of the "Flashlight" staff. During this past year she served as assistant editor as well as secondary and elementary departmental editor, and reporter for two years. Miss Jones, who is enrolled in the Elementary curriculum, comes from Harrisburg. In her three years at Mansfield she has been active in many college organizations. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Psi Omega, A.C.E.I., Art Club, W.A.A., and is treasurer of College Players.

Virginia Wilbur, an Elementary student from Camptown, Penna., was elected assistant editor. She likewise has had three years experience on the "Flashlight", having served as reporter, and secondary and elementary departmental editor. Other campus activities in which she participated include A.C.E.I., W.A.A., and Kappa Pi.

The other assistant editor, Eric Hughes, belongs to Kappa Delta Pi, Alpha Psi Omega, Carontawan staff, and is president-elect of College Players. Eric is a secondary student from Wellsboro. He has been a member of the "Flashlight" staff for the past two years and has contributed much to the paper, including the well-known "Green Room Jottings".

Bob Griffiths, the business manager for the coming year, is from Shamokin, Penna., and has served two years on the "Flashlight" staff. Mr. Griffiths is a music student, and participates in many musical activities, including Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Band, Orchestra, and Brass Ensemble.

Editor of the Elementary and Secondary Departments is Patricia Coyle, and Elementary student from Towanda, Penna. Miss Coyle has been on the staff for one year and during that time has written many feature articles.

Paul Larson, from Kane, Penna., is enrolled in the Music curriculum at Mansfield, and is editor for the Music Department. As author of "Musical Merry-Go-Round", Mr. Larson will be producing much news in the paper. He has been a member of the "Flashlight" staff for one year.

Alma Reaver, Home Economics Department editor, is from Middletown, Penna. Miss Reaver is a home economics student, and has one year of experience on the staff.

Sports editor for 1952-53 is Paul Bowles, a secondary student from Wilkes-Barre, Penna. During the year Mr. Bowles has served on the staff, he has been in charge of all sports news, and is also the originator of the column, "Sports Sputters".

Editor of photography is Marilyn Press, a secondary student. Miss Press, who comes from Shinglehouse, Penna., has been a "Flashlight" staff member for one year.

Irene Prokapowicz, an irregular secondary student from Susquehanna, Penna., is art editor. Miss Prokapowicz has been on the staff one year.

Five new members have been added to the "Flashlight" literary staff. Cyril Clancy, of Olyphant, Penna., is a sophomore enrolled in the secondary department. Margaret Bennett, of Austin, Penna., is an elementary junior. Two juniors from the secondary curriculum are Robert Long of Powell, Penna., and Richard Coony, of Genesee, Penna. Patsy Shimer, of Tatamy, Penna., is a sophomore home economics student.

The business staff has accepted five new members. Josie Ascenzi, of Elkland, Penna., Flora More, of Bradford, Penna., Nancy Van Dyke, of Canton, Penna., are freshmen in the elementary curriculum. Dorothy Miller, an elementary sophomore, is from Mauch-Chunk, Penna. Aubrey Dunn, of Sayre, Penna., is a sophomore secondary student.

PHI SIGMA PI

The annual banquet of Phi Sigma Pi was held on Friday, April 25th at the Penn-Wells Hotel in Wellsboro. The group was greeted with remarks by the president, Alphonse Zastavany. Dr. Sanders McComsey, National Secretary-Treasurer of Phi Sigma Pi and Dean of Instruction at Millersville State Teachers College, was speaker of the evening. Dr. McComsey spoke on "The Place of the Teacher in the Field of Education." Dr. McComsey was accompanied to the banquet by Mr. Pucillo, coach and member of the Physical and Health Education Department at Millersville State Teachers College. President James Morgan and Mr. Albert Sundberg, National Vice-president of Phi Sigma Pi, were guests for the evening. At this time Donald Moore was awarded the service key for outstanding service. The key was presented by the president, Mr. Zastavany. After introducing the old officers to the group, the president introduced the new officers and installed them. The officers for Phi Sigma Pi for the year 1952-53 are: Stanley Raykovitz, president; Chester Swimey, vice-president; Robert Day, secretary; Alphonse Zastavany, treasurer; and Paul Razzman, historian. After the installation of officers, Mr. Raykovitz gave a few remarks of acceptance. Gerald Acla and his committee are to be congratulated on the fine success of the banquet.

On May 8th in Straughn Auditorium, Phi Sigma Pi presented their annual assembly program. Al Wagner was in charge of the program which was based on the well-known radio program, "Twenty Questions."

Phi Sigma Pi held its annual picnic at Colton Point on May 14th. Bob Rodine, Don Schline, and Al Wagner were the committee in charge.

DAY STUDENT NEWS

The Day Students held their annual spring picnic May 10, 1952, from 3:00 to 8:00 p. m. at Colton Point. This event proved to be a success thanks to the following chairmen and their committees: transportation, Jack Shaw; advertising, Jack Kelsey; food, Patricia Nieman; clean-up, James Soop; entertainment, Aubrey Dunne. Thanks also go to our advisers, Miss Fosberry and Mr. Long, and all others who helped to make the picnic a success.

A committee has been appointed for the special purpose of planning the social calendar for the coming school year, as well as to find a date for the Day Students' Dance to be held next year.

The executive board wishes to thank Miss Fosberry and Mr. and Mrs. Long for the refreshments served on April 22, 1952.

The new officers have taken over now, and we wish to extend our thanks for guiding us through a successful year to our retiring officers: Lorrta Smith, Fritz Michanowicz, Ann Seeley, Nelson Entwistle, and Lula Mae Fuller.

ART CLUB

The last meeting of the Art Club was held in the reception room on April 25 with Ford Button presiding. Highlights of the meeting were the initiation of new officers and Lorrta Smith's report on the Eastern Arts Convention. Miss Smith was the only Art Club member attending the convention and she believed it was a worthwhile experience.

A breakfast honoring Senior Art Club members was held at Miss Royer's on May 18.

LAMBDA MU

Members of Lambda Mu attended the smorgasbord luncheon at the Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira, on May 10, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Brooks, and the adviser, Mrs. Christine Lewis. The group expressed a sincere "Bon Voyage" to Mrs. Lewis, who sailed for Italy on May 17.

The annual Lambda Mu tea was held in the sorority rooms, Sunday, May 11. Guests included Miss Brooks, Mrs. James G. Morgan, Mrs. Samuel Long, Miss Cora Atwater, Miss Jackson, Miss Fosberry, Mrs. Edmunds, Phyllis McGuire, and many other women members of the music department.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Officers for the coming school year have been elected. They are as follows: Co-presidents, Alma Reaver, Robert Williams; Vice-president, LaVerne Williams; Secretary, Marilyn Ruth; Treasurer, Thelma Lee. The SPA Cabinet met at Dr. Clarence Mutchler's cabin near Williamsport, to plan the next year's program.

On Thursday, May 8, the annual Farewell Picnic was held at Corey Creek. The program included refreshments, games, and fellowship. An installation service was held for the new officers. This service was by candlelight. The organization wishes to thank its present advisors, officers, and cabinet members for their guidance through this year.

ASSOCIATION OF CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The Association for Childhood Education held its annual banquet on April 23, at the Methodist Hall. After the dinner, Dr. Retan spoke to the group and announced that this would be his last year as official adviser to A.C.E.I. since he will be retiring from educational work. A report was then given by students who attended the National Convention at Philadelphia, which was held during the Easter vacation.

As is the custom at each banquet, the out-going officers formally passed on their duties to the newly elected officers for next year. The officers are: Peggy Fray, President; Anna Burgett, Vice-President; Peggy Strupcewski, Secretary; Bernard Cawley, Treasurer.

Edith Nelson, this year's president, thanked all members of the club for their excellent cooperation in making the past year's program a success.

SINFONIA

Phi Mu held its formal initiation on May 15 at the Colonial Hotel. The following were received into the fraternity: Robert Griffith, John Milaukas, and Edward Zabosky. Also the organization's annual picnic was held on May 11 at the farm of Don Green, graduated member of the Fraternity.

The Fraternity will organize next year with the following as officers: President, Jack Pearson; Vice President, Kenneth MacDonald; Secretary, Blaine Ballard; Treasurer, Walter Thomas; Warden, Gerlad Darrow; Historian, Donald Prince.

OMICRON GAMMA PI

Four girls attended the state regional meeting of the American Home Economics Association at Pittsburgh on May 2 and 3. They were: Catherine Williams, Myra Lex, Patricia Case, Mary Kimble, accompanied by Mrs. Lilyan Gaibraith. On May 13, Omicron held a farewell party. Girls who were eligible for A.H.E.A. pins received them, and the seniors who joined A.H.E.A. received cards of membership. Installation of new officers for 1952-53 was conducted for the following: Barbara Keller, president; Dawn Van Doren, Vice-president; Jane Anderson, Secretary; Doris Weaver, Treasurer; Province Workshop, Dorothy McCabe.

“Mounts” Drop Opener, 13-2

The Mansfield Mountaineers dropped their 1952 baseball opener to a stronger Bloomsburg nine, by a one-sided score of 13-2. The game was played in the winner's field. The “Mounts” had 10 hits, but they could not put them together and cause trouble for the opponents. Loose fielding by the “Mounts” was the deciding factor in the final score as the winners were out-hit 10-9. Wilcox was the losing pitcher.

M.S.T.C. Batters Lycoming, 12-10

Mansfield State Teachers College jumped into the win column by battering the Lycoming Warriors 12-10 in a wild affair that was played at Williamsport, Pa.

The “Mounts” attack was led by B. Maxson, “Scooter” George, and Johnny Lewis, each getting three hits. Shep had two hits. Bobby Maxson batted in 3 runs, while “Scooter,” “Red” Callaghan, and Shep knocked in two runs apiece.

Wilcox was the starting and winning pitcher, but he had to be relieved by freshman Don Pieri, who made his debut on the mound. His debut was a successful one too. He have up just one hit in his two inning stint.

Mansfield out-hit Lycoming 18-13. Many errors marred the free-hitting contest.

Lock Haven Wins Over “Mounts” 6-4

Mansfield dropped a close game to Lock Haven in a 10-inning battle. Before a nice crowd at Smythe Park, the “Mountaineers” lost a pitchers’ battle 6 to 4, to Lock Haven. Dick Wilcox started on the hill for Mansfield, but had to be relieved after the second inning, by Don Pieri, because of a sore arm. Mansfield scored single tallies in the first and fourth innings and two in the eighth for four runs. Lock Haven scored 1 in the second, 1 in the third, 2 in the fifth, and 2 more in the 10th.

Don Pieri and Bill Creasy booked up an old fashioned pitchers’ battle. Pieri struck out 6 while Creasy struck out 7. Lock Haven scored their final two runs on a triple by Crook and a homer by Everett. “Red” Callahan with 3 hits, and “Timmy” Cheplick with 2 hits, featured the hitting attack for Mansfield.

Mansfield Slams Lycoming, 11-6

The Mansfield “Mountaineers” gained their second victory of the season by downing Lycoming by an overwhelming score of 11 to 6. The “Mounts” slammed out 10 hits against the Lycoming nine. John Lewis, a second semester freshman, and Nate “Pappy” George paced the Mansfield hitting attack with two hits each. John Lewis hit a home run and a double, driving in six runs. Nate George clubbed out a triple and a double. Lycoming drew first blood by denting the plate with a run in the first inning. The “Mounts” added 7 more runs in the fifth on 7 hits. Lycoming scored twice in the top half of the sixth on one hit. Mansfield scored another single tally in the bottom half of the sixth. Lycoming scored 3 more runs in the top half of the seventh to complete the scoring.

SPORTS SPUTTERS

Hi there, sports fans,

We're just about at the end of the year here at M.S.T.C., so this writer will give you a short recap on what happened during the past nine months in the sports department.

FOOTBALL

Way back in September about 35 huskies reported to Coaches Casey and Rushin, and five of them were ineligible because of Intercollegiate rules. The coaches then proceeded to round out a scrappy outfit. The boys weren't big, but they were full of spirit and moxie. They didn't have a winning team, but every opponent had to fight hard all the way before the “Mounts” went down to defeat. The worst defeat suffered by the “Mountaineers” was the last one against Millersville, 28-13. By the time this game rolled around our little squad was riddled with many injuries.

Season's results: Mansfield—2, opponents—5. Statewide honor was bestowed upon Len Zanowicz and Paul Shepanski, who received honorable mention in the all-Teachers team.

BASKETBALL

The squad was built around 10 returning lettermen. Once again the coaches put out a team full of fight. The main factor that kept the team from winning was the lack of height. Bobby Maxson and Hank Goodman led the team in the scoring department.

Season's results: Mansfield—7, opponents—11.

BASEBALL

With 8 experienced men returning, the “Mounts” were looking forward to a successful season. At this writing the Mansfield nine copped two of their first 5 games. Both of these victories were over Lycoming by scores of 12-10 and 11-6.

Freshman John Lewis, Montrose, Pa., sparked the team in the second Lycoming game, getting a double and a home run with the bases loaded each time.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL

The Korean Kids copped the straight season championship, winning all 14 games. The All-Stars, Jr. Birdmen, and the Y's Guys defeated the All-Stars in the Round Robin Tournament.

INTRAMURAL BOWLING

The men's bowling league was cut down to four teams this year. There were six last year. The averages were much higher this year than last. Stepkovitch's Sizzlers dethroned last year's champs, The Bowles Blossoms, on the final night of the regular season. Both teams had been tied going into that final match. Step's five really sizzled, taking high team single and high team three games from the Blossoms. Zastavny's squad, led by Jim Maginsky, came through with a fast finish but could do no better than third place. And so that's the way the picture looked during the past school year.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Chas. Silvick was unanimously voted president of the “Grop Club”?

Did you ever try to figure out how some of the fellows around campus got their nickname? Here are some of them: Fish, Moose, Soddy, Putts, Potatoes, Whip, and Judy.

It was good to see such ex-performers at Mansfield as Carl McIntyre, who is teaching and coaching in Baltimore; Bill Keating, Marines; Joe “Sam” Sebastian, teaching in Wilkes-Barre; and Ray Mazza.

Here is some info on some more of the ex-athletes who performed at this institution: Francis Bradshaw, Army; Bill Copwell, teaching indoctrination courses at Ft. Belvoir; Joe Harrington, working for a credit company in Allentown (Joe was All-State Teachers' College); Joe Katuscz, teaching in Baltimore; “Jesse” Moresco and Tony Petrillo, teaching and coaching in Canisteo, N. Y.; Andy Semko, teaching in N. Y.

M CLUB

At a recent meeting, the M Club held their annual elections for officers for 1952-53. Following are the men who will preside in office: President, Ted Strein; Vice-president, Dick Wilcox; Secretary, Larry Callaghan; Treasurer, Bert Ruegg.

SO LONG, SENIORS

This column would like to wish all of the graduating seniors who participated in sports this year, all of the luck in the world: Ed Mollahan, Bobby Lieb, Pat Fischetti, Paul Shepanski, Len Zanowicz, Don Mahon, Jim Brown, Nate George, Bobby Maxson, Hank Goodman, Tom Cheplick, Don Moore, and Larry Callaghan.

Well, this just about winds up the sports news here at M.S.T.C. It was a pleasure writing up news about our teams for you to read. Remember, “If you can't be a booster, don't be a knocker.” So long for now. See you next year.

Ithaca Downs Mansfield, 8-6

The Mansfield “Mountaineers” dropped a tough ball game to the Ithaca College team by an 8-6 decision.

The Ithaca team had just previously finished a month's tour down south.

The “Mounts” started off as if they were going to drive Ithaca right off the field. The first three men up for Mansfield hit three singles good for one run off Pitcher Clyde Mykysz of Ithaca. Ithaca came right back and scored 3 runs off Paul Shepanski. Their three runs came on 2 hits mixed with 3 walks good for 3 runs.

Ithaca added to their lead in the bottom half of the third inning, getting 4 hits good for 3 runs. The score at the end of three innings stood 6 to 1 in favor of Ithaca.

Mansfield closed the gap a little in the top half of the fourth, getting 2 runs to make the score stand at 6 to 3. Mansfield added a run in the top half of the eighth, score 6 to 4. Ithaca scored in the bottom half of the inning, getting 5 hits good for two runs. In a last ditch stand Mansfield got back two runs in the top half of the ninth. The final score read Ithaca, 8, Mansfield, 6. Mansfield gathered 12 hits good for 6 runs, while Ithaca gathered 13 hits good for 8 runs.

Talking Ten Pins

The bowling season finished up with much success. John Stepkovitch and Company dethroned last year's champions, the Bowles Blossoms, on the last night of the bowling season. The winners were led by Paul Piatkowski, who rolled his season's high of 204 and 506. Step chipped in with a 193 single and Stu Zimmerman had a 456 series. Bowles led the runner-ups with a 546 series. Bernie Cawley and George Tubbs had 409 and 407, respectively. Jim Maginsky finished up as the hottest bowler in the league, picking up his average 17 points, 141 to 158 in the last 11 games. Piatkowski shot his average up 11 points in the final 11 games. Following are the statistics of the 1951-52 bowling season:

Team standings:

The annual picnic of the Women's Athletic Association was held as the last meeting on Wednesday, May 7, at Smythe Park. Refreshments were served and there were games and activities for the club members. The end of the badminton tournament finds Nadine Davidheiser as singles champion and Charlotte Peeke, the runner-up. In the doubles, Catherine Prouty and Nadine Davidheiser finished in first place, and Charlotte Peeke and Barbara Keller finished in second place.

There were eight teams entered in the softball tournament with the teams of Weaver, Lee, Austin and Pingor entering the play-offs.

Keneske's bowling team carried away top honors in the play-offs with Clossin's team in second place. Members of the winning bowling team are: Karol Keneske, Dawn Van Doren, Doris Weaver, Shirley Conrad, Sue Sutton, Grace Holcomb and Patsy Shimer. The runners-up were Eppie Clossen, Lois Owens, Kitty Williams, June Wertz, Charlotte Peeke, and Barbara Keller. High single game score was bowled by Patsy Edgar with 165, followed by Barbara Keller with 163, and Charlotte Peeke, with 160. High Single game team laurels go to runner-up Clossen with 607, and Keneske following with 602.

Free Movies Passes

Mr. William Taylor, manager of the Twain Theatre, extended two complimentary passes to the Seniors to be used from May 12 to 20, inclusive. Mr. Taylor wishes to express his appreciation to the graduating class for their patronage during their four years at Mansfield.

The college would like to express its thanks to Mr. Taylor for his co-operation and courtesy in bringing to it many of the best movies available. It is also grateful for his help in supplying it with the films shown in Straughn Hall.

New Books in Library

The new system that has been initiated into the library in regard to Rental Books is working exceedingly well. Under this new system, the library has been able to purchase several new books, including THE SEA AROUND US, by R. L. Carson; AT HOME IN THE WOODS, by Ainger; and DARK MOMENT, by Ann Bridge.

Many book lovers have been sharing their collections by giving to the library some of the current best sellers. The library is grateful for all gifts and wishes to thank all of those individuals that have made contributions. Among the books received as gifts are: WINDS OF MORNING, by Davis; MITTEE, by Daphne Rooke; MOSES, by Solem Asch; THE BLESSING, by N. Mitford; ADVENTURE IN TWO WORLDS, by A. J. Cronin; MY COUSIN RACHEL, by Daphne du Maurier; MELVILLE GOODWYN, USA, by Marquard; and the Readers Digest Condensed Book, which includes shortened versions of some of the above stories.

MY COUSIN RACHEL—Daphne du Maurier

The scene—Italy. The setting—eighteenth century. Those who delighted in Rebecca will be enchanted with Miss Du Maurier's new book. Close-ups, fade-ins, sequences by candlelight or long shots are all in the script. Little is left to the imagination. Highly recommended.

DARK MOMENT—Ann Bridge.

A book that breathes the authentic Turkish atmosphere, relives the past, and brings to light true Turkish history. Excellent.

MITTEE—Daphne Rooke

The story is told by a savage girl, servant to the exciting white heroine. There is violence, murder, love, and war, all within this breathtaking book. The language is like music. Excellent.

The library hopes to purchase many new books this summer. It is hoped that the rental collection will be filled with the current best-sellers when you return for the fall semester.

So until next fall, when we hope to see you browsing through the library, we take this opportunity to wish you all a pleasant summer vacation.

Musical Merry-Go-Round

Junior and Senior students of the College Music Department presented a recital on Friday evening, May 2. The program was varied in content and very well received by the audience.

The last promenade recital of the semester was presented by students of the music department in Straughn Auditorium on May 5. The program consisted of piano and vocal music and was well received by the faculty and students present.

A group of original compositions by Junior members of the Music Department were presented on May 14. The compositions were chosen from works composed for Mr. Husted's course in free composition. The compositions ranged from solos to pieces for Woodwind Group and chorus.

A group of operatic excerpts will be presented on the evening of Alumni Day in Straughn Hall. The program will offer scenes from certain representative opera in the conventional opera repertoire. The complete program is under the direction of the Opera Workshop. The Workshop, with the assistance of interested faculty members, is maintained not only to foster an interest in opera, but to provide an organization which will give those interested not only in singing, but in producing and coaching opera performances. Scenes will all be given in English translation.

The Mansfield College Concert Band will present the Annual Baccalaureate Concert on Sunday, May 25, at 3:00 in Straughn Hall. This concert concludes the many activities the band participated in this year. Following a very successful football season, the Marching Band merged into the Concert Band, which gave a total of six concerts throughout the year. Two of these concerts were given in Williamsport. However, the activities were not confined at home, for Blaine Ballard, Robert Chamberlain, Luther Hoffman, Kenneth Macdonald, Albert Orzechowski, Vince Stepulis, and Onalee Swan represented Mansfield in the Inter-Collegiate Band Festival held at Penn State. The Band was under the direction of Dr. William Revelli, director of the Michigan University Band.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Conson, of Lynchburg, Virginia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to John Reese, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John J. Reese, of Blossburg. The couple will be married in Lynchburg in June.

Miss Conson, an alumnae of Randolph-Macon College, received her Master of Arts degree from George Peabody College for teachers.

Mr. Reese was graduated from Mansfield State Teachers College and expects to receive his Master in Science degree from the Department of Industrial Education, New York State School of Industrial and Labor Relations, Cornell University, this spring.

College Players

On April 26, fifty members and guests of College Players attended the annual banquet at the Penn-Wells Hotel, Wellsboro. Following the dinner, President Charles Dempsey led group singing and introduced the 1952-53 officers. They are Eric Hughes, President; Robert Long, Vice-President; Betty Slocum, Treasurer; Carol Wagner, Secretary; Ed. Brainard, Historian. Further entertainment was provided by Eric Hughes, Donna Jones, and Robert Long.

Miss Elizabeth Allen, who this year is completing ten years as adviser of College Players, presented Alpha Psi Omega plaques to those people initiated into the fraternity this year. Miss Drum gave a brief account of her association with College Players. Guests for the evening included Dean Jackson, Dean Fosberry, and Miss Marion Gieckler.

Faculty News

Two members of our Art Department, Miss Kathryn Royer and Mr. Stephen Bencetic, have attended two Art Conventions during the month. The Eastern Arts Convention which met in Atlantic City from April 16-19 and the New York State Teachers Art Association held in Elmira on May 3rd. They report that both meetings were very worthwhile.

Mr. George Langdon, recently made a trip to Clark University, Worcester, Mass., to defend his Ph.D. dissertation in the oral examination. The examining committee consisted of five specialists in the graduate school. They recommended Mr. Langdon for graduation at the coming commencement at the end of this semester, June 8, 1952.

Sophomore Talent Show

The Sophomore Talent Show, under the direction of Robert English, was presented on May 9, 1952, at eight o'clock in Straughn Auditorium. The main theme for the program was a "U.S.O. Show". The program opened with two soldiers talking about the rehearsal of the show. The band played a number as the curtain opened and the chorus sang an opening selection, "Hi Neighbor".

The rest of the program for the show was as follows: accordion solo, "Glow Worm," by Florence Dunbar; a selection by the Trombone Trio composed of Jerry Foust, Pat Gallagher, and Bob Griffiths; vocal solo, "Night and Day," by Mary Louise Johnson; piano solo, "Lover," by Bill Bailey; vocal solo, "Dancing in the Dark," by Doris Reigle; selections of band numbers; vocal duet, "Make Believe," by Alice Forsythe and Bob Benson; monologue by Audrey Miller; vocal solo by Bob Bowersox; tap dance "Tea for Two," by Dawn Van Doren; vocal solo, "With a Song in My Heart," by Pat Feig; a trumpet trio, Bob English, Charles Nieman, Gene Welliver; and a final selection by the band.

The chairman wishes to express his thanks to all those who cooperated in making the show a success.

Kappa Delta Pi

The Beta Rho Chapter held its annual banquet in the Methodist Church Annex Wednesday, April 30, at 6:30 p.m. Guests of the organization for the occasion were: President and Mrs. Morgan, Dean and Mrs. Manser, and Dean and Mrs. Long.

The program of the evening included: a welcome to all attending by President, Thomas Santiso, an accounting of their trip to the National Biennial Convocation of Kappa Delta Pi in Michigan by John Maclean and Thomas Santiso, musical entertainment provided by a trio consisting of Bernice Britton, Ada Mae Frailey, and Dawn Peechatka, accompanied at the piano by Barbara Long, and a piano solo by Richard Thorne, amusing experiences of practice teaching by Gloria Benfer, Susan Potter, Robert Rodine, Ellen Spencer, and Richard Stone.

A more serious event of the evening was the installation of officers. The 1952-53 officers are as follows: President, Joseph Dandois; Vice-President, Gerald Darrow; Treasurer, Bernice Britton; Recording Secretary, Marie Freeman; Corresponding Secretary, Barbara Long.

Paging Personalities

Open Letter to the Senior Class:

Dear Seniors,

Your presence on our campus will be greatly missed next year, but our loss of good students becomes society's gain of good citizens. In whatever each and all of you undertake, the student body wishes you success and happiness. The personalities and contributions of the members of the senior class will not be forgotten and a sincere welcome will always be waiting for returning visitors.

PAGING PERSONALITIES has received an announcement of the birth of a son, James Ross Douglas to Mr. and Mrs. Al Douglas, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Douglas is the former Joanne James.

Preview of Things to Come:

The engagement of Miss Doris Peet, R. N., to Malcolm Neily, a junior enrolled in the secondary curriculum, warrants many wishes of happiness to the couple. The marriage will take place May 31, 1952. "Engaged to be engaged" or using the college term, "pinned," are: Diane Sloat to David Davis—Kappa Sigma, Lafayette College.

Peggy Lindgren to Jack Darr—Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia—M.S.T.C.

On April 12, 1952, Miss Jeanne Howells became Mrs. Allen Reed. Best wishes for the future to you, Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO FACULTY

With the beginning of the fall term, several new members were placed on the faculty list of Mansfield State Teachers College. To acquaint the student body with these new instructors, we present a biographical sketch of each one.

Mr. George P. Bluhm, new supervisor of social studies in the Campus Junior High School, is a resident of Renova, Penna. He received his degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at Lock Haven State Teachers College and his degree of Master of Education at Penn State, where he has also done other graduate work. He has been active on curriculum committees for the state and in the P.S.E.A. He is former president of the Central Convention of Social Studies.

Mr. Daniel Border, new head of choral work in the Music Dept., is a resident of Johnstown, Penna. He received his degree of Bachelor of Science in Music Education at Indiana State Teachers College and his degree of Master of Music Education at the Teachers College of Columbia University, where he also has done additional graduate work. He is especially interested in choral methods for children and has done a great deal of work along this line, particularly with young boys.

Mr. John H. Manning, supervisor of mathematics in the Campus Junior High School, is a resident of Lebanon, Penna. He received his degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education at Oakland City College, Indiana, and his degree of Master of Arts in Education at the University of Cincinnati. He has also done additional graduate work at Penn State, and is greatly interested in athletics in education.

Miss Ellen E. Murphy, new supervisor of English at the Campus Junior High School, is a resident of Wyalusing, Penna. She received her degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at Syracuse University. While doing her graduate work she was graduate assistant to Dr. Helene W. Hantley in the field of Teacher Preparation at Syracuse University.

Student Governing Bodies Hold Joint Retreat

On Saturday, September 6, the Student Council met with the Men and Women's Dormitory Councils at Colton Point to discuss problems of the coming school year and to try to prepare some ideas concerning the solution of these problems. President Morgan, Dean Jackson, and Dean Long were also present. The meeting was opened by Student Council President, John McLean. Key-note speaker was Al Wagner, Vice-President of the Student Council. The main points mentioned by Al were:

1. students should be encouraged to participate more in student meetings
2. leaders should co-operate in enforcing campus rules
3. students should develop more school spirit
4. behavior of students in the wells should be improved.

Other school problems were discussed which have not yet been settled. President Morgan spoke a few words to the group. The meeting was followed by a picnic supper.

This was the first retreat ever held at M.S.T.C. and was completely successful. Everyone took an active part in discussing the main issues of the year. We have three fine Student Government groups this year. It is hoped that the student body will follow their lead and co-operate in making 1952-53 the most successful year M.S.T.C. has ever had.

An Introduction To M. S. T. C.

Many of us take the history, buildings, and progress of Mansfield for granted. However, with this issue of the Flashlight we'd like to renew in your minds just what there is to our history that makes M.S.T.C. outstanding.

Our beginning was in the year 1854 when a group of prominent citizens

HIGHLIGHT OF RELIGION-IN-LIFE WEEK

Religion-In-Life Week will be observed at the college November 2-6. The program this year will be bigger than anything of this type ever attempted on our campus. For many months it has been discussed, organized, planned and replanned. More than 100 students and members of the faculty and administration have been and are now contributing of their time and talent to whip it into shape.

Mansfield State Teachers College is one of 25 colleges and universities chosen, this year, for a religious emphasis program under the guidance of the University Christian Mission. The program is sponsored by the University Christian Mission, The Student Christian Association, and the Newman Club. A team of outstanding specialists in the field of religious activity will be sent to our campus by the University Christian Mission. They are:

Dr. Ira Langston, of the Park Avenue Christian Church, New York, a well-known lecturer, editor, and world traveler.

Dr. Frank Littell, Dean of Chapel at Boston University, and recently director of religious and cultural affairs under the State Department in Germany.

Mr. Robert James, the Regional Secretary of the Student Christian Movement for the Middle Atlantic Region.

These leaders will be joined by: The Reverend Rudolph Harvey, O.F.M., Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy at St. Bonaventure University.

Students will not only be able to hear these men speak, but will also have a chance to talk with them in personal conferences, seminars, "bull sessions", and classroom discussions.

Ira W. Langston

Mr. Langston was ordained in 1932 at Hood Memorial Church, Dunn, N. C. by his father.

He graduated and got his B. Z. from Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N. C., in 1933.

He spent two years at Vanderbilt University School of Religion completing the requirements for the B. D. degree except for the theses. During that time he gave a great deal of time to music—radio and concert choral work.

In 1934 he accepted a Call to the First Christian Church in Cadiz, Ky. working there during a good part of his second year at Vanderbilt.

In 1936 he accepted a position with Eureka College in Eureka, Ill., as Director of Public Relations. He was there three years.

In 1939 he went to Transylvania College in Lexington, Ky., as Assistant to the President. After one year he resigned to come to New York to do a year's work at Union Theological Seminary and to work with Doctor Idleman at Central Christian Church.

In 1941 he received his B. D. degree from Union and the call to the full ministry of Central Church. This is now known as Park Avenue Christian Church, and Mr. Langston is still its minister.

He is a member of several committees of the World Council and National Council of Churches.

He went to the World Council Assembly at Amsterdam, 1948 as an Accredited Visitor of the Disciples of Christ Convention.

1951 he toured in Greece, Egypt, Jordan, Israel, Southern Europe.

He is President of the East Midtown Ministers Assn. in New York City.

He was one of the founders and was President of the Committee for a Foundation for Cerebral Palsy and is now Hon. President of the Cerebral Palsy Society of New York.

He is a member of the Board of Trustees of Ward College, Argentina, and is a Lecturer, Union Theological Seminary, N. Y.; the Editor of THE FORWARD, Park Avenue Christian Church; a contributor to Brotherhood journals of the Disciples of Christ, and other religious journals; a regular preacher on ten networks, radio and television, under the auspices of the National Council of Churches; and a member of Chi Alpha.

PARENTS TO BE HONORED AT M.S.T.C.

Saturday, October 11, 1952, has been set aside as Parent's Day on our campus. The activities for the day are planned for the enjoyment of parents, students, and faculty.

The program for the day is as follows:

10:30 a. m.—1:30 p. m.—Registration for Parents in second floor foyer of North Hall.

11:30 a. m.—12:30 p. m.—Luncheon in College Dining Room.

12:30 p. m.—1:30 p. m.—Tour of Arts Building, Straughn Hall and Gymnasium.

2:00 p. m.—Football Game at Smythe Park: Kings College Vs. M.S.T.C.

4:30 p. m.—5:30 p. m.—Coffee hour in Arts Building for parents, faculty, and students in Room 207.

The main event of the day will be the Junior Talent Show at 8 p. m. in Straughn Auditorium under the direction of Myron Wartella. The main theme of the show will revolve about M.S.T.V. An evening of enjoyable entertainment has been planned for all.

Immediately after the talent show there will be an informal dance in the Student Center.

General Advisor for Parents Day is Miss Jackson. The co-chairmen are: Mary Konsko and Bob Benson.

The chairmen of the various committees are:

Registration, Barbara Scott
Posters, Mary Ruth Squire
Tour, Vince Williams
Parents' Badges, Louise Pier
Dance, Jack Griffith
Miscellaneous, Ruth Hunter
Dining Room, Ann Louise Rorar
Coffee Hour, Ethel Berger, Marilyn Ruth, Eleanor Johnson, Adv.

Upon registering each parent will receive a badge which will entitle him to be admitted to the football game and the talent show as a guest of the college.

The students and faculty wish to extend a warm welcome to all parents who will be visiting on campus during this weekend.

Mr. Richard Wilson

Wilson Replaces Retan

The vacancy created by the retirement of Dr. Retan, head of the Elementary Department, Teacher Placement Service and Student Teachers, has been filled by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Hunsicker. Mr. Hunsicker has taken over the supervising of elementary education in the campus Elementary School. He was formerly Assistant to Dr. Retan, Mr. Wilson, formerly Supervisor of Social Studies in the Junior High School, is in charge of Teacher Placement and student teachers.

Mr. Wilson stated that he and the supervisors are there to help the student teacher adjust himself to the classroom and teaching, and if he, the student, has any questions, he should ask them. He also stated that the Administration looks upon student teaching as the most important phase of a student's college career and the student should look upon it as such. He commended the student teachers on their excellent appearance when teaching and hoped that they would continue to hold pride in their appearance.

IS "GETTING BY" ENOUGH?

Student attitudes toward college are numerous and of varied natures. Some student attitudes would seem to convey the impression, "Well, now I am here, just try to do something with me." Such students are prone to be lazy, uncooperative and lack the necessary motivating force to carry them very far in the process of becoming an educated person. These are the persons who fritter away the most valuable hours of the day in the numerous ways in which the poor student simply wastes time. These are the students who do not plan their study hours, whose rooms are scattered with comic books and cheap literature. As examination time approaches such students frantically write "crib sheets" or try in devious ways to secure advance copies of examination questions. These are the students who serve notice on their instructors that they will do as little as possible and be content to crawl through college with the lowest possible grades. This attitude toward college is often expressed in these words, "Oh, that's good enough." This is another way of expressing the attitude of "getting by". It is a way of measuring results by a stop watch or by the amount of effort some one else puts forth. The lamentable fact about the philosophy of "getting by" is that it often becomes a permanent habit and those who have become victims of it never have an opportunity to learn that life is infinitely much richer and more noble when it is lived at a high level. The conscientious and strongly motivated student will not be content until he can say with conviction "I have done my best". It is he who truly experiences the warm feeling of satisfaction that comes when a task is well done. The student who "gets by" never experiences this.

No life is ever lived at a high level or ever grows great until it is dedicated and disciplined. One of the widest gaps in a student's experience is the gap between what he says he wants to be and his willingness to discipline himself to arrive at his objective. The price paid for self-realization is always self-discipline. The roots of a self-disciplined character are profoundly spiritual faith that there are values to which one may be dedicated and faith that there are ends worthy of self-discipline.

—Samuel M. Long, Dean of Men.

THE TEACHING OF VALUES

Technical progress can only exceed moral and spiritual advancement dangerously. And it has been happening here. We must place more emphasis upon the teaching of values.

Education is composed of two parts: Technology (defined to include all crafts and skills) and attitudes, both moral and spiritual. Religion is also composed of two parts: the relation of man to God, and the relation of man to man. Education's moral attitudes and religion's man to man relationship are the same thing, and a part of education's spiritual attitudes and religion's man to God relationship correspond. Certainly with these common elements education and religion can work together.

Even our revered doctrine of separation of church and state does not prevent their mutual aid. They have long held common beliefs in the inherent value of every human being, the serventile position of all institutions, common consent rather than violence, and many others. That doctrine of separation is aimed at keeping the interpretation of divinity out of the schools, not the assistance religion can afford.

Religion may be used as a sanction for the moral and spiritual values our schools present.

The values that religion gives may be used as an integrating force among the many courses our schools offer.

The problem of how values are to be presented remains. First, they should be stated as one of the prime aims of the schools. Secondly, because an isolated course in values would tend to make them artificial and because values must permeate all of life, they should be taught everywhere that learning occurs. The teaching of values then becomes the duty of every teacher from athletics to mathematics.

And to teach values, you must possess them.

—Clarence Whetstone.

Kappa Phi

The members of Kappa Phi had their first informal meeting on Sept. 30, 1952. This event was held for all freshmen and upper classmen interested in joining the club. The first formal meeting will be held on Oct. 13, 1952, at eight p. m. in the social rooms of the Methodist Church. The sponsors of Kappa Phi are Mrs. Jay Foreman and Mrs. Samuel Long.

Newman Club

During March of the last college year, plans were formed and carried out for the establishment of a Newman Club for the Catholic students at Mansfield. The Newman Club is an affiliate of the National Newman Club Federation, which has member clubs in over 200 secular colleges in the United States. The organization is named in honor of John Henry Cardinal Newman, 19th century English scholar.

Officers for the 1952-53 college year were elected. The officers are as follows: George Petrillo, president; Anthony Roan, vice-president; Josephine Ascenzi, recording secretary; Irene Prokopowicz, corresponding secretary; Martin Murray, treasurer; Chaplain—Rev. Gerald Canavan.

Mr. Stephen Bencetic is faculty adviser and was in charge of formulating plans for the club here at Mansfield.

Activities planned for the ensuing year consist of a retreat, communion breakfasts, speakers, and business and social meetings. A choir under the direction of Pat Gallagher has also been formed.

The Newman Club strives for religious, intellectual and social development for its members.

Knickerbocker Quartet Appears on Arthur Godfrey Show

The Knickerbocker Quartet, comprised of Blaine Ballard, Ben Evans, Gerald Darrow and Harley Rex, spent a very successful summer season working at hidden Valley Ranch in the Adirondack Mountains, one of America's most popular summer resorts. As a climax to their season of performing, the Knickerbockers appeared on the Arthur Godfrey Talent Show on CBS and Television. After visiting New York for an audition for the show the boys were asked to appear on August 25.

On the show, the quartet placed a very successful second, and returned to Hidden Valley to complete their summer's work.

Three of the boys have returned for their senior year here at Mansfield and Harley Rex has enrolled as a graduate student at Michigan State. The quartet has added a new member to their playing outfit and are currently appearing at the Antler's Inn just this side of Galeton.

Faculty News

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard K. Beyer spent their summer on a tour of European countries. They sailed aboard the Queen Mary and during their stay visited France, England, Italy, Switzerland and Germany. Mr. Beyer devoted some of the time in following his nature interests.

Miss Lorene Habeger and Miss Rea Steele toured parts of Mexico during July and August. While in Mexico they both attended the University of Michoacan located at Morelia.

Miss Ruth Hughes traveled for a period of about five weeks, visiting Williamsburg, Virginia, the White Mountains and the Smokey Mountains. Also during the course of the summer Miss Hughes attended a workshop of the Association of Student Teachers which was held in the Ozarks.

Miss Mildred Grigsby, Miss Elizabeth Stalford, Miss Jessie Grigsby and Miss Farrer visited Mackinac Island, and Manitoulin Island.

Mrs. Bennett visited the New England area, a Great Lakes region and California.

It is always interesting to find that teachers still get an opportunity to sit on the other side of the lecture desk, that they too have to worry about tests, point-averages, etc. In our Music Dept., this summer reversal is not the exception, however. Mr. Jack Little, piano instructor, has spent a considerable number of his summers studying at Eastman School in Rochester. Mr. Ben Husted, theory instructor, has been taking graduate work at Eastman also. Mr. Bert Francis, band director, has been doing work at Penn State. Mr. John Doyle, piano instructor, took courses at N.Y.U. this past summer. And Mrs. Lewis, voice teacher, spent her summer in Como, Italy, where she studied voice.

Among those in other departments attending summer sessions were: Mr. Stephen Bencetic, Penn State; Mr. Clarence Hunsicker, Penn State; Miss Helen Dieffenbach, Indiana University; Miss Kathryn Royer, Penn State; Miss Elizabeth Allen, Columbia; Miss Wareham, Penn State.

Mrs. Lilyan Galbraith attended a state meeting of the Pennsylvania Home Economics Association, September 27, at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia. On October 10, Mrs. Galbraith will attend the convention of the central district of the P.S.E.A. in Williamsport. She is chairman of the homemaking section.

During the summer Miss Melinda Fiat, an instructor in the Home Economics Department, toured South America with the N.E.A. group. The group consisted of eighteen members representing nine different states. This same group toured the United States, Central America, Canadian North West, Gaspé Peninsula, Hawaii and Europe. The tour lasted forty-five days and covered approximately fifteen thousand miles.

Miss Fiat thought the most interesting part of her visit was the six day circle trip out of Lima, Peru. On this trip she visited Cusco, Machu Picchu, Pisac, Lake Titicaca and Arequipa. Arriving in Buenos Aires two days after Eva Peron died, and visiting the bier, proved to be the most historical section of the tour.

While in Buenos Aires, Miss Fiat visited with Laura Eckroth who graduated from Mansfield two years ago in Home Economics and has been teaching in a mission school in Rosario, Argentina. The length of the visit was shortened because of restrictions arising from the death of Eva Peron.

Some changes have been made in the Home Economics faculty this year. Mrs. Elizabeth Morales is supervising the apartment girls and Mrs. Reba Bordner has charge of Junior High School Lunch and Family Health.

Assemblies and Movies

The Convocation of students and faculty by President Morgan was held in Straughn Hall on September eighteenth.

John McLean, president of the student council, presided over the assembly program for September twentieth. Mr. McLean introduced the campus organization leaders, who briefly told the student body about the organization on campus.

For the assembly program on September thirtieth, the Day Student Club presented a film.

A very fine and interesting talk on "World Affairs" was given by John C. Metcalfe for the assembly program on Oct. seventh.

"A Place in the Sun", adapted from the famous novel, "An American Tragedy" was presented in Straughn Hall, September twelfth. This movie is a very fine presentation starring Elizabeth Taylor and Montgomery Clift.

"Room for One More" starring Cary Grant and Betsy Drake, was the movie elected for September twentieth. It is an amusing story on child psychology. "Distant Drums," starring Gary Cooper, was enjoyed by the students and faculty on September twentieth.

"David and Bathsheba", adapted from the famous Bible story, was presented in Straughn Hall on October third.

"The First Time", a delightful film, will be shown in the auditorium on October tenth.

"Oliver Twist", a good adaptation of the famous novel by Charles Dickens will be presented on October twenty-fourth. The story, an attack on the social condition of the day, is played on the screen by an all-English cast.

Mountaineers' Co-Captains

Clyde "Soddy" Miller hails from Duncannon, Pennsylvania, where he played four years of football for the local high school.

One of Mansfield's fastest ball carriers, Miller has been in the varsity line-up for two years, and has torn up a lot of sod in that time. "Soddy" appears in top form for 1952 and will give opponents plenty of worry.

Edward "Workhorse" Loos calls Dumont, New Jersey, his home and it was Pennsylvania's gain when he entered Mansfield State. Like Miller, Loos works in the backfield, but when the ball is snapped he doesn't remain there long, as evidenced by the fact that he was the team's leading ground gainer in 1951.

Coach Ed. Rushin expresses his pleasure in working with captains of such caliber.

—M.S.T.C. Press and Radio Guide, Prepared by public relations Office.

MR. ED. RUSHIN

Rushin Appointed Acting Coach

Pictured above is our recently appointed acting coach of Athletics Edward E. Rushin. Mr. Rushin is a native of Nanticoke, Pa., and received his educational and athletic training at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College and New York University. At Stroudsburg, Mr. Rushin was a three letter man, playing four years of varsity football, two years of basketball, and one year of baseball.

After receiving his degree at Stroudsburg in 1943, Mr. Rushin played a year of professional football with the San Francisco Clippers, San Francisco, Calif.

After working on the Physical Education Staff of Cornell University and serving three years as Chief Specialist in the United States Navy, he accepted a position as varsity backfield coach in football, and head coach in basketball at Sunbury High School. During his four years at Sunbury, his basketball team won two Susquehanna Valley League Basketball Championships and two runner-up positions in the district finals.

Besides his B. S. degree from Stroudsburg, Mr. Rushin received his Masters degree in Health and Physical Education from New York University, in 1948.

In a recent interview Mr. Rushin stated he has a team this year that has the will and desire to play good, hard football. There are nine returning lettermen, who will form the backbone of this year's eleven. In comparison with the past few years, when there were about thirty candidates for the team, this year there is a fifty-two man squad.

Mr. Rushin explained that he expected this year's team to be on a par with the teams in the past few years and that with his present squad, he has high hopes for future Mansfield teams.

W.A.A.

The Women's Athletic Association has begun this year's activities with the fall tennis tournament. 31 girls signed up for this tournament. Volleyball competition will follow at the end of October. October 8 is the tentative date for the first meeting of W. A. A., which will be a hot dog roast at Smythe Park.

Bloomsburg Downs Mansfield, 25-6

Bloomsburg State Teachers College was successful in subduing a lighter and less experienced Mansfield State Teachers College eleven at Bloomsburg, 25-6 on October 4.

A touchdown pass from John Kutney to Don Williams in the second period brought Mansfield to a 12-6 deficit, but two scoring threats failed in the third period.

The marching band, under the direction of Mr. Francis, the cheerleaders, and a bus load of thirty students accompanied the team, and supported them with enthusiastic cheering. The game was broadcast over the Corning station, W.C.B.A.

Mansfield State Teachers College Welcomes Freshmen

M. S. T. C. began its year of activities with the annual reception of the Freshmen. The 1952-1953 class, which boasts one hundred eighty-five members, was kept busy the first week by a variety of events.

The first activity was a Get-Acquainted Party in the Student Center, followed by a guided tour of the Campus. A picnic for the entire student body gave the new arrivals a chance to get their first full glimpse of the upper-classmen, as well as of the faculty. Later they were given the opportunity to meet the various local clergymen and to attend meetings of their choice.

The climax to Freshmen Week was the formal Faculty Reception at the Gym on Saturday, Sept. 13. Sunday afternoon the girls became even better acquainted at the Big and Little Sister Tea, which was held in the Reception Room.

The week of initiation for the Freshman Class began with a pajama parade through Mansfield borough. This parade was led by majorettes and a band composed of members of the Freshman Class. During the week, two special initiation programs were held in the Student Center.

The upper classmen and faculty wish to extend a welcome to the freshmen and to thank them for their cooperation during initiation.

Letter To a Freshman

The following is the text of a letter, sent by a local man to his son in college:

"Dear Son,
"I realize, as your father, that I am something of a bore and old fogey. All fathers are bores and old fogeys to their sons at 18. When you have a son who is 18, you, too, will be a bore and old fogey, for youth in its colossal ignorance thinks it knows all there is. As you grow older and start getting sense, you will begin to realize how little you actually know.

"There is a great deal to be learned in this life. The smartest man living today, no matter who he is, is just an ignoramus. With thousands of fields, no man could hope to master them all. Most of us know too little about the ones we are in.

"A man does not begin to have intelligence until he admits his limitations, admits them at least to himself. That is the first sign of maturity.

"Never become so smart that you feel you don't need advice. The President of the United States, a powerful figure, has advisors. The Pope in Rome, a most gifted individual, has advisors. As a man who has been around more than you know, I seek advice often. Maybe you could use some, too, on occasion. It is possible.

"I suppose this kind of letter is not so stimulating as others you may receive. But like medicine that is not pleasant to take, it might do some good. As your father, I have an obligation to discharge. I must try to keep you from stubbing your toe until you learn to walk.

"No, I'm not crabbing. My purpose solely is to make you think, warn you about the pitfalls, to make it as easy as possible for you later on.

"I want you to get everything out of college you possibly can. Your mother mentioned something about your getting a part time job. I don't want you to do that. Spend that time on your books and in protecting your health. The finances are my responsibility. There will be time for making money—after you have your degree.

"Don't fritter away a single moment. You'll regret it if you do. Don't get me wrong: I am in favor of a legitimate amount of diversion and recreation, but if you are in doubt, devote the time to your studies. The only way to make the dean's list is to plug, and plug, and plug, and plug. And that also is the formula for success, as you'll learn in due time.

Dad."

"P. S. Enclosed find check."

Musical Merry-Go-Round

Community Orchestra Plans Eventful Year

The Mansfield Community Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Sigmund Michota, is being reorganized for its fourth annual season. However, judging from all present plans, this season will undoubtedly prove to be exceptional. This year will be the inauguration of a music scholarship, offered by the orchestra, applying to the Freshman Year at Mansfield. This scholarship is open to seniors: from the surrounding high schools who will compete, from now on, in the spring. The winner of the scholarship for this year has not yet been announced. The winner will have the opportunity to appear as soloist with the orchestra in the May Concert. Also, the orchestra will present three concerts this season. These will be on Sunday evenings, Dec. 7, March 22 and May 10. Incidentally, of rather we would say, not so incidentally, all of the concerts will be open to the public free of charge.

The Community Orchestra is a member of the American Symphony Orchestra League, Inc., an extensive national organization which is doing much to foster the furthering of serious music in suburban areas. The adult members are non-professionals to whom music-making represents an interesting avocational activity. They come from Mansfield, Troy, Tioga, Westfield, Knoxville, Gillet and Galeton to spend an evening together with the masters. The rest of the membership is made up of college students.

Marching Band Rehearsing Diligently

Industrial engineers advocate the playing of music in large industrial plants. The Mountaineer's may not be an industry, but they have music twice a week accompanying their drills, for the Mansfield College Marching Band has been rehearsing along side them since the beginning of school. This year, as always, before game and between halves, the 85 members of the marching band, under the direction of Mr. Bert Francis, will thrill the public by its playing and intricate drills, as it takes it place to glorify the Red and Black. Luther Hoffman is again drum major with Marsha Earley, Mary Konsko, Dorothy McCabe and Donald Berg as twirlers. Many Mountaineer fans await the chance to see and hear the band again this year and at the end of the season probably many more will look forward to the chance of seeing and hearing the band again next year. The band will play at all of the home games and some away games. "Forward—March."

Green Room Jottings

The College Players have chosen for their fall production the tensely exciting melodrama "Angel Street", by Patrick Hamilton. It is better known by the title "Gaslight". Adapted for the movies it starred Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer. Ever since it was first produced in this country about twelve years ago, it has remained one of the most popular of psychological mysteries. It is perennially produced by little theatre groups and college dramatic organizations. It is Mansfield's first mystery play since the performance of "The Night of January 16th" three years ago.

"Angel Street" comes off the top part of the theatre's top shelf," said the New York Times. Alexander Woolcott wrote, "Not in ten years at least have I seen an audience, including myself, so spellbound by a melodrama." It is "a masterpiece of suspense."

Cast in the extremely difficult role of the distraught Mrs. Manningham is Barbara Scott. This is Miss Scott's first role at Mansfield. In the role of Mrs. Manningham's sadistic and murderous husband is Eric Hughes, who was seen in "The Taming of the Shrew", "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and other Players' productions. Robert Long is playing Inspector Rough, the friendly and brusque police detective. Mr. Long has played in "Gramercy Ghost" "The Barretts of Wimpole Street", and other plays. Nancy, the cheeky servant girl, is being interpreted by Shirley Timmins. Miss Timmins, a cheerleader, is playing her first important role with the Players. Lois Long, the Players' make-up expert, is making her acting debut as Elizabeth, the amiable, sympathetic servant woman. Pat Gallagher and John Thomas are cast as plain clothemen. Peter Giorgi, who worked with the Corning Summer Theatre this past summer, is designing the set. Donna Jones is the Student Director.

Briefly, the story concerns the mysterious Mr. Manningham's attempts to drive his wife insane for no apparent reason. Soon Inspector Rough arrives on the scene with a very intriguing story concerning the huge gas-lit, Victorian mansion, Mr. Manningham and a murder.

For an evening of suspense, everyone is invited to attend the Players' performance of "Gaslight," Friday, November 21, in Straughn Auditorium.

Students Advised To Submit SSCQT Applications Now

Applications for the December 4, 1952, and the April 23, 1953, administrations of the College Qualification Test are now available at Selective Service System local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to offer this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service local board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately. Applications for the December 4 test must be postmarked no later than midnight, November 1, 1952.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once, regardless of the testing date he selects. The results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student.

PARENTS' DAY OLD TRADITION

One of the oldest customs on campus is Parents' Day. Having our parents assemble on campus at a time when we can honor them has a definite value. The success of the program is due to the work of a committee appointed by the Student Council appointed by the Student Council for the main event. Every year we are all very grateful to them for their efforts in perpetuating a tradition that dates back many years.

Day Students Present "Autumn Serenade"

The M. S. T. C. gymnasium was the scene of an Autumn Serenade on Sept. 27. Leaves of various shades were used as decorations for the entire dance area. Lattice work produced an outdoor effect. The ceiling and entrance were decorated with crepe paper of autumn colors. Corn stalks were placed in bundles at various places around the gym.

The chairmen responsible for this dance were: General Dance Chairman, Bob Day; Decorations, Eleanor Miller and Aubrey Dunn; Tickets Don Kelsey and Ralph Van Keuren; Refreshments, Chris Jaquish and Phil Cary; Publicity, Fred Davis. Music for the dance was furnished by the Esquires.

Religion-in-Life Week is a student program, planned by students, for student concerns, and in light of student needs.

Campus Organizations

Student Christian Association

The Student Christian Association held its yearly party for incoming Freshmen on September 13 in Smythe Park. Thelma DeVoe was chairman of the affair and Jerry Shipley was in charge of refreshments.

The first regular meeting of the SCA was held October 2 in the Arts Building. At this time the various commissions were introduced and their leaders explained how each one functioned. Commission heads for this year are as follows: Shirley Campbell, Personal and Campus Affairs; Joan Devine, Christian Faith and Heritage; Jean Robson, World Relatedness.

The program for the next three meetings in October will be under the direction of the commission members.

Beginning this year, Mr. Jay Foreman will be the new adviser to the men's section of the SCA; Mr. Foreman will take Mr. Clarence Mutchler's place. Dr. Mary Heltibridge is also adviser to the SCA.

Omicron Gamma Pi

Tomorrow evening the annual formal banquet of Omicron Gamma Pi will be held in the Presbyterian Church. The organization will have as its guests Mr. and Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Catherine Labach Stover, former president. During the evening Miss Barbara Keller, Miss Lois Owent and Miss Irene Weaver will tell about their trip to Atlantic City for the National Convention of A. H. E. A. Mrs. Morales and Mrs. Galbraith accompanied the girls to Atlantic City in June. As a part of the entertainment forty-four freshmen will be initiated into the organization. Miss Arlene Schaeffer is general chairman of the activity.

The organization has selected as its theme for the year "Marriage and Life."

Day Students

The first meeting of the entire Day Student body was held in the Student Center, on Tuesday, September 16. President Esther Purvis welcomed the freshmen and transfers to the organization. The main purpose of the meeting was to nominate a secretary and a women's vice-president. Both offices were left vacant by resignations. It was explained that there are lockers on the Day Room porch for those that wished to use them. All were invited to use the Day Room. The dance was discussed and reports were given.

"The educated man in the world today must walk out into that world with a Bible in one hand and a newspaper in the other."

College Players

College Players held its first meeting of the year September 23rd in Straughn Hall. Committees and chairmen were announced for the fall play. They are: Set, Peter Giorgi; publicity, Carol Keneske; costumes, Ethel Berger; Properties, Laura Marvin; programs, Betty Slocum; make-up, Margie Edmunds; lights, Bob Williams; ushers, Elaine Hefner; and Green Room, Jerry Shipley.

President Eric Hughes appointed Gerold Brown, president, and Arlene Schaeffer, secretary-treasurer, of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity. Try-outs were set for the early part of October. Further information about this matter will appear later. The possibility of College Players taking a trip to New York was also discussed.

Kappa Omicron Phi

Kappa Omicron Phi held its first meeting of the year, September 17, in the Arts Building. Mr. McNaney took the picture for the yearbook, after which a business meeting was held. The group decided to finish the songbooks for the National Conclave to be held in 1954.

Kappa Omicron Phi regrets that no pledges will be accepted this fall due to the changes in curriculum which does not include enough Home Economic semester hours to meet fraternity requirements.

A. C. E. I.

The first meeting of the year was a dessert party held at Smythe Park on September 24, 1952. All members were greeted by President Peggy Fray, and the year's program was announced. The entertainment and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Art Club

The Art Club held a picnic Thursday, September 25th, in Smythe Park. All eligible members were invited. Refreshments were served, and the entertainment was put on by the invited guests.

The Flashlight Is Your Paper

The Flashlight is the voice of the student body of Mansfield State Teachers College. Students are urged to send any suggestions they may have about the improvement of the campus newspaper. If anyone has any suggestions or ideas he should send a letter stating his criticism or desired addition to the paper to The Flashlight, Box 47, Mansfield State Teachers College. Any letter not signed by the writer will not be considered. Criticism is welcome, provided that it is constructive. Do not abuse the right to freedom of speech.

Library News

The library staff wishes at this time to welcome back the Mansfield students of last year; and also to welcome the new students on the campus. We hope to see you in the library. If you have any question, please feel free to ask any of the personnel for help. We hope that you will find in our selection of books many hours of reading pleasure.

Many new books have been added to the Rental Collection during the summer. Throughout the year we shall try to select some of the current best sellers to keep our collection up to date.

The new books are as follows: "Eisenhower" by Gunther, "Saracen Blade" by Yerby, "Jefferson Sellick" by Jones, "Windows for the Crown Prince" by Vining, "Silver Chalice" by Costain, "Matador" by Conrad, "The Witness" by Chambers, and the Readers Digest Condensed Books—Vol. IX and X.

"Windows for the Crown Prince"—Elizabeth Gray Vining

Mrs. Vining was invited to teach English to the Crown Prince of Japan. This is her own account of a changing Japan, a country that took hold and pulled itself out of the devastation of war to a road of peace. Simply and directly told with feeling and color for the beauties which are Japan's.

"Matador"—Barnaby Conrad

This is a book, which will appeal to the men students. It is a book of bull fighting told in stirring passages which are magnificent. You are at the ring-side with the screaming throngs, your pulse beats faster as the lines pass before your eyes, and finally you will feel the lonely emptiness of the matador. Especially recommended for men.

"Jefferson Sellick"—Carl Jones

A satire on the middle west. It might even be called the George Apley of the Middle West. An engaging book, but rather half-baked.

If any of you have copies of current best sellers that you would like to share with your fellow-students, the library will greatly appreciate your gifts.

Carontawan News

Our Carontawan Staff hasn't wasted any time since school opened. Doris Weaver reports that already the rough dummy has been set up, new faculty pictures have been taken, snapshots of student activities that have gone on so far this year have also been taken, and snaps of the football team in action have been taken in practices. Senior must have their pictures taken by October 8th!

New changes in this year's staff include Walter McKendrick as Business Manager, and Charles Igoe as an addition to the Photography Staff. No publisher has been assigned as yet.

The Carontawan Staff for this year is as follows:

Editor, Doris Weaver.
Advisory Editor, Tom Best.
Business Manager, Walter McKendrick.
Business Staff, Jim McInroy, Bob

Stenzhorn, Jack Griffiths, Preston Erway.

Graduate Record Examinations to Be Administered

PRINCETON, N. J., September 19th: The Graduate Record Examinations required of applicants for admission to a number of graduate schools, will be administered at examination centers throughout the country four times in the coming year. Educational Testing Service has announced. During 1951-52 nearly 8,000 students took the GRE in partial fulfillment of admission requirements of graduate schools which prescribed it.

This fall candidates may take the GRE on Friday and Saturday, November 7 and 8. In 1953, the dates are January 30 and 31, April 17 and 18, July 10 and 11. ETS advises each applicant to inquire of the graduate school of his choice which of the examinations he should take and on which dates. Applicants for graduate school fellowships should ordinarily take the designated examinations in the fall administration.

The GRE tests offered in these nationwide programs include a test of general scholarship ability, tests of general achievement in six broad fields of undergraduate study, and advanced level tests of achievement in various subject matter fields. According to ETS, candidates are permitted several options among these tests.

Application forms and a Bulletin of Information, which provides details of registration and administration as well as sample questions, may be obtained from college advisers or directly from Educational Testing Service, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J., or Box 9896, Los Feliz Station, Los Angeles 27, California. A completed application must reach the ETS office at least two weeks before the date of the administration for which the candidate is applying.

Paging Personalities

Fall came and leaves fell . . . old friendships renewed and new friends gained . . . greenies initiated and Frosh matriculated . . . football players training and band marching—thus commences the '52-53 term at Mansfield.

From the reminiscences circulating around campus, summer vacations proved eventful.

Wedding bells sounded for Becky

Casey Townery and James Townery on March 1st; Florence Dunbar Gable and Duane Gable on June 15th; Beverly Chafee Bailey and Tom Bailey, June 28th; Diane Sloat Davis and David Davis, August 1st; Onolee Swan Frost and Duane Frost, August 2nd; Catherine Lobach Stover and Glenn Stover; Patsy Edgar Trowbridge and Basil Trowbridge; Katherine Gregg Pritchard and Pete Pritchard; and Virginia Wilbur Mathis and Danny Mathis. Congratulations and much, much happiness to all of you.

The summer season likewise proved a fruitful one for engagements with three fortunate girls sporting diamonds. Mary Ruth Squire is engaged to Luther Hoffman, Anna Burgett to Rex Smith, and Mary Ann Davis to Ronnie Sick.

Carol Little is pinned to Jim Rockwell, Alpha Gamma Rho, Penn State.

Our 1952 graduates are now scattered throughout the country. Those who are now teaching near Mansfield are: Ginger Cramer and Jeanne Woodring in Sayre, Pa., Jeanne in the Home Ec Department and Ginger in the Elementary, 2nd grade, Jim Fink is supervising music in Westfield, Pa., and Carol Burleigh, an August graduate, in Nicholson. Pat Fishetti is teaching in Elmira Heights. Olive Knierim has a teaching position in Campbell, N. Y.

The armed forces also placed a claim upon our recent graduates. Jim Brown and Bill McNett were accepted for Officers Training School. They are stationed at Newport, Rhode Island. Wayne Saxton has received his call for service in the Army. Neil Haskins is serving in the Army Signal Corp. Tom Santiso was accepted by the Navy and is now at Bainbridge, Maryland.

Veterans Advised About New GI Bill

Veterans with service since the start of the Korean campaign, who are planning to go to school under the Korean GI Bill, were advised by Hilmer E. Shirey, Chief, Vocational Rehabilitation and Education Division, Veterans Administration Office, Wilkes-Barre, to take along enough money of their own to tide them over for about two months.

The reason, Mr. Shirey explained, is that under the law, GI education and training allowances can't be paid until sometime after a veteran actually completes each month of training. Therefore, one month of the delay will be caused by the veteran completing his initial month of training.

The law also requires that both the veteran and his school or training establishment submit a certification to VA—after the end of the month—to the effect that the veteran actually was enrolled in training during that period.

This, too, takes time, so schools and establishments are urged to get the certifications in as quickly as possible after the end of the month to keep the time at a minimum.

Finally, after VA receives the certifications, it must compute how much GI allowance each veteran is entitled to, and must mail out the payments. This process normally will be kept down to 20 days from the date VA receives the certification.

Because of all these factors, post-Korea veterans would be wise to allow for two months before they can expect a check from the Government. Afterwards, of course, checks will come regularly each month, so long as they remain in training and their certifications are in order.

It was also pointed out that a veteran who starts GI training after the 2th of a month will have to wait several days longer for his initial payment. The reason is that VA can't process his certification until after he has completed his first full month of training. Payments for both periods—the complete month and the few days of the preceding month—will be included in his first check.

The allowances for veterans training full-time in schools and colleges under the new Korean GI Bill are $110 for those without dependents; $135 for those with one dependent, and $160 for those with more than one dependent. Allowances for part-time training, on-the-job training and institutional on-farm training are somewhat lower.

The GI allowances are paid directly to veterans, and are the only payments made under the new Korean GI Bill. They are for the purpose of assisting veterans in meeting the costs of their training.

DAY STUDENTS PLAN PICNIC

The Day Students have announced that they are planning their annual autumn picnic. The date of the picnic is October 18.

Mounts Cop Opener

The Mansfield Mountaineers, under the direction of acting head coach Ed Rushin, romped to a 20-13 victory over Ithaca College. The 1952 season got under way when the "Mounts" kicked off to Ithaca. The Ithacans began to roll toward the Mansfield goal line. The defensive team, being a little "green", played like pros when the opponents were knocking at the M.S.T.C. door. The remainder of the first quarter saw the ball change hands quite frequently. Punts by Don Williams and Jack Kutney kept Ithaca in their own back yard.

In the second quarter the "Mounts" really rolled, as they shoved across 20 points. Mansfield's first score came on a pass from Kutney to Loos which was good for 40 yards, putting the ball on the 10-yard line. After several smashes at the line, Loos tore through the left side for the first T.D. The second score came minutes later as Young and Rossi broke through to block an Ithaca punt which was recovered by Gene Burdick on the five yard line. From there Joe Gianetto took it across on a quarterback sneak. The third score came as the result of a beautiful punt return of 45 yards, by Jack Kutney. Score at halftime: Mansfield, 20; Ithaca, 0.

The second half started off with a bang. A pass from Kutney to Loos covered 85 yards. However, the attack stalled on the 5 and Ithaca took over. Ithaca soon came to life and drove 50 yards for a score with Clint Miller going over from the two. Ithaca scored their second T. D. on the very last play of the game.

Mansfield had seven first downs to Ithaca's 12. Mansfield tried ten passes, completed five. Ithaca tried ten passes, completed four.

Short Shots

On the long pass from Kutney to Saddy Miller, "Rip" Roan injured his right shoulder while throwing a block. Let's hope Tony will be back before too long.

An interesting sight from the spectator's viewpoint was watching the two platoon system. This system was not able to be used in the last few years due to the lack of players. By the way, Rushin had 54 men in uniform.

It was something of a special treat to watch Jack run back the punts, wasn't it?

Standouts of the game were Frank Sudak, Bob Schmidt, Nick Bruno, Jack O'Donnell, Gene Burdick, Joe Orse, Jack Kutney, Ed Loos, Joe Gianetto, Clyde Miller and "Put" Malinich.

The game was marred by numerous penalties for clipping and illegal use of hands type.

School spirit was good and high at the game. The boys can use spirit like this all year.

Freshman Bob Eltringham converted after the first and last touchdowns.

Faculty Takes Part In Education Meeting

The 27th Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, Central District, will be held at the Williamsport High School October 9th and 10th.

A number of faculty members from Mansfield State Teachers College will participate in this conference, which covers an educational area of fourteen Central Pennsylvania counties.

Those from the college, together, with their specific roles, are:

President James G. Morgan—presiding at the Thursday afternoon session.

Miss Marjorie Brooks, Director of Music Department—conducting the chorus for the Friday meeting.

Mr. Sigmund Michota—conducting the orchestra and using recordings of his 65-piece summer orchestra. Mr. Michota is chairman of the Mansfield Committee.

Miss Clarissa Randall—in charge of elementary school music.

Mr. Daniel Border in charge of Junior High School music class.

Mr. S. Manfred Lloyd, Instructor in Mathematics—panel member on Friday.

Dr. Clarence Mutchler, Director of Secondary Department—presiding at a meeting Friday.

Mrs. Lilyan Galbraith, Instructor in Home Economics—presiding at a meeting Friday.

Miss Kathryn Royer Director of Art Department, and Mr. Steven Benetic, Instructor of Art in the campus schools, will take part in the Art session, Friday.

CAMPUS NOTES

Perhaps the object which has received more abuse than praise is our Tower Clock which has been ticking the years away atop Alumni Hall. "Give Me Five Minutes More" and an even more recent phrase "Hail to Mansfield," gives an idea of the reasons for the "offensive" glances shot toward the unsuspecting face of our "Big Ben."

Before Straughn Hall was built, recitals, concerts and operettas were given from that over-grown platform in the Student Center and even before that in the Auditorium of the third floor of Alumni Hall. Can you imagine? Times really have changed.

Vespers have always been an important part of campus activities. They have taken many forms through the years. The present College Community Vespers Series was inaugurated in 1939. Local ministers conduct the worship period and the Music Department furnishes music of a religious nature for these occasions.

A coveted honor at Mansfield is to be on the Dean's List. It is a challenge to try to attain this standing for every college and university honors its superior students in this way and the language is universal—"We really worked for such an honor."

Many of the newcomers have wondered about the stone bench on the walk as you go toward town. The Delphic Fraternity of 1914-1915 presented this as a memorial when the four social organizations disbanded. The members purchased the bench with funds from the sale of their equipment. Traditionally, rumor has it that any couple who sits on that bench will be the next to be married.

The copper plate on the stone boulder on the left side of the steps leading to Straughn Hall is a memorial to the valiant fighters of World War I. The names of those men who gave their lives in the first war appear on this tablet.

SPORTS SPITTERS

Hi there, sports fans!

The biggest news in the sports department around M.S.T.C. was the appointment of Edward Rushin as acting coach and M. E. Decker as athletic director. This column would like to wish acting football coach Ed. Rushin, good luck in his new job. Ed. is being assisted by Mr. Decker, who is also the college physical education instructor.

DID YOU KNOW THAT

Julian Gottlieb is now in the Army. Julian put up a good struggle to stay out in order to get his college education, but after a few deferments, the Army decided it was time for "Gotch" to serve his country.

The reason Don Pieri isn't playing is because of a heart ailment. Don will be remembered for his two kick-off returns of 45 and 40 yards in the Lock Haven game.

The "Tampa Terror" reported to this column that everything was running very smoothly when he was there for a few weeks during the summer. Question: Who is the "Tampa Terror"? Answer: Our high-pitched, play-calling quarterback, Joe Gianetto.

WHERE ARE THEY?

This column will try to keep tabs on the ex-athletes who performed for M.S.T.C.. Don Mahon, co-captain of the 1951 football squad, is teaching in the elementary department at Campbell Center School, Campbell, Pa.

Len "Moose" Zanowicz, another mainstay of the '51 squad, is teaching and coaching at Vineland High School, Vineland, N. J.

Paul Shepanski, 1951, is teaching and coaching in the schools of Rosburg Township High School, Succasunna, N. J.

Bob Maxson, co-captain of the '51 baseball squad and top point-maker on the basketball squads of 1950-52, is stationed at Fort Belvoir, Va. He is training to be an engineer.

Jim Brown, '51 footballer, is in

O.C.S. school at Newport, R. I.

Henry "Hank" Goodman, basketball co-captain of 1951-52, is pursuing his Master of Education Degree at Penn State.

Nate "Scooter" George is serving his country in the U. S. Navy at Bainbridge, Md.

ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

The first annual presentation of the Athlete of the Year award went to Natal P. George, class of 1951, who resides in Carbondale, Pa. The award was based on the qualifications of outstanding athlete, scholar and gentleman of the year. Nate co-captained the "Mounts" basketball squad last year. He was the leading batsman on last year's baseball squad, hitting .464. Many of his friends called him "Scooter." He was a gentleman at all times and acted accordingly wherever he was or whatever he was doing.

Those who participated in the selection of Nate as an Athlete of the Year were: President Morgan, Dean Manser, and Coach Casey.

The idea of Athlete of the Year was presented to Coach Casey last year by Paul Bowles, sports editor of the Flashlight. The "M" Club voted on it and they will present the winner with a trophy each year and the "Athlete's" name will be placed on a plaque.

SUMMER TRAINING

Tony "Rip" Roan, Frank "Putt" Malanich, and Charles Igoe kept in training during the summer by serving Uncle Sam. "Rip" was at Long Beach, California, in O.C.S. Upon graduation he will become an Ensign in the U. S. Navy.

"Putt" and "Chas" were training with the U. S. Marines at Parris Island, North Carolina, for six weeks. They were well hardened by the time football practice got underway here.

So long for now. See you next month.

Baseball Averages

Nate "Scooter" George, class of '52, and third baseman of the "Mounts" 1952 baseball squad, captured the batting title with a healthy average of .464.

Listed below the the complete average of all batters and pitchers of the M.S.T.C. baseball team:

Cheerleaders Chosen

Five new girls have been added to this year's cheerleading squad. Monday, September 22, tryouts were held in the gym. Elaine Gee, Bitsy His-sam, Peggy Mirocke, Ruth Parisella, and Jean Rehmyer are the new members of the cheerleading squad. Sally Gibbon, Karol Keneske, Charlotte Peake and Shirley Timmins of last year's squad complete the nine.

"M" Club

The M-Club at their last meeting under the able direction of their new adviser, Mr. Rushin, began to formulate their plans for the coming school-term.

Under the newly elected president, Ted Strein, the M-Club has decided to hold their annual sports dance on November 15, 1952. The location for the dance will be the College Gym and the music will be provided by Lee Vincent and his orchestra.

Among some of the other projects to be undertaken by the club this year will be the selling of programs at all football games. They also plan to operate the concession stand on Parents' Day, October 11th, and on Homecoming Day, November 15th. The most serious undertaking of the club was their decision to place the plaque of "Athlete and Scholarship" in the gym. This award is presented annually to the person who has shown the greatest ability, not only in the world of sports, but also scholastically and as a general "all-round" person. The award last year went to Nate George.

Ted Speary Expert Rifleman

This is a short story on Edward "Ted" Speary, of West Nanticoke, Pa., who is the superintendent of the construction of the men's new dormitory.

Last year "Ted" entered the National Bench Rest shooting contest at Johnstown, New York, and placed fourth. There were 10,000 men entered in the shoot, which was staged in various cities throughout the country.

Twenty-five shots were taken at two hundred yards.

The aggregate for the group shooting for three days was .71 of an inch.

"Ted" just missed the world's record in a match held in Wilkes-Barre two years ago when he placed 50 consecutive shots within .31 of an inch. The record was missed by 100th of an inch.

He used a 219 Donaldson Wasp and attached to it is a 20-power Unertle scope. All of the ammunition is hand made.

"Ted" is always happy to sit down and talk about guns, so if anyone is interested, you'll find "Ted" on the job, ready and willing to give you the information you are seeking.

CLASSROOM CHARACTERS

The classroom should be conducive to good learning habits. A few students tend to interrupt this beautiful setting by their little antics. The torturers include—

The dreamer, who depends on his neighbor to wake him when the professor lectures on a significant point. The ultimate result is a mild collision when the incoming student of the following period attempts to sit in his assigned seat.

The expounder, whose life has been filled with one rich experience after another. Through his generosity he insists upon sharing all experiences with his classmates and teacher, regardless of the fact that the classroom topic may not pertain to it.

The wanderer, who constantly has the urge to move. If the room hasn't a pencil-sharpener he will seek the farthest window and will either elevate or close it, ignoring classroom temperature.

The borrower, who refuses to invest in any sort of school supplies. He is very particular about the size of book he wishes to borrow. It must be large enough to conceal his latest investment, "Don't Peek" magazine.

The early-comers, who deceive the teacher into thinking that the rest are late.

The apple-polisher, who goes into convulsions when teacher utters—or attempts to utter—any rare bit of humor. He takes advantage of the five minute break between periods to tell the teacher how nice he is.

The scissors conscious student who cuts out of the newspapers ten clipping daily on "life" and distributes them proportionately to each of his instructors.

The gazer, who studies the size of various raindrops or anything else which does not concern the immediate class.

The perpetual arm-raiser, who elevates his hand at the beginning of the period and, as if suddenly stricken, leaves it in said position. He always has something vital to say. The class eagerly awaits his message.

The debater, who argues for the sake of argument. His classmates are beginning to wonder if there is anything right in the world.

The literary creature, who puts new interpretations into the works of famed authors. He usually encounters difficulty in attempting to explain it to the more ignorant masses.

The crude crum, who still hasn't found out what he is doing in college. He objects to discussions, homework, tests and anything suggesting learning.

The born-teacher, who feels the class is just waiting for his teaching. He is quite willing to take over the entire set-up.

The test-gatherer, who possesses a copy of every test given during the past ten years. His popularity mounts prior to exams.

Undesirable as these pests may be, they do make life a lot more interesting.

Law School Admission Tests To Be Given

The Law School Admission Test required of applicants for admission to a number of leading law schools, will be given at more than 100 centers throughout the United States on the mornings of November 15, 1952, February 21, April 25, and August 8, 1953. During 1951-52 over 6800 applicants took this test, and their scores were sent to over 100 law schools.

A candidate must make separate application for admission to each law school of his choice and should inquire of each whether it wishes him to take the Law School Admission Test and when. Since many law schools select their freshman classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to next year's classes are advised ordinarily to take either the November or the February test, if possible.

The Law School Admission Test, prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service, features objective questions measuring verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. It cannot be "crammed" for. Sample questions and information regarding registration for and administration of the test are given in a Bulletin of Information.

Bulletins and applications for the test should be obtained four to six weeks in advance of the desired testing date from Law School Admission Test.

Educational Testing Service, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J. Completed applications must be received at least ten days before the desired testing date in order to allow ETS time to complete the necessary testing arrangements for each candidate.

Flashlight Staff News

The Flashlight Staff held its first meeting on Sept. 16. It was decided that a meeting would be held on Oct. 1 for all those who wish to apply for a position on the staff. A large number of students have indicated a desire to be staff members. Because only a limited number can be accepted on the staff, each applicant will be apprenticed for one semester, after which time those who have proved their ability will be accepted as permanent members of the staff.

Sometime in October, the annual autumn Flashlight picnic will be held at Dr. Elizabeth Swan's. An evening of round and square dancing, cards, and other games has been planned.

Members of the Flashlight staff will assist with publicity for Religion-in-Life Week.

Committees have been appointed to revise the Flashlight constitution. Diane Davis will act as staff secretary.

Moral and spiritual values are important in every part of one's personal living.

VOLUME XXIX

State Teachers College, Mansfield, Pennsylvania, November 11, 1952

Number 2

Eight Outstanding Students Selected For Who's Who

A committee composed of faculty and students has nominated and selected eight worthy students to represent the Mansfield State Teachers College in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. These students have been selected for excellence and sincerity in scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities, citizenship and service to the school; and promise of future usefulness to business and society.

Thomas Best, a member of the Secondary Department, is a native of West Pittston, Pa. He is a member of Phi Sigma Pi, Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Zeta, and Student Council. He was also a member of Art Club during his Freshman year. In addition to these he has been a member of the Carontawan staff and served as editor in his Junior year; he was a member of the Flashlight Staff and served as Sports Editor in his Sophomore year. He is also a member of M Club and takes an active part in football, basketball, and baseball. He was treasurer of his class during his Sophomore year.

Mary Dewey, a member in the Music Department, is a resident of Coudersport, Pa. She is a member of W.A.A., Art Club, Student Council, Kappa Delta Pi, Lambda Mu, Music Education Club, Band, Orchestra, Advanced Chorus and Community Orchestra. At present she is President of the Women's Dormitory Council.

Margaret Fray, a member of the Elementary Department, has as her residence the town of Clark's Green, Pa. She is president of the Association for Childhood Education International. She is a member of the following organizations: W.A.A., Kappa Delta Pi, Art Club, and Carontawan staff. In her freshman year she was a member of the College Choraliers.

Donna Jones, a member of the Elementary Department, is a native of Harrisburg, Pa. She is Editor of the Flashlight. The organizations to which she belongs, or at one time was a member of, are: W.A.A., A.C.E.I., Kappa Delta Pi, Art Club, College Players, Alpha Psi Omega, Student Council, Band, and College Choraliers.

Mary Konsko, a member of the Home Economics Department, resides in Palmerton, Pa. She is at present time the president of W.A.A. The organizations to which she belongs, or belonged, are: Kappa Delta Pi, Y. W. C. A., Omicron Gamma Pi, Kappa Omicron Phi, Art Club, Carontawan, and Band-Baton Twirler. She was secretary of her class in her sophomore year.

John MacLean, a member of the Secondary Department, is a resident of Osceola, Pa. At present he is president of the Student Council. The organizations in which he is or was a member are: Phi Sigma Pi, Kappa Delta Pi, Sigma Zeta, College Players, and Alpha Psi Omega. He has taken an active part in Basketball and Football. He was vice-president of his class in his junior year.

James Marshall, is a member of the Secondary Department, and is a native of Bristol, Pa. He is a member of Student Council, M Club, Carontawan, and Phi Sigma Pi. He was vice-president of his class in his sophomore year and he was president of his class in his junior year. At present he is president of the senior class. He is an active member of the basketball team.

Alexander Wagner, a member of the Secondary Department, is a native of Allentown, Pa. He is a member of Phi Sigma Pi. He was secretary of Student Council in his junior year and at present is vice-president of this organization. He served as assistant editor of the Carontawan in his junior year and is now composite editor.

M.S.T.C. To Celebrate Homecoming Day

Preparations are now being made for Homecoming Day, Saturday, Nov. 15. Registration of the returning graduates and their friends will take place between 11:15 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. in the second floor of North Hall. A cafeteria style dinner will be served from 11:30 to 12:15.

A parade led by the cheerleaders, the college band, the football queen, and a series of floats will leave Straughn Hall at 1:15 p. m. Instead of proceeding directly to Smythe Park the parade will circle Mansfield once, by way of Academy and Elmira streets, and then proceed to the football game where the crowning of the queen will take place. It has been the policy during the past few years to crown the queen at half-time. However, the Homecoming Day Committee felt that the football players should have an opportunity to witness the ceremony, therefore the queen will be crowned before the game. Prizes of $10.00, $5.00, and $3.00 will be awarded at this time for the best floats in the parade. The floats will be judged on their creativeness, originality and effectiveness by Dr. Snively, Mr. Border and Miss Farrer.

The first write-in ballot for the election of a Football Queen took place on Nov. 6. Any girl nominated was a member of the Sophomore, Junior, or Senior class. On November 11, a second write-in ballot was taken and the foot ball queen chosen. The identity of the queen will remain a secret until the crowning ceremony.

The Mansfield vs. Millersville game will get under way at 2:00 p. m., and directly after the game an informal social hour will be held in the Student Center. Cider and doughnuts will be served and both returning Alumni and present Mansfield students are invited. An exhibition of water colors and jewelry by M. Kerfoat Jennison will take place in the reception room during the afternoon.

The day will be climaxed by a dance from 8:00 to 12:00, sponsored by the "M" Club. Entertainment will be provided by Lee Vincent and his Orchestra, and a special "Cavalcade of Theme Songs" will be presented by Mr. Vincent shortly before the 10:30 intermission.

Full credit for the planning of events for Homecoming day, and a vote of thanks, must be given to Dave Brush and Helen Russell, who served as Co-chairmen of the Homecoming Day Committee, and to B. Britton, A. Zastovany and W. Smith for their fine assistance.

Campus Organizations To Sponsor Weekends

Recently, John MacLean, president of the Student Council, met with all organization presidents and submitted a plan whereby each club or fraternity would take charge of a weekend and plan the activities of it. Each organization was urged to co-operate since it would be something that would benefit all of the student body. A week was allowed for each president to discuss the idea with his particular organization and at the next meeting it was agreeable to all that it be tried and the various weekends were then chosen.

It was considered that with this system the activities carried on will have much more variety than if the Student Council had to be in charge of planning for all weekends during the year. It is further hoped that this plan will help to decrease the number of students that leave the campus each weekend. If successful it will give the students reasons for spending many of their week-ends here. Through these activities the students will get a better chance of becoming more familiar with the College organizations, and the organizations can come in contact with more students.

Under this plan a weekend would consist of Friday evening, Saturday afternoon, and Saturday evening. Since many of the organizations have an annual dance this would serve as the function for one of the evenings and they would only have to make plans for the remainder of the weekend.

College Players To Present "Gaslight"

On Friday, Nov. 21, there will be presented two of the most suspenseful hours that Mansfield has ever experienced. At 8:00 p. m. the College players will unveil in Straughn Hall the results of three months effort in the form of their fall production, "Gas-light" by Patrick Hamilton. This Victorian thriller has been and remains yet one of the most popular of suspense plays.

The scene: a large Victorian mansion, "a dark household." The time: a foggy afternoon and evening in 1880. The ingredients: a hero, a heroine, a villain, two maids, insanity, and—murder! This intriguing combination, which Mr. Hamilton has used adroitly, gives each line a meaning, each character a definite and integral part in the play.

In the very difficult and highly exacting role of Mrs. Manningham, "the lady who is going off her head", is Barbara Scott in her first role at Mansfield. Miss Scott has always been interested in dramatics and has a fine dramatic sense.

Playing the part of the vicious and unbalanced Mr. Manningham is Eric Hughes, who has been seen in several Players productions and has worked three summers with the Wellsboro Summer Theatre.

In the role of the amiable Inspector Rough is Robert Long, who also has done several parts at Mansfield as well as spending a week with the Wellsboro Summer Theatre as an actor.

Lois Long, College Players' make-up artist, makes her acting debut as Elizabeth, the sympathetic maid.

Shirley Timmins is Nancy, the young maid with a doubtful reputation. Miss Timmins has played a few roles here before, but this is her first major part.

In the parts of two plainclothesmen are John Thomas and Pat Gallagher. The Student Director is Donna Jones, who will be remembered for her leading role in last fall's "Gracery Ghost". Peter Giorgi, who has had experience with the Corning Summer Theatre, has designed the Victorian setting.

Other committee chairmen are: Laura Marvin, properties; Bernie Troisi, publicity; Ethel Berger, costumes; Margie Edmunds, make-up; Robert Williams, lights; Buzz MacLean, tickets; Jerry Shipley, Green Room; Betty Slocum, programs; Dorothy Miller, prompter; Elaine Heffner, ushers. Bill Bailey has arranged appropriate music.

A fine performance can be expected, for under the expert guidance of Miss Allen and Miss Drum, the cast has gone through ten weeks of concentrated rehearsals. The Student Director, Donna Jones, has had many helpful and excellent suggestions for improvement of action and characterization. The prompter, Dorothy Miller, has been invaluable with her hours of patient cueing and line rehearsals.

The publicity committee has done a fine job of publicizing the play. The set is a beautiful reproduction of a Victorian parlor. The lighting, a most important and difficult facet of the drama, has been well worked-out and timed. The costumes are authentic. The properties, of which there are a great many important pieces, have been gathered from near and far. All committees are to be congratulated on the fine conscientious jobs they have done to make "Gaslight" a complete success and one of the outstanding student activities of the year.

Everyone is invited to see this production of "Gaslight" on Friday, Nov. 21, at 8:00 p. m. in Straughn Hall. Tickets are on sale now.

A Scene from "Gaslight." B. Long, B. Scot, L. Long, E. Hughes, S. Timmins.

MANSFIELD, HAIL!

"Old Mansfield, high upon the eastern hill,
Dear Mansfield, hail to thee!"

Situated in northeastern Pennsylvania is a small, picturesque college known as the Mansfield State Teachers College. However, to hundreds of students who have attended or are attending classes there, it is more than just a college, it is their Alma Mater.

"Thy loyal sons and daughters with a will Salute in melody."

Happy days spent in college are never forgotten. In order that the recollections of these scenes may once again be refreshed, one day each year is selected as Homecoming Day. In an atmosphere of gaiety and festivity many former students return to the campus. This occasion presents the opportunity for the renewal of old acquaintances and the formation of new friendships.

"We bring a laurel wreath of praise
And pledge our love through all the days."

Although footsteps that once traveled along the same paths are now following separate highways and those who as students were once together are now apart, the days spent at Mansfield will forever hold a place in the hearts of all.

"Our Alma Mater, dear, all hail to thee!
Old Mansfield, hail to thee!"

—Helen Russell.

THANKSGIVING DAY

On American college campuses elaborate preparations are made for the Thanksgiving season. Dinners and dances are planned, special speakers secured for assemblies, and traditional football games scheduled. All this is undertaken by college students, in the freest and most democratic atmosphere ever experienced by the youth of a nation in the history of the world. For this lack of restriction, for this freedom of education we, as students, are thankful.

On Thanksgiving morning the people of America will congregate for their worship in churches of not one but many denominations; and later in the day they will gather around well-filled tables at their homes to enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner, eaten unhurriedly in a fear-free atmosphere. For this we are also thankful.

Let us give thanks for the freedom to write and think as we please; to travel without restriction, unburdened with elaborate identification paper; for the comfortable homes we live in, whose foundations have never felt the explosive force of heavy artillery fire or of high altitude bombing. Let us think with gratitude of the many comforts that we at home take for granted, and to which the soldier in Korea would give so much to return to.

This Thanksgiving, let us all harbor in our hearts the same humble and grateful spirit our Pilgrim fathers possessed so many years ago. Let each of us pause for just a moment in this festive vacation whirl, to express thanks for many blessings.

—Cyril Clancy.

Thanksgiving Dinner and Dance

In accordance to previous years Sinfonia. These plans are subject to change. After the concert, a dance will be held in the Student Center. Members of the Thanksgiving committee are as follows: Gerald Darrow and Shirley Conrad, co-chairmen; Bernadine Troisi, chairman of dining room; Dawn Van Doren, chairman of programs; Bernard Cawley, dance decorations.

Religion-in-Life Week Success at M.S.T.C.

Through the cooperation and planning of the students, members of the faculty and the administration Religion-in-Life Week, November 3rd to 6th, was very successful. The program was well planned and the speakers were well-selected. The roster of speakers for the week were as follows:

Dr. Ira Langston of the Park Avenue Christian Church, New York.
Dr. Frank Littell, Dean of Chapel at Boston University.
Mr. Robert James, Regional Secretary for the Student Christian Movement for the Middle Atlantic Region.
Rev. Rudolph Harvey, O.T.M., Ph.D., Professor of Philosophy at St. Bonaventure University.
James Frew Martin.

Students not only heard these men speak, but also were given a chance to talk with them in personal conferences, seminars, "bull sessions," and classroom discussions.

The theme for the program was "Climbing Higher." Religion-in-Life Week not only stimulated students' thinking in the realm of moral and ethical values and spiritual faith, but also deepened their spiritual convictions. It also stressed the importance of spiritual value in education and teaching.

Art Club to Sponsor Exhibit

The Art Club is sponsoring an exhibition of water colors and unique jewelry as a special feature for Homecoming week-end.

The water colors and jewelry are the work of Mrs. Marshall Jennison, of Syracuse, N. Y. Before her marriage a year ago, Mrs. Jennison (Margaret Kerfoot) was head of the Art Department at Hamline University in St. Paul, Minn. She is a graduate of Hamline University, received her M. A. from the University of Iowa under Grant Wood. She studied at Harvard and the university of Oregon under Carnegie grants and a year in Paris at Parsons Paris Atelier.

She has exhibited in major shows in Chicago, Denver, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Baltimore. She has taught painting in Carlton College, Allegheny, Hood College and Hamline University.

The water colors in the exhibition are scenes from Colorado, Minnesota, Maine and Maryland. They show a bold and vigorous style while the colors, beautiful reds, blues, russets, greens, and purples are dynamic and dramatic.

The jewelry is most unusual, having been made from old bolts, locks, keys, etc., found in a hardware store in Central City, Colorado.

We hope everyone will visit the exhibition and enjoy Mrs. Jennison's paintings and jewelry. If anyone cares to own one of the paintings or a piece of jewelry, you may contact a member of the Art Club or Miss Royer. The water colors may be purchased for as little as $10.00 and the jewelry for $5.00.

Margaret Strupcwski

Flashlight Staff Elects New Editors

Miss Margaret Strupcwski was elected assistant editor of The Flashlight. Miss Strupcwski, a Junior in the Elementary Department, is from Duryea, Pennsylvania. Miss Strupcwski, an active student in college life, is secretary of A. C. E. I., a member of the Art Club, College Players, and Kappa Delta Pi.

Mrs. Diane Sloat Davis, a junior in the Secondary Department, has been appointed as Secondary and Elementary Departmental Editor. Mrs. Davis is from Sayre, Pa. She is an active member in college activities, is treasurer of the Art Club, a member of Kappa Delta Pi, and a member of the Carontawan Staff.

MR. EDWIN S. COLES

M.S.T.C. Graduate Ninth President of Bowdoin

Dr. James Stacy Coles, a native of Mansfield and a 1934 graduate of M.S.T.C., became the ninth president of Bowdoin College in a colorful inaugural ceremony October 13, 1952. More than a hundred colleges and universities participated in the academic procession from Hubbard Hall to the First Parish Church on College Hill and later from the Church to Sargent Gymnasium for luncheon. Before the procession began, the college chimes played "Mansfield, Hail!", "Stand, Columbia!" (Dr. Coles received his M. A. and Ph.D. from Columbia University) and the Bowdoin Hymn.

John William Frost, president of Bowdoin's Board of Overseers, installed Dr. Coles in office and presented him with the charter, seal and key of the college.

President Coles' inaugural address consisted chiefly of a discussion on the place and importance of liberal arts colleges in this present day world. He also voiced concern over the gradual changes which are choking off many American freedoms.

The invocation at the inaugural luncheon was given by the Reverend Frederick William Whittaker, President of Bangor Theological Seminary. Among the speakers were: The Honorable Edward Folsom Merrill, Associate Justice of the Supreme Judicial Court for the State of Maine; Arthur Andrew Hauck, President of the University of Maine; Henry Merritt Wriston, President of Brown University, for colleges outside of Maine, and Kenneth C. M. Sills, former President of Bowdoin, who introduced Dr. Coles.

President Morgan of M. S. T. C. received an invitation to the inauguration, but, as he was unable to attend, delegated Edwin S. Coles, President of the Alumni Association and father of Dr. J. Stacy Coles, to go in his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Coles spent a very pleasant and memorable week-end with their son. They attended the Bowdoin-Amhurst game, the vesper service on Sunday and a small dinner for out-of-town guests given by Dr. and Mrs. Coles. Mr. Edwin Coles is editor of the Mansfield Advertiser, and printer of our college paper, the Flashlight.

At Mansfield, Dr. Stacy Coles was enrolled in the Secondary Education Curriculum. He was a member of the Y.M.C.A., Emerson Literary Society, the Band and the Orchestra. He was chaplain of Phi Sigma Pi, president of his class during his junior year, a member of the Student Council, and president of the German Club during his Senior year. Says the 1934 Carontawan:

"Blessed with superior ability and indefatigable energy, he has dignified every campus activity in which he has participated."

Bowdoin College, named for an early Governor of Massachusetts, the Honorable James Bowdoin, enrolled its first class of eight students September 2, 1802. Among its famous alumni are: Nathaniel Hawthorne, novelist; Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, poet; and Franklin Pierce, fourteenth President of the United States. Dr. Coles is the ninth man to hold the office of president of the college in the one hundred and fifty years of Bowdoin's existence.

Special Event

As Special Event this year, the Omicron Gamma Pi will present a program for adults. The event will be observed November 22, 1952, from 2:00 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.

Miss Patsy Shimer has been selected general chairman. Miss Shimer and the chairman of the different committees will work with the Home Economics faculty to present the following: a demonstration and exhibit in nutrition; a demonstration and exhibit in table setting; decorations of tables and furniture refinishing; an exhibit in improvised family health equipment; and a textile exhibit. Also a nursery school will be conducted to entertain the children while the mothers are visiting the event.

Marshall Heinbaugh First Soloist in Series

Marshall Heinbaugh, the baritone who made his local debut here November 7, in the first concert of the Artists Course Series, is a member of what he terms a "singing family". While not professionals, both of his parents were musical. Mr. Heinbaugh has four singing brothers, also non-professionals, and the boys at home used to do ensemble singing just for the fun of it.

"Home" was Painesville, Ohio, where Mr. Heinbaugh was born and spent most of his early life. While in high school the local drama group gave bi-weekly programs over the local radio station. His first public appearance was on one of those shows when a baritone solo was interpolated into the script. Following graduation from high school, the young baritone had his own program on the station, and this weekly broadcast was his first professional experience.

The medical profession had been Mr. Heinbaugh's goal as a career and he enrolled at Hiram College in Ohio as a pre-med major. It was at Hiram that it may be said his voice was "discovered", for the enthusiasm of teachers there resulted in his trying for a scholarship in voice at Curtis Institute. He was accepted by the famous opera and concert baritone, Richard Bonelli, as a pupil.

As was the case with so many young men, Mr. Heinbaugh's budding career was interrupted by service with the United States Army, in the Infantry. Following it, he returned to Curtis to finish his studies and receive his Bachelor of Music degree.

His subsequent work in concert and opera has brought unanimous acclaim from the professional critics and from audiences wherever he has appeared. He is counted as one of the finest of the young American singers today and as one whose appearance can always be counted on to bring genuine musical pleasure to his hearers.

Teaching Conference

Miss Irma Ayers was the speaker at a student teaching conference held November 8, from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. in the Arts Building. This conference was for the purpose of introducing Home Economics senior students to their supervisors in the schools in which they will be teaching next semester.

Miss Ayers, dean of the School of Home Economics of the University of Delaware, Newark, Del., spoke about the role of the supervisor in the vocational student teaching program. Mrs. Elizabeth Morales presided at the meeting and Mrs. Lilyan Galbraith directed the conference of the supervisors and teachers. During this conference the supervisors acquainted the students with the conditions of the schools and towns where they will be teaching, illustrative material needed and textbooks used.

Freshman Officers

In a recent election the Freshman class chose the following people to serve as its officers: president, Merle Stilwell; vice-president, Robert Terry; Secretary, Ellen Judd; treasurer, Gerald Calkins.

Coffee Hour

Omicron Gamma Pi wishes to extend an invitation to the student body and faculty to attend the coffee hour each morning from 9:30 a. m. to 10:30 a. m.

Campus Organizations

W.A.A.

The executive board of W.A.A. met October 21st to make further plans for the year's activities. The board is composed of W.A.A. officers and two representatives from each class. The president is Mary Kinsko; the vice-president, Ann Johnson; secretary, Betty Slocum; and treasurer, Betty Hayden. The seniors are Esther Clossen, in charge of concessions, who, with her committee did a wonderful job at our first football game; and Ruth Billmeyer, who is in charge of publicity.

The junior members are Peggy Strupcowski, in charge of special events, and Grace Holcomb, in charge of managers' and intramural committees. Thelma DeVoe, program chairman, and Irene Propkiewicz, picnic chairman, are the sophomore members. The newly elected freshman members on the executive board are Joan Homisak and Janice Austin.

At the meeting, plans for the Homecoming Day parade and Christmas party were discussed. An invitation has been extended to the Sayre nurses to join W.A.A. and the board also extends a further invitation for active participation by all women on campus.

Kappa Omicron

Kappa Omicron Phi will sponsor an assembly program, November 18, during which the senior Home Economics girls will discuss and portray by skits their commercial projects completed last summer. Some of the girls were employed as waitresses, camp counselors, playground directors, and dietitians for periods of six weeks.

College Players

College Players held its October meeting on October 20, in the Reception Room. President Eric Hughes appointed a committee to assemble a bibliography of plays and other material that could be used for try-outs. A committee was also appointed to arrange for a float for Homecoming Day. At the close of the business meeting Mrs. B. W. Leonard spoke on her recent trip to Europe. She spent considerable time in the German village of Oberammergau, scene of the world-renowned Passion Play. The group was fascinated with her descriptions of the people and the customs of this quaint old town. Refreshments were served.

Omicron Gamma

The second annual banquet of Omicron Gamma Pi was held October 8, in the Presbyterian Church. President and Mrs. Morgan were the honored guests.

The banquet's main feature was the formal candle light initiation of the freshmen.

Barbara Keller served at toastmistress and had charge of the business meeting. Lois Owens, Irene Weaver, and Barbara Keller related their experiences at the American Home Economics Convention in Atlantic City this summer.

The program for the year was presented. Some of its high lights are: a Christmas Welfare Party in December; a recruitment meeting in April; and a Bridal Style Show in May; with the Special Event heading the program on November 22.

The freshmen are now busy planning ideas for an Omicron Gamma Pi float for homecoming, November 15.

On October 9, 10, and 11, at State College, the Province Workshop was attended by Dorothy McCabe and Barbara Keller. They represented the club as a delegate, and as a Province officer. The Province Workshop is a part of the National Organization and is made up of college clubs from seven different states.

The Omicron Gamma Pi bulletin board in the Arts building is going to feature club news and notices, and as a special feature for homecoming it will contain news about former graduates.

The October 9 meeting of SCA consisted mainly of hymn singing with background notes being given on each hymn. Joan Devine was chairman of the meeting and was assisted with the program by the following people: LaVerne Williams, William Bailey, Robert Chamberlain, and Paul Raszmann.

For the following week's meeting the organization was very pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Beyer as guest speakers. Mr. and Mrs. Beyer talked on their recent trip to Europe and showed slides of the outstanding places they visited.

A panel discussion was held on October 16 with Aubrey Dunne serving as chairman. Topic for the discussion was "The Bible and Its Place in Religion".

Members of the panel were Janet Manbeck, Jackie Gross, Ronald Deising, and Rodger Davies; devotions were conducted by Shirley Flohr.

The final Thursday meeting was a social gathering with Halloween serving as the theme. Thelma DeVoe was chairman and was assisted by Ellen Judd, Shirley Wasser, Barbara Ware, Shirley Prey, Pat Birrell, Linda Passmore, and Phyllis Storton. Refreshments were taken care of by Joan Collins, Evelyn Potter, and Carlene Hill.

The SCA held a special reception on November 5 for Mr. Robert James, Regional Secretary of SCA. Mr. James was one of the Religion-in-Life Week speakers.

Art Club

A meeting of the Art Club was held Thursday, October 23 at 7:30 p. m. in the Reception Room. The business meeting was followed by an explanation of this year's theme, "Projecting Yourself through Art", by Miss Royer.

A club program book was given to each member. At this time a picture of the group was taken for the Carontawan.

Plans for a Putter Party in the art room were discussed for the November Program.

Newman Club

The Newman Club held its first meeting October 17, at the Holy Child Church. New members were welcomed and high points of the constitution discussed.

Plans for Religion-In-Life Week were made and a committee to welcome Father Harvey, a guest speaker, was appointed.

Rehearsal dates for the new choir were set for every Thursday at 4:00 p. m.

A.E.C.I.

The October meeting of A.E.C.I. was held in the Elementary Building on October 16, with seventy members present.

Miss Melinda Fiat spoke to the group about her recent trip to South America.

The Club decided that ten students and two faculty members would attend the annual A.E.C.I. study conference at Penn State.

Lambda Mu

Lambda Mu started this year with a new advisor, Miss Florence Borkey. For Religion-In-Life Week, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia joined with Lambda Mu in presenting a musical program.

The sorority is busy planning for the initiation and banquet on Homecoming Day. Many of the graduates of previous years return to help make this our special event of the year. The pledges are Imogene Harmon and Blanche Crowder, who were formally introduced at a party on October 30, 1952.

Kappa Delta

The first meeting of Kappa Delta Pi was held in the reception room October 9, 1952. President, Joseph Dandois, presided. Members voted to extend invitations to 38 juniors and seniors to join the organization. The president appointed committees for refreshments, initiation, pledging, programs and publicity.

Gerald Darrow presented a program of music and extemporaneous speeches. Those participating were Miss O'Brien, Buzz McLean, Blaine Ballard, Barbara Long, Dawn Peech-atka, Ada Mae Frailey, and Bernice Britton.

Music Ed Club

The first meeting of the Music Education Club was held Monday, October 20, in Straughn Auditorium. At this meeting, Mr. James Justin gave a demonstration of the organ console and took the members of the club on a tour of the organ chambers in the wings of the auditorium. This was an interesting experience for everyone.

With Miss Brooks as advisor, the club has made plans for this season. One of its projects is to secure prominent musicians from off-campus to speak at the meetings.

Meetings of the club are to be alternated monthly with the Music Departmental Organization. The next program, held as a departmental meeting, will include a panel discussion concerning practice habits. Members of the faculty will participate in the discussion.

Sigma Zeta

The first meeting was held Tuesday, October 7. At this time a list of names was approved for full and associate membership.

At the next meeting, held November 4th, the full (or complete) members made initiation speeches about something amusing or interesting in the field of science.

Mr. Clarence L. Hunsicker

Dr. Clarence Mutchler

New Departmental Heads Appointed

Mr. C. L. Hunsicker, new director of Elementary Education, and principal of the Elementary Campus School, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Bloomsburg State Teachers College; and his Master of Science degree in Education from Bucknell University. For the past three summers, he has done graduate work toward a Doctorate in Education at Pennsylvania State College.

Mr. Hunsicker came to Mansfield in 1949 as supervisor in Grade Five of the Campus Elementary School. For the past two years he has been principal of the Campus Elementary School and an instructor in Elementary Education.

The following statement by Mr. Hunsicker is an indication of the seriousness and interest with which he has undertaken his new responsibilities:

"At the present time we are all aware of the serious shortage of elementary teachers and results of surveys indicate that this shortage will be much greater in the future. There are not enough teachers being trained to replace those retiring or leaving the profession for other reasons. At the present time we are training only hoping it will be used at all of our home games.

QUIK KIKS

"Putt" brought back a nice souvenir from the Kutztown game—a "mouse" under the right eye.

Jack Kutney is being aggravated by an old leg injury that began when he was romping the gridiron for Coughlin High School.

Once again Mr. Bertram Francis is doing a good job with the M.S.T.C. band. We should really be proud of them. They put a lot of time and effort in their playing and marching. They really put on a good show for the Parents during intermission of the Kings game.

So long for now. See you next month

Mansfield Drops Parents' Day Tilt

Kings College edged out the Mansfield "Mountaineers" before one of the largest "Parents Day" crowds in years, 21-14. Mansfield drew first blood in the scoring column when John Kutney heaved a 45-yard pass into the hands of Don Williams. Bob Eltringham's placement was good and the "Mounts" led 7-0. The Kingsmen were kept in check in the first quarter mainly through the efforts of the "Mountaineers" strong defensive team. Kings scored early in the second quarter with a drive that started on their own 45-yd. line. Kings then came back again with an Olshan to Miller pass good for 40 yards and another "Monarch" touchdown. The score at half-time read, Kings 14, Mansfield 7.

The second half opened with Kings striking for their third touchdown. The placement by Craig was good and Kings led 21-7. Upon receiving the returned kickoff, Mansfield took the wraps off their own passing attack. The final Mansfield score came on a 42-yd. run by John Kutney. Eltringham again converted and the score stood 21-14.

The half time featured the fine drilling and playing of the Mansfield State Teachers College Band under the direction of Mr. Bertram Francis, about 1 out of the 3 elementary teachers needed. Those of us in elementary education must accept as a major personal responsibility the obligation to identify suitable candidates, to inspire them to enter teaching, and to help them in the necessary first steps toward teaching careers. We hope to start an action program this year by providing outstanding high school seniors with information which will stimulate their interest in teaching and answer any questions they may have concerning elementary education."

Dr. Clarence Mutchler, new director of Secondary Education, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Lock Haven State Teachers College; his Master of Science degree in Education from Bucknell University, and his Doctor of Education degree from Pennsylvania State College.

Dr. Mutchler came to Mansfield in 1945 as supervisor of science in the Campus Junior High School.

A thoughtful insight into the present and future needs in Secondary Education can be found in the following statement by Dr. Mutchler:

"The preparation of competent secondary school teachers is the function of the department of Secondary Education. The work of this department becomes increasingly important as it seeks to meet the needs of the immediate future. This year the schools of the United States needed about 160,000 new elementary school teachers, but only 32,000 were graduated from all colleges and universities of the nation. This present shortage of elementary teachers is due largely to the increased number of children attending our elementary schools. We are fast approaching the time when these elementary children will move into secondary schools creating a need for thousands of additional secondary teachers."

Strouds Nip Mounts

In their game at Stroudsburg against the Strouds Warriors, the Mountaineers held the scales even by scoring two for two in the touchdown column, but lost 14-12 by failing to convert either goal. In the middle of the first quarter, Stroud's Steever made a 26 yard pass to Ted Murray for a tally, with a kick by Oliver, making it 7-0. In the second quarter, John Kutney heaved a 45 yard pass to Don Williams starting an 82 yard drive which sent Kutney over from the 4. Eltringham's kick was blocked. The half-time score stood at 7-6. In the last half Martz of the Warriors romped into the end zone bringing the score to 13-6. Oliver added a point to make it 14-6. The fourth quarter was a thriller as the Mountaineers drove for the tally so needed to get them back in the game. A fumble gave the Red and Black a break. Mansfield gained four yards through the line, after which Stilwell drove around the end for a first down. Loos was caught flat and lost a yard but on the next play came back to win 8 yards, as he ripped his way to Stroud's 2 yd. line. Ted Strein fired a well-aimed 12 yard shot to Don Williams in the end zone for Mansfield's second T. D. Eltringham's second conversion try failed. After the kick-off, Stroud again fumbled with Orse recovering for the Mounts. A 30 yard pass from Loos put Mansfield definitely in the game until a pass intended for the Red and Black was intercepted by the Red and White. A Stroud kick was run back on a nice jaunt by Stilwell to the opponent's 45. A series of incomplete passes and line splits gave the ball back to the Stroud team in the closing minutes of the game. Oliver, taking no chances, repeatedly carried the pigskin and the final whistle found the ball in his possession.

THE "MOUNTS" IN ACTION

GREEN ROOM JOTTINGS

For the first time in many years, College Players are in charge of the Christmas assembly program. On Tuesday, December 9, "The Exile," a Christmas play by Arthur Conan Doyle (famous for his creation of Sherlock Holmes) will be presented in assembly. The heart-touching drama will be given before a background of traditional Christmas music.

The story concerns an old couple, who every Christmas prepare for the return of their children, who never appear, having more selfish motives elsewhere. An escaped murderer, convicted of a crime he did not commit, seeks shelter with them for an evening. He brings back to them memories of a son from whom they have never heard. He leaves with the promise that their children shall return. The play, of a generally melancholy but fascinating tone, ends with a brilliant vision of hope, so much a part of the Christmas spirit.

The cast includes Carol Wagner as Mother; Ed Brainard as Father; Jerry Brown as a neighbor; John Thomas as the convict. Colin Giorgi is to design the set. Anna Marie Hooley and Shirley Boyle are in charge of costumes. Pat Schau is chairman of make-up; Ralph VanKeuren, of publicity; Marsha Earley, of programs; Robert Williams, of lights; Arletta Tobey, of properties. Betty Slocum is the Student Director, and Helen Haynes is prompter. Bill Bailey will play suitable music. The play was chosen by Bernie Troisi and Buzz MacLean, who both felt it is an excellent play expressing the Christian virtues and that it was an especially appropriate Christmas play.

This is one assembly that students will not want to miss.

Library News

In the past month, four new books have been added to the Rental Collection. They are "Gowns of Glory" by Turnbull, "Don Camilo and His Flock," by Guareschi, "Old Man and the Sea" by Hemingway, and "Best Science Fiction of 1952".

"Don Camilo and His Flock"—Giovanni Guareschi

Here is a rare book—a book with a heart. As a sequel, it is even better than the original. Don Camilo, the parish priest, and Peppone, the Red Mayor, are only two of the fascinating characters you will meet here.

This is one of those rare books that make reading really enjoyable. You will be sorry, when it ends and you are unable to read further.

"Gowns of Glory"—Agnes Turnbull

Life in the home of a Presbyterian minister in the early 1900's is the theme of this appealing novel. It is an old-fashioned, simple, love story combined with the problems of the local parson in almost any town or country.

"Old Man and the Sea"—Ernest Hemingway

Here is art! In this new Hemingway novel we find a classic—a book that is like no other. It is a compelling book that spells beauty—beauty of language. It is the simple story of an old fisherman and of tragedy. But in the end the tragedy emerges into a beauty that will change your very thinking. A must on your list of books

Miss Kathryn Royer and Mr. Stephen Bencetic attended an Art Conference at the Kutztown State Teachers College on November 7th and 8th. In addition to the conference they also participated in a meeting of the Pennsylvania Art Education Association. Miss Royer is secretary of this association and Mr. Bencetic is a council member for the Central Pennsylvania District.

Student Council News

Some of the work recently accomplished by the council is: the appointment of a dining room committee: Preston Erway, Tom Best, Margaret Bennett, Ada Mae Fraley, and Gus Rossi, to which any dining problems may be referred.

The council has also carried out a long-awaited-for plan by which each organization on campus will provide the social activities for a weekend. This not only provides long range social planning for the entire year, but also gives each organization a chance to make themselves well-known.

This was successful only through the co-operation of each organization. "The Student Council thanks them," for their efforts. The Student Council itself began the program with a Halloween Dance given October 25 under the chairmanship of Mary Dewey and Patrick Gallagher.

The Council also carried on an assembly meeting to show the student body the functions of the council and also, to a few Doubting Thomases, what the Council has actually accomplished. They are limited in their work only by the student body's hesitancy to bring problems to them. The student body elected the Council—why not use them?

Christmas Time at M.S.T.C.

Mansfield State Teachers College To Begin Christmas Festivities

On Wednesday, December 10, the Christmas festivities of Mansfield State Teachers College will officially begin. The first event on this year's program is the tree-lighting ceremony, which will take place tomorrow evening at 7:00 p. m., in the concert area. Music will be furnished by the brass choir under the direction of Mr. Benjamin Husted.

On Thursday, December 11, at 6:45 p. m., there will be a Freshman Chorus and Group Singing under the direction of Mr. Joseph Golz. This event will be held in the first floor foyer.

On Friday, December 12, at 6:45 p. m., will be the traditional open house in the wells of North Hall. Preceding this will be a judging of the wells and doors of North Hall by the following committee: Mr. and Mrs. Jay Foreman, Dr. and Mrs. Newell Schappelle, Mr. Joseph Golz and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lunn. Ribbons will be awarded to the best well and doors.

On Saturday, December 13, at 6:45 p. m., a sing, under the direction of Mr. Daniel Border, will be held in first floor foyer. This sing will include a variety of solos and group singing, and will feature numbers by the Knickerbocker Quartet. A Christmas Novelty Time will be held in the student center from 8:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m.

The "Messiah" will be presented by the College Community Chorus and the Community Vesper Service on Sunday, December 14, at 7:30 p. m. Additional Christmas music will be presented by the Music Education Department. All music will be under the direction of Mr. Daniel Border.

On Monday, December 15, at 6:00 p. m., the annual semi-formal Christmas dinner will be held in the College dining room. The dinner will be followed by Lambda Mu and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia under the direction of Betty Hayden and Gerald Darrow. At 8:00 p. m. there will be a semi-formal Christmas dance in the gymnasium.

At 12:00 midnight there will be caroling by the Seniors, followed by refreshments at the home of President and Mrs. Morgan.

The committee who planned this fine Christmas program are: Margie Edmunds, Jerry Brown, Alice Ferris, Irene Prokopowicz, Bill Trowbridge, Lois Long and Mary Konsko.

Mr. Joseph Golz

College Community Chorus to Present "Messiah"

It has become traditional for the College Chorus, as it is with almost every chorus, to present portions from the Christmas section of Handel's "Messiah" for the Christmas Vesper program. This year, however, the chorus will be pioneering, for every member of the town choirs and interested college students from every department have been invited to join them in singing this oratorio. For a long time many people eager to participate in the heavenly Hallelujah Chorus have had only the opportunity to listen. Now, under the direction of Mr. Daniel Border, these people will have the chance to sing—and the chorus welcomes them.

President Morgan's citation reads:

"Educator, churchman, public spirited citizen; a graduate of Muhlenburg College and the University of Michigan, James G. Morgan has devoted his life to the education of youth. This education of youth was not confined to the halls of learning, but found expression through youth-serving agencies such as the Boy Scouts of America.

"As President of the Mansfield State Teachers College, he has been highly successful in counselling with young men as to their careers and counts among his former students many who are now in the Career Service of the Boy Scouts of America.

"He has been in demand as a speaker at educational and Boy Scout meetings throughout Pennsylvania and served ten years as Chairman of the Boy Scout Committee for the American Legion, Department of Pennsylvania, and successfully promoted the program through Legion sponsorship.

"Always ready to answer the call of civic duty and community responsibility, he has spent 12 years on the Tioga County Selective Service Board and was awarded the Congressional Selective Service Medals. Since 1942 he has served as Tioga County Chairman of War Savings and Bond Drives and has received the U. S. Treasury award.

"He is now serving on the Executive Board of the Tioga County Cancer Society.

"Through the broad field of education and state-wide civic organizations he has given leadership to the advancement of the Boy Scout program to reach an increasing number of boys.

"For this outstanding service, Region Three is proud to award the Silver Antelope to President James G. Morgan."

MSTC Welcomes New Faculty Member

Mr. Joseph Golz, a new member of the Music Department this year, received his B. S. from Trenton State Teachers College in Trenton, N. J., and his Masters degree from Columbia University in New York City. He also attended Juilliard School of Music for graduate work.

Before coming to Mansfield, Mr. Golz taught voice and directed choral music at Murray College in Kentucky.

Here, Mr. Golz teaches voice, directs the Freshman Chorus and manages the Opera Theatre Workshop.

Sophomores Hold Formal Dance

On the evening of November 1, 1952, the Sophomore formal dance was held in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance was "Arabian Nights" and the gym was decorated in shades of blue. John Nicholas' Orchestra furnished the music. The Sophomore class produced a successful and pleasurable evening. Chairman for the occasion was Sally Gibbon.

College Players Present Christmas Play

This afternoon at 1:45 p. m., the College Players presented in assembly "The Exile," a one-act Christmas play by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes. The moving drama, not in the usual Doyle style, concerned the Christmas Eve of two old people, a mother and a father who, every Christmas Eve, await the arrival of their children, long since grown-up and moved out into the world. But each Christmas they wait in vain, for their children are too busy to bother with their parents. However, one Christmas Eve they are visited by an escaped convict who is seeking refuge from the bitter cold. He reminds the elderly couple of one of their sons. After chatting for awhile, the convict leaves, promising them that their children shall return. And the play-gover feels that, as the Christmas prophecy is fulfilled, so this promise will be fulfilled, even by a murderer.

Playing the difficult role of the mother was Carol Wagner, College Players secretary, in her first role. E. Brainard, seen in last spring's "The Taming of the Shrew," played the father. As the convict was John Thomas, who has played in "Light up the Sky," and "The Taming of the Shrew." Jerry Brown acted the part of the neighbor. He, too, was seen in "The Taming of the Shrew." Betty Slocum, treasurer of College Players, had the demanding position of student director, ably assisted by Helen Haynes and Shirley Boyle. Before this play, Miss Slocum has worked on many backstage committees and is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national dramatic fraternity. Colin Giorgi designed the setting. Mr. Giorgi has worked for two years with the Corning Summer Theatre in Corning, N. Y.

Other committee chairmen: Robert Williams, lights; Pat Schau, make-up; Marsha Earley, programs; Shirley Boyle and Anne Marie Hooley, costumes; Arletta Tobey, properties; Ralph Van Keuren, publicity. They are all to be commended for their excellent work in carrying out their various tasks, which for the largest part go unrewarded.

The cast rehearsed for three weeks to perfect the difficult drama in order to inject into it the spirit of Christmas, generosity, and pathos. The play ended on a note of optimistic hope, so much a part of the joyous

College Holds Vesper Services

On November 2, 1952, at 7:30 p. m., in Straughn Auditorium, at M.S.T.C., the first college vesper service for the year was held. Miss Borkey played the organ prelude. The Vesper Choir, conducted by Mr. Daniel Border, opened the program with a selection by Bach. Other selections sung by the choir during the service were by Brahms and Werner. Next a hymn was sung by those attending the service. Scripture Reading from the Ephesians, Chapter 3, was given by Reverend Clement Brozena. The address on "The Revelance of Religion" was made by Reverend Rudolph Harvey, O. F. M., Ph. D., Professor of Philosophy, from St. Bonaventure University, Olean, New York. Benediction was given by Reverend Gerard Canivan and the organ postlude by Handel was played by Miss Borkey.

The next College Community Vesper Service will be held on Sunday, December 14, 1952. The "Messiah" will be given by the College Chorus and College-Community Chorus under the direction of Mr. Daniel Border. A welcome is extended to all students and town residents to attend the service.

President Morgan Receives Silver Antelope Award

President James G. Morgan attended the Annual Meeting of Region Three, Boy Scouts of America, held at Buck Hill Falls on November 6-8. Region Three comprises Virginia, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland and Pennsylvania.

At this meeting he was awarded the Silver Antelope for distinguished service to Boyhood. The award is made for noteworthy service of exceptional character to boyhood by registered Scouters within the Region. President Morgan had previously been awarded the Silver Beaver for his services in the General Sullivan Council. He has served Scouting since 1913 from Scoutmaster to Council President, and at present is Council Chairman of Leadership Training, member of the Executive Board and Council Representative to the National Council.

The Mansfield State Teachers College Marching Band, which has given so many fine performances at football games, is pictured above in "M" formation. The Band has been an inspiration to our team, student body, and faculty, and has added much to the school spirit at M. S. T. C. It is composed of 84 members and is under the direction of Mr. Bertram Francis.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

Christmas is almost here. In our college, committees are planning Christmas festivities, choruses are rehearsing Christmas music, organizations are selling Christmas cards, and all students are talking about presents, campus decorations and vacation.

In cities and towns across the United States, Christmas lights are being strung across the streets, store clerks are pulling down boxes of tinsel and colored balls from high shelves, neighborhood women are exchanging recipes of fruit cake across the back fence, and children are making out lists for Santa Claus.

There is an anxious hustling to buy a few more presents in the remaining shopping days, and strains of "Jingle Bells" and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" are floating out from radios and phonographs. Large trucks are beginning to haul loads of thick evergreen trees to city markets, and teenagers are planning taffy pulls, caroling parties, and sleigh rides.

All these customs are a part of our American Christmas, and a good part if the true meaning of our Christmas is not forgotten.

We can see the true spirit of Christmas in many things; in the manger scene of a Christmas pageant, in the perfection of a snowflake on the Christmas wreath, in the heart of a woman packing a basket for a poor family.

We can hear it in the muted voices of carolers on a distant street corner, in the chimes of a church bell, in the clear, sweet voices of choir boys singing "Joy to the World".

We can find the true meaning of Christmas in a story of wise men and a star, in the birth of a Holy Child on a bed of hay, and in a promise of joy, hope and peace for all men, brought by Him for Whom we celebrate Christmas. —The Editor.

THE SPIRIT OF GIVING

Christmas is a time of giving. And the most puzzling problem of this colorful Christmas holiday is "What shall I give?" Lord Balfour, British statesman and essayist, had no problem whatever. Said he: "The best thing to give your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity."

Everyone has these gifts to give. What a wonderful world this would be if everyone gave these gifts, which cannot be sullied by worldliness. If such generosity reigned, the world would transcend itself into a Utopia without strife. It is too much to hope for the complete fulfillment of this wish, but who would forbid the hope for partial fulfillment? Be generous with such gifts which are many within your person, and Christmas will truly be a time of giving, fitting for Christmas, all the year around. —Eric Hughes.

National Science Foundation Fellowships

The National Science Foundation has recently announced its second graduate fellowship program for the academic year 1953-54. Fellowships will be awarded for graduate study in the biological, engineering, mathematical, medical, and physical sciences. These fellowships are limited to citizens of the United States.

More than five hundred Fellows will be selected for a year of graduate study. Selections are made solely on the basis of ability. The majority of the awards will go to graduate students seeking masters or doctors degrees in science, although a limited number of awards will be made to postdoctoral applicants.

Graduating college seniors in the sciences who desire to enter graduate school are encouraged to apply for awards.

The three-part rating system for predoctoral Fellows will consist of test scores of scientific aptitude and achievement, academic records, and recommendations regarding each individual's merit. Postdoctoral applicants will not be required to take the examinations.

The stipends for predoctoral Fellows range from $1400 to $1800; the stipend for postdoctoral Fellows is $3400. In addition, tuition and certain required fees will be paid by the Foundation. Limited allowances will be provided for dependents and for travel to a Fellow's graduate institution. The tenure of a fellowship is for one year and can be arranged to begin at any time after June 1, 1953, but must not normally be later than the beginning of the academic year at the institution of the Fellow's choice.

Applications for the current National Science Foundation awards may be obtained from the Fellowship Office, National Research Council, Washington 25, D. C., which is assisting the Foundation in the screening and eval-

Newman Club

For the month of December, the Newman Club held a Christmas Communion on December 7 in the Holy Child Chapel. The regular business meeting was held on December 9 in the American Legion home. This meeting was immediately followed by a Christmas party with Tony Roan serving as chairman of the arrangements.

Student Christian Association

Following Religion-In-Life Week special meetings of the planning committee were held to determine what steps should be taken to continue the interest and activities that were started during this week. The results will be put under way as soon as possible.

The Thursday evening meeting before vacation had as its theme, Thanksgiving. Plans and special music were taken care of by the members of the Christian Faith and Heritage Commission.

A special Thanksgiving service was held in Straughn Hall on Tuesday morning, November 25. It is hoped that these services may be continued once a week if the students maintain an interest in them.

Lambda Mu

Lambda Mu Sorority held its annual initiation on Homecoming Day. The initiates were Blanche Crowder and Imogene Harmon. After the ceremony a banquet was held at the Bon-Ton Restaurant in Blossburg.

Art Club

A meeting of the Art Club was held November 18 in the Arts Building.

Lois Long and Mary Konsko, co-chairmen of the Christmas Committee presented unique ideas for campus Christmas decorations. Snowflakes are an important part of the decorations.

The Christmas Committees were announced. Every club member is urged to give support to the Christmas decorating.

Shirley Campbell and Gertrude Schnell were in charge of refreshments for the evening.

Phi Sigma Pi

At a formal initiation held Nov. 20, 1952, nine new members were added to Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity. They are: Robert M. Kane, Raymond B. Maginsky, B. Foster Wetmore, Fred C. Davis, Philip D. Cady, William H. Trowbridge, Jack B. Kelsey, Olin W. Evans, and John P. Thomas. All the old members of Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity unite in extending to these new members a most cordial welcome.

On Dec. 6, 1952 in the Student Center the annual "Sod Busters Ball" sponsored by Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity, was held. Prizes were given for the best dressed persons in attendance at the "ball". For those dressed appropriately admission was only $.50 a couple. For those not dressed for the occasion the admission was $.75. There was a cake walk and round, square, and polka dancing to the music by "The Mansfield Swingbillies".

The officers of Phi Sigma Pi Fraternity for this year are: President—Stanley Raykovitz, Vice President—Chester Swimley, Secretary—Robert Day, Treasurer—Alphonse Zastovony, Historian—Paul Raszmann, and advisor Mr. Sundberg.

Omicron Gamma Pi

Omicron Gamma Pi held their annual Christmas Party December 10, in the Arts Building. The club had as their guests the members of Phi Sigma Pi and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. Miss Thelma Lee was chairman of the party.

On November 18, 1952, the senior Home Economics students produced an assembly entitled "As We Were". This was original scenes about various types of work the girls did for their summer projects.

Mrs. Gailbraith opened the program uation of fellow applicants. Completed applications must be returned by January 5, 1953. Applicants for predoctoral fellowships will be required to take certain parts of the Graduate Record Examinations which will be administered at selected centers in the United States on January 30-31, 1953. Applicants will be rated by Fellowship Boards established by the National Academy of Sciences—National Research Council. Final selection of Fellows will be made by the National Science Foundation.

Campus Organizations

by explaining the assignment for the summer. The assembly was closed by Mrs. Morales hearing the reports of the summer made by each student. The narrators for the program were Barbara Bottenhorn, Lois Owens and June Wertz.

On November 8, 1952, the following girls moved into the home management apartment: Doris Fritz, Eve Anne Mull, Pat Newton, Alma Reaver, Phyllis Riley and Jerry Shipley. The girls that have moved from the home management apartment to the dorm were: Phyllis Barnes, Gertrude Dixon, Dorothy Irwin, Thelma Lee and Nancy Strausser. This group of girls reopened the Junior High school lunch since Thanksgiving. The girls now living in the apartment have planned the following events: picnic, buffet meal, formal dinner, weekend guest, an evening party and a tea.

The Nutrition class, under the instruction of Miss Maryon Farrer, made experiments of different diets with white rats. The experiment proved how important a well-balanced diet is to each individual.

Day Students

The Day Student club devoted its attention to two projects in the month of November, the mum concession and the float for Homecoming Day. Both of these projects were successful. The Day Student Float, depicting the Mansfield campus landmark, the clock tower of Alumni Hall, won first prize in the parade. This is the second year in succession that a Day Student Float has taken a first prize.

Kappa Delta Pi

Kappa Delta Pi held its second meeting in the Reception Room November 6, 1952. Fifty-five members were present.

Thirty-six new members were initiated into Kappa Delta Pi. After the formal initiation ceremony, an informal initiation took place, consisting of essays, musical selections, and humorous skits on the part of the initiators.

The following were initiated: Barbara Bottenhorn, Margie Edmunds, Margaret Fray, Joyce Foreman, Malcolm Neeley, Robert Parfitt, Ernest Presher, Betty Slocum, Ross Whetstone, Samuel Woodard, William Bailey, Dorothy Brittain, Shirley Campbell, Diane Davis, Florence Gable, Olin Evans, Bradley Freeman, Doris Fritz, Elaine Gee, Imogene Harmon, Dorothy Irwin, Paul Larson, Martha Merritt, Louise Pier, William Powell, Jean Robson, Patricia Schau, Mary Ruth Squire, Margaret Strupcowski, Dwight Swimley, John Thomas, Shirley Timmins, William Trowbridge, Carol Wagner, Clarence Whetstone, Robert Williams and Margaret Woodburn.

Joseph Dandois and Sam Woodward were chosen as delegates to the Kappa Delta Pi regional conference to be held at Kent State University, Kent, Ohio, on December 6.

In conclusion, refreshments of iced tea and cup cakes were served.

Kappa Phi

On October 28, the pledges of Kappa Phi were given the degree of the pine. Doris Riegle sang a solo at this ceremony. There are 17 pledges. They are Annette Achenbach, Harriet Commins, Joanne Davis, Annita Emanuel, Jackie Gross, Betty Hayden, Joyce Kelchner, Nancy Morehouse, Barbara Ware, Doris Neely, Gladys Neilton, Shirley Prey, Elaine Rodgers, Gail Snyder, Phyllis Storton, Lucia Tompkins and Nancy VanDyke.

On November 10, the pledges put on their program. It was a Thanksgiving theme which was very well done. All the pledges took part in the program.

On Dec. 8, initiation for all pledges was held.

A.C.E.I.

Miss Elizabeth Stalford and Miss Mildred Grigsby, accompanied by the following students, attended an A.C.E.I. conference at State College, Saturday November 8: Anna Burgett, Marie Freeman, Marilyn Brush, Carol McLaughlin, Alice Ferris, Shirley Schneider, Louise Erickson, Lois Long, Margaret Fray, and Gerald Brown. The theme of the conference was "ACEI Branches Grow by Working Together and Sharing Ideas."

Kappa Omicron Phi

Kappa Omicron Phi held open house at the home of Miss Melinda Fiat for returning alumni of Alpha Beta chapter after the football game on Homecoming Day. Returning alumni who attended were: Gloria Benfer, Virginia Cherrington, Nadine Davidheiser, Mabel Fuller, Frances Hoffman, Catherine Lobach Stover, Catherine Prouty and Margaret Spleen.

Flashlight News

The Flashlight Staff held its annual autumn dinner October 22, at the home of Dr. Elizabeth Swan. After the meeting, the staff members and their guests enjoyed an evening of cards, dancing and other games.

Science and English Heads Appointed

President James G. Morgan, in connection with a general program for strengthening the Secondary Department of the college, has named certain subject matter heads. Mr. Leonard K. Beyer will direct the Science field and Dr. Elizabeth M. Swan, the English.

A closer relationship between the academic classroom and the laboratory school should grow out of this delegation of responsibility.

Secondary students, especially freshmen and sophomores, are urged to consult subject-matter heads in respect to their choice of major and minor specializations.

Public Relations

Mr. Fred A. Jupenlaz has assumed the position of acting director of public relations of Mansfield State Teachers College. Mr. Jupenlaz is also Veterans' Counselor.

Any students who have news of college activities or honors which they wish published in their home town newspaper, should contact Mr. Jupenlaz in the Office of Public Relations.

M-Club Holds Annual Dance

The M-club on Nov. 15, held their annual "all-sports" dance. The M-club was aided by the close co-operation of the freshman football players and the M-club's many friends from North Hall.

The dance was held in the college gym and the decorations were in keeping with the fine traditions set up by former M-club dances. The music was provided by that "miniature Stan Kenton", our own local bandster, Lee Vincent. Mr. Vincent has become nationally famous, receiving very favorable copy in the music world's publication "Downbeat" along with many others. His popularity here at Mansfield is an established fact, as this is his third repeat at M. S. T. C.

The dance itself was of cabaret style, having tables and chairs lining both walls. The decorations were red and black, separated by a V-shaped middle section, consisting of white streamers. Refreshments were also available.

Members of the committees were: Dance: Steve Jurnack, "Pop" Strein, Bert Ruegg. Tickets: Dick Wilson, Chester Swimley.

Refreshments: "Putt" Malanach, Frank Sudak, Bill Young. Equipment: "Mr. Football" Rossi, Mel Dickinson, Ed Loos, "Soddy" Miller.

Programs: Tom Best, "Swish" Orse, "Crazy-legs" Roan.

Decorations: Steve Jurnack. The M-club would also like to thank all organizations who helped make their dance a success.

College Sings

The college sings are held in the first or second floor well. The entire campus is invited to attend so let's all try to go to the sings. Watch the calendar.

Freshman Wins Tournament

Joan Homisak, the only freshman to enter, won the W.A.A. fall tennis tournament. She hails from Pittsburgh and is taking the elementary course. She has played tennis for five years, but has never entered a tournament previous to this year. She claims tennis as her favorite sport.

Carlene Hill, from Ulster, Pa., champion of the sophomore section, was runner-up. She is also in elementary education.

Both girls played well and showed good sportsmanship. Joan won her match from Carlene by the scores of 6-3, 3-6, and 9-7.

BASKETBALL BRIEFS

With football out of the picture for a while, Coach Rushin has taken the basketballs out of storage for the boys to toss around a bit. Practice was started earlier than usual this year, November!

With approximately 40 men out to make the team, Rushin has but five returning lettermen to build his squad around. They are as follows: Steve Jurnack and Chet Smiley, centers; Jim Marshall and Joe Orse, guards. Ed Loos, after a year's absence from the hardwood, is back fighting for a position on the squad.

Due to graduation last May, the "Mounts" lost four first-stringers and two of these four were the "Mounts" leading scorers. They were Bobby Maxson and "Hank" Goodman. Both of them played forward. Nate George, the play-maker of last year's team, and Bobby Lieb, were the guards.

Some of the men that have looked good in training are: Sophomore Ed Merritt, who played J.V. ball last year. Ed is ineligible for intercollegiate play until the second semester, so he'll miss the first five games.

Sam Woodard will be able to participate in the games played in the remainder of this semester only as he graduates in January.

Big Max Moore is expected to round out in form and become one of the team's mainstays.

Don Williams, a newcomer to M.S.T.C. shows a lot of promise on the court. He proved himself on the gridiron.

All in all we are looking for a successful season under the guidance of Mr. Rushin.

Steve Jurnack and Jim Marshall are co-captains of this year's squad.

Lock Haven Romps Over M.S.T.C. 32-7

The Lock Haven Bald Eagles, sparked by fullback Bob Craig, gained their sixth victory at the expense of the Mansfield Mountaineers, 32-7.

The game was just three minutes old when Craig crashed over from the five-yard line. The remainder of the first quarter featured a kicking duel between both squads.

The down state teachers scored early in the second quarter to take a 12-0 lead. A few moments later, Jack Kutney grabbed a Bald Eagle punt on his own 37-yard line and started racing towards enemy territory behind some beautiful blocking by his teammates. Joe Orse threw the main block on Lock Haven's 30-yard line and Jack went all the way for the Mount's only score. Then Jack went back to the 12 yard line and booted the extra point. Towards the end of the period, Lock Haven was held for three downs by the Mount's forward wall. On their fourth try, Lock Haven scored their third T. D. to take a 19-7 half time lead.

Jim Salatho smashed over for a score from Mansfield's 8-yard line to put L. H. out further, 25-7.

The final Lock Haven score came on a 20-yard pass to Bizzare thrown by Craig.

Edinboro Edges M.S.T.C. 12 to 7

The Mansfield Mountaineers were defeated by the Edinboro Red Raiders 12 to 7. Both teams played a hard-fought game, but Edinboro put across the one touchdown needed for the victory, although they failed to convert after both touchdowns.

The first quarter featured mainly a kicking duel, with neither team being able to score. In this quarter the Mounts racked up three first downs, mainly on passes. Edinboro was able to ring up only one first down and this was by the running of their flying fullback, Edmunds, one of the best backs to invade M.S.T.C. this season.

Front Row: Robert Chamberlain, Sheffield; Jack Pearson, Phillipsburg; Kenneth MacDonald, Sayre; Kenneth Warmkessel, Shamokin; and Vincent Stepulis, Pittston.

SPORTS SPUTTERS

Hi there, sports fans,

Now that another football season has ended, we'll be looking ahead to basketball.

Although the "Mounts" won but two games, while dropping six, they never lacked the determination or will to win. Acting coach Rushin did a good job while working with many inexperienced men.

One oddity of the season was Ed Loos scoring in the first and last games only—and the "Mounts" won them both. Maybe we could say here that "the way Loos goes, so goes Mansfield."

The boys put on a good show for the returning Alumni. This year Homecoming was one of the best ever held here. The town was decorated by pledges of the Phi Sigs. Twenty-one organizations went all out and made floats, which paraded around town, preceded by the M.S.T.C. band and the new football queen. The game started as soon as the parade was over and the queen was crowned. Plenty of thrill kept the fans on their feet in many parts of the game.

Senior in Final Role

Kutney High Scorer

Jack Kutney, Mansfield's triple threat scat-back, captured scoring honors this year by getting five touchdowns and two conversions for a total of 32 points. Ed Loos was runner-up with four tallies for 24 points (Ed got three of his touchdowns in the final game). Next came lanky Don Williams, who crossed the goal line three times. Don, an end, made his three tallies via the pass route. Joe Gianetto, Joe Orse, and Lloyd Kieffer each scored one touchdown. End Bob Eltringham made good on six conversions and center, Bill Young added two extra points.

Early in the second quarter, Edinboro scored first. Their scoring drive started on Mansfield's 45-yard line. After a series of first downs, Karzan scored from the 3-yard line on a hand-off from quarterback Steblin. The placement by Spaulding was incomplete. On the return kick-off the Mounts started a touchdown drive of their own, from their own 11-yard line. Mansfield unleashed a devastating passing attack. Kutney passed to Williams for a first down on the 30-yard line. This was followed by another pass from Kutney to Williams this time covering 45 yards. On the very next play John Kutney passed, 30 yards to Joe Orse for Mansfield's touchdown. Bob Eltringham converted for the extra point. Neither team could do much more and the half ended with M.S.T.C. ahead 7 to 6.

Mansfield made three first downs in the third quarter but were unable to score. It was in this quarter that Edinboro scored their second touchdown, which provided the winning margin. They started driving on their own 38-yard line with Edmunds, who seemed to be their outstanding player, running for two first downs. Then on the 15-yard line quarterback Steblin threw a 16 yard pass to Parks for Edinboro's second touchdown. Murdock blocked the kick when Edinboro tried for the extra point. The score now standing 12-7 Edinboro leading. During the last quarter of the game Mansfield was trying very hard to get that touchdown needed so badly.

A note of interest on this scoring list is that all of the above mentioned are underclassmen and will return next year (that is, if the Armed Forces don't get them).

Quick Kicks

Lloyd Kieffer, promising freshman, let it be known in the Millersville game that he'll be doing a lot of galloping on the gridiron next year. Lloyd proved to be a worthy replacement for the injured Kutney in the last game.

Jack Kutney suffered from a slight concussion in the Millersville game. Incidentally, Jack's father came up from Wilkes-Barre to watch his son play.

Coach Rushin gave a few of the boys a chance to prove their worth as kickers. Kutney, Eltringham and Young tried for extra points. Kutney, Sudak and Young booted on the kick-offs. Young, D. Williams and Kutney punted.

Nate "Scooter" George, now an Ensign in the Navy at Bainbridge, Md., was one of the many spectators at the Homecoming tilt. He looked really "sharp" in his uniform. Other visiting athletes of last year and years gone by were Ed Mollahan, Pat Fischetti, "Hank" Goodman, Jack Dunbar, Ed. Flanagan, Ford Button and Ernie Codispotti, honorary members of the M Club. Ford is the boy that is responsible for the designing of the fancy work that is seen on the M Club Jackets. Tom Hurley, Bobby Lieb, and Bill Johnson, now coaching basketball at neighboring Wellsboro, were a few of the ex-athletes visiting the campus on Homecoming Day.

So long for now. See you next month.

Neither team made much headways due to damaging fumbles on both sides. Edinboro made one last drive, but was halted by a goal line stand by the Mounts. The final score was 12 to 7 in favor of Edinboro.

Mansfield Takes Homecoming Day Tilt 27-21

The Mansfield "Mountaineers" added a special treat to the Homecoming Day activities by downing the Millersville Marauders' 27-21. The "Mounts" started to roll early in the first quarter, using the passing of John Kutney and the fine running of Ed Loos. The "Mounts" started their first scoring drive from their own 30-yard line.

Represent MSTC at Band Festival

Eleven students from the Music Education Department at the Mansfield State Teachers College and Band Director Bertram Francis participated in the State Collegiate Band Festival December 4, 5, 6, at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where Leonard Smith, noted soloist and cornet artist of Detroit, Michigan, was the guest conductor.

Student participants for the Festival are selected by a three-member board, of which Mr. Francis is a member.

Ed Loos ran off the left tackle for 40 yards, putting the ball on the Millersville 30. From there Kutney dropped back and passed to Loos in the end zone for the first score. Kutney's try for the extra point was good. Millersville, meanwhile, was having trouble with their pass catching and were held in check throughout the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter John Kutney was sidelined with an injury and Lloyd Kieffer replaced him. Minutes later a Kieffer to Williams pass brought a first down for the "Mounts" on the "Marauders" 20-yard line. Kieffer then threw another pass to Ed Loos for a T.D. The placement was no good. Millersville came right back and drove the length of the field, which ended with a D'Amico to Peffer pass good for the score. The extra point was made by Clement. The score stood at half-time 13-7 in favor of the "Mounts."

In the third quarter, after Millersville ran for two first downs, the "Mounts" took over on their own 40-yard line. A series of first downs by Kieffer, Loos, and again Kieffer, took the ball to the 30-yard line of Millersville.

From there a pass from Strein to Roan took the ball to the four, from where Loos plunged over. Conversion by Bill Young was good and Mansfield led 20-7. On the following kick-off, which started the beginning of the fourth quarter, Millersville fumbled and the "Mounts" recovered on the Millersville 30-yard line. "Soddy" Miller made a first down on the 18-yard line. After several plays had elapsed, Kieffer ran around the end for the fourth T.D. Young's conversion again was good and the "Mounts" led 27-7. Millersville then put on a terrific rally and scored two quick scores, D'Amico scoring the first on a quarterback sneak and Peffer the other on a buck from 4-yard line. Both conversions by Clement were good, and the "Mounts" still led 27-21. With but a minute remaining Mansfield ran out the clock with four running plays.

$500.00 Contest Open To Undergraduate Students

A chance to win $500.00 in prizes is offered to undergraduate students throughout the country by the Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners, Washington, D. C. Contestants are invited to submit papers on the subject, "The Advantages of Re-Refined Oil."

Verne T. Worthington, president of the Association, announced last week. Purpose of the contest, according to Worthington, is to further research on the re-cycling of a vital natural resource in the interests of oil conservation. He explained that bibliography on the subject is somewhat limited and another purpose of the contest is to stimulate original research on the subject of the recycling of once-used lubricating oil.

Students desiring to enter the contest may secure a list of companies engaged in re-refining of oil and a summary of available data by writing to: The Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners, 1917 Eye Street, N. W.,

Washington 6, D. C. Manuscripts must be no shorter than 1000 words and no longer than 2000 words in length and be submitted to the Association's Contest Committee postmarked no later than March 31, 1953.

First prize will be $250.00; second prize, $100.00, with three other prizes of $50.00 each.

Contest Rules

1. Essays must be no shorter than 1000 words and not longer than 2000 words. Manuscripts must be written on one side of the page. Name and address must appear on each page.

2. Papers must be submitted: Contest Committee, Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners, 1917 Eye Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope if you desire manuscript to be returned.

3. Students desiring to enter the contest may secure a list of companies engaged in re-refining of lubricating oil and a summary of available data by writing to the Association. Enclose self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply.

4. Under the new rules the contest closes midnight, March 31, 1953. Entries must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 31.

5. All entries become the property of the sponsor, the Association of Petroleum Re-Refiners.

6. Decision of the judges is final. In case of tie, duplicate prizes will be awarded.

W.A.A. Holds Christmas Party

The W.A.A. Christmas party was held on December 3 in the gym with a large part of the membership attending. The festivities began with a tree lighting ceremony in the lobby. A student choir presented seasonal music. Gifts were distributed by Santa Claus.

The association collected gifts for the welfare children and bought larger gifts for two children as a club Christmas project. Another project, under the chairmanship of Eppie Clossen, was the selling of Christmas cards.

The volleyball tournaments have been underway with Josie Ascenzi, Donna Congdon, and Nancy Van Dyke as managers. The final play-offs will soon decide the championship. Basketball will begin after the Christmas vacation.

Kutztown Downs Mounts, 28-7

The Mansfield Mountaineers made their longest trip of the season to Kutztown only to be beaten by the rejuvenated Golden Avalanche, 28-7. (The G. A. had been trounced the previous Saturday by West Chester, S.T. C. 58-0.)

The "Mounts" got off to a fast start, when with the game only 3 minutes old, fullback Jack Kutney broke loose from a series of players and romped 60 yards for a score. Bob Eltringham booted the extra point to put Mansfield in the lead, 7-0. A Kutztown fumble was recovered by Ted Strein and the visitors were threatening to score once again. Mansfield's drive for another score was halted and the ball changed hands a few times before the first quarter ended.

The second quarter was the big one for the Maroon and Gold as they racked up 14 points, while the Mountaineers strove desperately to stem the tide. Early in this quarter Kutztown rolled ahead for five straight first downs, climaxed by a quarter-back sneak into the end zone by Villiano, who added his own extra point by a kick, tying the score 7-7. In the kick-off John Kutney brought the ball back in a spectacular run, but was injured temporarily as he was brought down by a host of tacklers and Keiffer replaced him. Stilwell then ran for 20 yards but the spurt died as the Mountaineers bucked the line without gain to give the ball back to Kutztown. The Avalanche then took the advantage in a sustained drive that sent their Varacelo over from the 6 for their second T. D., while Villiano's second conversion put the score at 14-7. With half-time in sight, John Kutney heaved a beautiful 60 yard pass to Loos on the Kutztown 15 yard line and it looked like another Mansfield touchdown, but the time clock decreed otherwise as the half ended.

The Avalanche kick at the half was run back by Miller and then the game see-sawed with Mansfield passing and Kutztown rushing. Kirchgassner of Kutztown then crashed his way from the 44 to the Mansfield 15. On this play, Kutney was the lone hurdle between the mighty Avalanche back and the end zone, but two great gridders met as Kirchgassner was stopped by a crushing tackle. The Mountaineers then held deep in their own territory forcing Kutztown to give over on downs. Kutney then, in what proved to be his last gallant play of the game, ran the ball from his own 10 to the 30, but was removed from the game due to injuries received on the tackle. Bill Young came in the game and a long kick gave Kutztown the ball in their own territory. The Maroon and Gold gained ground around end and through the line until Toughill chalked up their third T.D. on a 23 yard run, while the conversion by Villiano put his team ahead 21-7.

In the fourth quarter, Ted Strein shot a short pass over center to Tony Roan after which Williams in a take-off from Stilwell crashed to the Kutztown 45. Stilwell then wormed his way to a 30 for a first down, then followed the advantage with a pass to Mal'nich on the opponent's 15. A series of losses and an intercepted pass put Kutztown on the offensive again and sending Morris to the Mansfield 15 on an end run. Komar, Kutztown center, then drove to the 5 and on the next play, Morris went for a touchdown on an off tackle maneuver. The habitual conversion by Villiano brought the score to 28-7. At the kick, Miller made one of his speedy run backs, but Mansfield failed to gain as they went to the air in an effort to score once more before the final whistle.

MUSICAL MERRY-GO-ROUND

More plans for this year's season of the Mansfield Community Symphony Orchestra were announced recently by Mr. Sigmund Michota, its director, which lead one to believe that this orchestra is fast becoming a fixed and important part of Mansfield's community and college life. This year there will be soloists performing in all of the three scheduled concerts, Dec. 7, March 22, and May 10. Charles Driscoll, senior in the Music Department and piano pupil of Mr. John Doyle, performed the Allegro Movement of the Beethoven 1st Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in the Dec. 7 concert. The Wellsboro Male Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Allan Jones of Wellsboro, will appear as soloist with the orchestra in the March 22 concert. The winner of the Mansfield Community Orchestra Scholarship will be presented as soloist with the orchestra in the May 10 concert. This scholarship, as outlined in this column last month, is offered by the orchestra to all students presently enrolled in the high schools of Tioga County and Troy High School. This is a $100 scholarship which entitles the winner to a year in the Music Department of the college, along with automatic membership in the orchestra and the scheduled solo appearance with the orchestra. All of the concerts are presented free of charge.

Membership in the orchestra is open to anyone interested in spending one night a week playing music. Mr. Michota has urged all interested persons to take advantage of this fine opportunity for participating in music on the adult level.

The Band followed the football team to Lock Haven on Nov. 8 to do their part in spirited the team to victory. They presented a new half-time show which is fast becoming a fifth-quarter for the Mountaineer fans.

The evening Promenade Recitals have begun. These recitals are given by the more advanced students of the Music Department. Drop in Straughn Hall some evening for "Music After Dinner."

Faculty Column

Miss Marjorie Brooks attended the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association which met in Harrisburg on December 4th-6th. At the last meeting of the convention, the Intercollegiate Band, which had been meeting at nearby Franklin and Marshall College at the same time gave a stirring concert. Mr. Bertram Francis accompanied Mansfield students to the two-day session and acted as sergeant-at-arms for the meeting of the Intercollegiate Band.

The entire Music Education Department met on November 17 to hear a panel discussion by members of the music education faculty and Dr. Siebert on "Effective Practice Habits."

Mr. Hunsicker announced that many parents visited the schools during National Education Week-November 9-15. The children of each grade sent invitations to their parents, inviting them to visit the schools.

Mrs. Elizabeth Morales attended a meeting of the National Criteria Committee for Home Economics Teachers' Education in Washington during Thanksgiving vacation. Mrs. Morales was appointed by the Chief of Home Economics in the United States and is one of a committee whose members were chosen from all regions of the United States.

Miss Dorothy Hutchinson and her fourth grade presented a program of Local History to the Mansfield P.T.A. at the Senior High School on November 17 at 7:30 p. m. The program consisted of three units of history of Tioga County—one on the 'Indians, one on the Pioneers, and one on Modern history. Music and art were incorporated into the program and the children made a large map of Tioga County to go along with the programs. On the map they filled in important things that happened in Tioga County. Members of the A.C.E.I. were invited as guests.

Miss Mildred Grigsby and Miss Elizabeth Stalford accompanied members of the A.C.E.I. Club to Penn State on November 8th, where they attended the Pennsylvania convention of the A.C.E.I.

Dr. Elizabeth M. Swan participated in the induction ceremony of new members of the National Honor Society of the Addison Central School, on November 25. In her address she stressed the advantages of a good high school foundation in scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Quite a number of Mansfield graduates were present on this occasion, both among the teachers in the school and the parents of honor students.

The program was planned and directed by Miss Betty Gene Hickey, Director of Guidance in the Addison Central School. Miss Hickey is the niece of Miss Edna Hewson, Registrar of this college.

Home Ec. Girls Take Field Trip

On Wed. Oct. 15, thirty-two senior and sophomore home economics girls with their instructor, Miss Melinda Fiat and Miss Eleanor Johnson, went on a field trip to various places of interest.

The first place they visited was Grerve's Market in Williamsport where they saw foods of the highest quality on display.

The next stop was Montgomery where they visited the Decker Furniture factory. They started where the wood was seasoned and ended up in the display room where the finished products were exhibited.

One of their most fascinating stops was the Magee Carpet Factory, where they saw the steps in rug and carpet making. They went on a complete tour of the operation, a three mile walk over the territory that the factory occupied.

Their last stop was the Stroeman Bakery in Williamsport where they learned how bread is made.
